Berkshire Peter Speed,1992      Walk Britain 2006 Ramblers' Association,2005-12 This text provides a useful information resource for walkers providing details of over 2000 places to stay in beautiful walking country Full colour maps featuring long distance paths are included      Walk Britain Dan French,2004-11 The annual handbook and accommodation guide of the Ramblers Association Newly designed for 2005 with additional sections and more colour photos      Feeling Time Amit S. Yahav,2018-03-19 Literary historians have tended to associate the eighteenth century with the rise of the tyranny of the clock the notion of time as ruled by mechanical chronometry The transition to standardized scheduling and time discipline the often told story goes inevitably results in modernity s time keeper societies and the characterization of modern experience as qualitatively diminished In Feeling Time Amit Yahav challenges this narrative of the triumph of chronometry and the consequent impoverishment of individual experience She explores the fascination eighteenth century writers had with the mental and affective processes through which human beings come not only to know that time has passed but also to feel the durations they inhabit Yahav begins by elucidating discussions by Locke and Hume that examine how humans come to know time noting how these philosophers often consider not only knowledge but also experience She then turns to novels by Richardson Sterne and Radcliffe attending to the material dimensions of literary language to show how novelists shape the temporal experience of readers through their formal choices Along the way she considers a wide range of eighteenth century aesthetic and moral treatises finding that these identify the subjective experience of duration as the crux of pleasure and judgment described more as patterned durational activity than as static state Feeling Time highlights the temporal underpinnings of the eighteenth century s culture of sensibility arguing that novelists have often drawn on the logic of musical composition to make their writing an especially effective tool for exploring time and for shaping durational experience      Illinois English Bulletin ,1926      Bulletin ,1924      Bulletin Illinois Association of Teachers of English,1929      The History of Clerkenwell William John Pinks,Edward J. Wood,1881      The history of Clerkenwell. With additions by the ed., E.J. Wood William John Pinks,1865      Hegel and Psychoanalysis Molly Macdonald,2014-06-03 Both Hegel s philosophy and psychoanalytic theory have profoundly influenced contemporary thought but they are traditionally seen to work in separate rather than intersecting universes This book offers a new interpretation of Hegel s Phenomenology of Spirit and brings it into conversation the work of two of the best known contemporary psychoanalysts Christopher Bollas and Andr Green Hegel and Psychoanalysis centers a consideration of the Phenomenology on the figure of the Unhappy Consciousness and the concept of Force two areas that are often overlooked by studies which focus on the master slave dialectic This book offers reasons for why now more than ever we need to recognize how concepts of intersubjectivity Force the Third and binding are essential to an understanding of our modern world Such concepts can allow for an interrogation of what can be seen as the profoundly false and constructed senses of community and friendship created by social networking sites and further an idea of a global community which thrives at the expense of authentic intersubjective relations

Visionary Dreariness Markus Poetzsch, 2013-09-13 Visionary Dreariness Readings in Romanticism's Quotidian Sublime undertakes a reconceptualization of the theoretical and experiential framework of the Romantic sublime by shifting the focus from Burke's and Kant's prescriptions of natural vastness and grandeur to the narrower but no less wondrous spaces, objects and experiences of everyday life. This shift is defined as a descent from mountaintops to an encounter in William Blake's terms with a World in a Grain of Sand. The purpose of this book is to sift the literature of the Romantic everyday, both prose and poetry, canonical and noncanonical, for such grains. In order to define the inherently amorphous and subsumptive sphere called everyday life, the author draws upon two main theoretical threads: the first based on the phenomenological poetics of Gaston Bachelard serves to elucidate the depth and diversity of everyday household space; the second, comprising the work of Henri Lefebvre and Michel de Certeau, defines the generative potential, what de Certeau glosses as the everyday creativity of some of the most basic human activities such as walking, reading, and washing, to name but a few. The role of the everyday in Romantic literature has in recent years received greater scholarly attention, particularly from critics dissatisfied with the perpetuation of what Karina Williamson characterizes as a debased Romanticism which rules there is a category of experience and expression which is poetic and all the rest is ordinary and inadmissible. The present study serves to map the intersections of these categories of experience and expression, the sublime and the quotidian, and thereby to challenge our assumptions about the aesthetic value of the everyday, not only in the Romantic period but also in our own. The Dublin University Magazine, 1845     The Spectator, 1925     The New Melville Studies Cody Marrs, 2019-03-21 This collection reimagines Melville as both a theorist and a writer, approaching his works as philosophical forms in their own right. The Literary World, 1884     Bard, Kinetic Anne Waldman, 2023-01-17 The expansive, countercultural and wildly prolific life of celebrated poet Anne Waldman in her own words. In Bard Kinetic, Anne Waldman assembles a multifaceted portrait of her life and praxis as a groundbreaking poet. Waldman charts her journey through a maelstrom of radical artistic activity, growing up in Greenwich Village, creative partnership with Allen Ginsberg, touring with Bob Dylan, and founding the Poetry Project at St Mark's Church, and later the Jack Kerouac School of Disembodied Poetics at Naropa University. She discusses the philosophies that guide her as a writer, activist, performer, instigator, and Buddhist practitioner, and pays homage to friends and collaborators including Amiri Baraka, Lou Reed, John Ashbery, Kathy Acker, and Diane di Prima. Waldman's experiences serve as a guide for others committed to making the world a conscious and conscientious place that soars with the discourse and activism of poetry and poethics. A Chinese Chrestomathy in the Canton Dialect Elijah Coleman Bridgman, 1841
London Society James Hogg, Florence Marryat, 1863     London Society, 1863     Profitable Advertising, 1894
