The Fugitive Legacy Charlotte H. Beck, 2001-01-01 Previously the protégés of John Crowe Ransom Allen Tate Donald Davidson and Robert Penn Warren have received considerable scholarly attention only as individuals or in relation to small groups of close knit writers within single literary genres Now for the first time this far ranging group of accomplished writers is united as part of a larger phenomenon the Fugitive legacy which has extended its influence far beyond the parameters of southern literature In The Fugitive Legacy Charlotte H Beck demonstrates the strong influence of the Nashville Fugitives as teachers editors and mentors by examining the extraordinary impact on American letters of the critics poets and fiction writers whom they taught or sponsored By treating the careers of these brilliant authors as a single chapter in literary history Beck makes an invaluable contribution to the understanding of southern literature The cultural importance of the Fugitives has too often been confused with the narrow politics of Agrarianism and relegated to a reactionary piety for regionalism and dead tradition The Fugitive Legacy fills a void in southern literary theory by revealing the resounding echo of this group s voice in modern American literature Warren, Jarrell, and Lowell Joan Romano Shifflett, 2020-06-03 Robert Penn Warren Randall Jarrell and Robert Lowell maintained lifelong well documented friendships with one another often discussing each other s work in private correspondence and published reviews Joan Romano Shifflett s Warren Jarrell and Lowell Collaboration in the Reshaping of American Poetry traces the artistic and personal connections between the three writers Her study uncovers the significance of their parallel literary development and reevaluates dominant views of how American poetry evolved during the mid twentieth century Familiar accounts of literary history most prominently the celebration of Lowell s Life Studies as a revolutionary breakthrough into confessional poetry have obscured the significance of the deep connections that Lowell shared with Warren and Jarrell They all became quite close in the 1930s with the content and style of their early poetry revealing the impact of their mentors John Crowe Ransom and Allen Tate whose aesthetics the three would ultimately modify and transform The three poets achieved professional maturity and success in the 1940s during which time they relied on one another's honest critiques as they experimented with changes in subject matter and modes of expression Shifflett shows that their works of the late 1940s were heavily influenced by Robert Frost This period found Warren Jarrell and Lowell infusing ostensibly simple verse with multifaceted layers of meaning capturing the language of speech in diction and rhythm and striving to raise human experience to a universal level During the 1950s the three poets became public figures producing major works that addressed the nation's postwar need to reconnect with humanity Warren Jarrell and Lowell continued to respond in interlocking ways throughout the 1960s with each writer using innovative stylistic techniques to create a colloquy with readers that directed attention away from superficial matters and toward the important work of self reflection Drawing from biographical materials and correspondence along with detailed readings of many poems Warren Jarrell and Lowell offers a compelling new perspective on the shaping of twentieth century American poetry

Echo and Critique Florian Gargaillo, 2023-05-10 In Echo and Critique Florian Gargaillo skillfully charts the ways that poets have responded to the clichés of public speech from the start of the Second World War to the present Beginning around 1939 many public intellectuals on both sides of the Atlantic lamented that the political lexicon had become saturated with bureaucratic stock phrases such as the fight for freedom revenue enhancement and service the target designed for the mass media and used to euphemize obfuscate and evade Instead of ridding their writing of such language many poets parroted these tropes as a means of exploring the implications of such expressions weighing their effects and identifying the realities they distort and suppress With its attentiveness to linguistic particulars poetry proved especially well suited to this innovative mode of close listening and intertextual commentary At the same time postwar poets recognized their own susceptibility to dead language so that co-opting political clichés obliged them to scrutinize their writing and accept the inevitability of cant while simultaneously pushing against it This innovative study blends close readings with historical context as it traces the development of echo and critique in the work of seven poets who expertly deployed the method throughout their careers W H Auden Randall Jarrell Langston Hughes Claude McKay Robert Lowell Josephine Miles and Seamus Heaney Gargaillo's analysis reveals that poetry can encourage us to listen diligently and critically to the insincerity ubiquitous in public discourse

Jarrell, Bishop, Lowell, & Co Suzanne Ferguson, 2003 Jarrell Bishop Lowell Co Middle Generation Poets in Context Takes on the oft noted but little explored friendship of three of the most respected poets of the twentieth century Editor Suzanne Ferguson collects eighteen essays that explore the literary personal and political affiliations of Randall Jarrell Elizabeth Bishop and Robert Lowell influential literary figures who flourished in the periods between modernism and postmodernism Essay in the first section of the book directly compare the subjects while sections on each of the poets follow The contributors unpack received wisdom on the poets revising and updating our conceptions The multiple viewpoints reflect on one another shedding provocative light on the group as a whole and revealing the ways the study of poets in their historical context helps make them not only accessible but also relevant to today's reader. The Contributors: Edward Hirsch, Steven Gould Axelrod, Jeredith Merrin, Thomas Travisano, Diederik Oostdijk, Richard Flynn, Nelson Hathcock, Florian Hild, Stephen Burt, James McCorkle, Ross Leckie, Meg Schoerke, Lurel Kornhisser, Francesco Rognoni, Christian Sisack, Ernest J. Smith, and Elise Partridge. The Editor: Suzanne Ferguson. is Samuel B. and Virginia C. Knight, Professor of Humanities Emerita at Case Western Reserve University.
