Raising A Responsible Child Practical Steps To Successful Family Relationships:

Raising a Responsible Child: Practical Steps to Successful Family Relationships Don C. Dinkmeyer, Gary D. McKay, 1973 All parents would agree that adequate preparation for life requires a sense of responsibility Few know how to foster responsibility however Commonly it is felt that one must teach responsibility Punishment rewards and bribes are the tools of the teaching process These methods are generally unsuccessful as a parent cannot teach responsibility he must give it to the child and let him learn how to handle it As children learn to accept responsibility they begin to enjoy being responsible The gain confidence and feel worthwhile Back cover Raising a responsible child Don C. Dinkmeyer, Gary D. McKay, 1973 Practical Parenting Gail Josephson Lipsitz, 1997 Indirect Parenting Interventions, Neuroscience and the Parent-Child Relationship Thomas W. Roberts, 2024-10-21 This volume explores indirect parenting behavior that changes the structure of the parent child relationship examining the ecological dimension of parenting in addition to nurturance and control Drawing on neuroscientific research in parenting it provides a model for how children learn implicitly and how parents can relate to children through indirect means Roberts argues that first order parenting techniques teaching specific behaviors to reduce unwanted child behaviors are overused He examines and offers guidance on how indirect interventions that place emphasis on the interactional components of the parent child relationship such as modelling storytelling reframing humor and paradox can support parents and children in developing positive relationships Addresses the latest brain research and its application to parent child interactions Introduces the student to aspects of the parent child relationship that are not covered in most courses Useful to clinicians who work directly with parents Offers a perspective on parenting that differs from most parenting models Facilitates awareness of how unconscious and nonverbal communication affects parenting Serves to deepen the relationship with the child and curb unwanted behavior Indirect Parenting Interventions Neuroscience and the Parent Child Relationship will be thought provoking reading for students and scholars of parenting and family systems as well as clinicians who work directly with parents giving them a broader perspective in dealing with parent child interactions Beyond Behavior Management Jenna Bilmes, 2013-01-15 Why do children do the things they do What can teachers do to manage it all While there is not a simple method for understanding and managing all behaviors or all children teachers can give young children the social and emotional tools needed to grow and thrive on their own Developed and tested in the classroom Beyond Behavior Management is a strength based approach to guiding and managing young children s behavior by helping them build and use essential life skills attachment collaboration self regulation adaptability contribution and belonging into the daily life of the early childhood classroom As a result children will learn to exhibit more pro social behaviors work better as a community and become excited and active learners This edition includes two new chapters and content reflecting early learning standards new research cultural diversity and strategies to strengthen the home school connection Discussion and reflection questions exercises journal assignments child profile templates a planning worksheet and sample scripts are also included Jenna Bilmes is an early childhood consultant and an instructional designer for WestEd Child and Family Services She is a frequent presenter to teachers administrators and counselors nationally and internationally

The Death of Character James Davison Hunter, 2008-01-04 The Death of Character is a broad historical sociological and cultural inquiry into the moral life and moral education of young Americans based upon a huge empirical study of the children themselves The children s thoughts and concerns expressed here in their own words shed a whole new light on what we can expect from moral education Targeting new theories of education and the prominence of psychology over moral instruction Hunter analyzes the making of a new cultural narcissism
