The Lion of Dellwood Don Greco, 2022-12-15 Synopsis The novel is aimed at those interested in not just football but the human condition The Lion of Dellwood is a story of resilience and the human spirit Dellwood Derry Defiance Dennis and Dementia are five places life leads Donald Richards Richards is a young boy who spends his formative years as a ward of the state and the guest of an abusive foster family He s a payday and an unpaid laborer for the Bono family The system labels the orphan a five a broken boy they describe as physically inept mentally impaired and intellectually behind He believes the message and the reality he observes he s damaged The number five is his curse but also his blessing Throughout his life the five appears as a symbolic reminder he s both broken and exceptional He finds solace in books and in sports Reading takes him places he s never been He discovers a score of fascinating people and endless possibilities Sports are his chocolate he can t imagine his life without them When he s immersed in a book or playing on an athletic field he feels like a ten like anything is possible The outward criticism drives Donald to make something of himself He spends his life pursuing a game that would eventually kill him

Football is his focus beacon of hope and plan for a better life Magically things start to align in his troubled universe His escape from Dellwood Missouri manifests in the form of a comic book a park a letter a fire then a gym a failed physical exam a scholarship and an opportunity to play professional football With a boost from a devil named Kapp he becomes a fixture with the Pennsylvania Lions of the Professional Football League He thrives but continues to struggle off the field Richards turbulent childhood taught him that people can t be trusted and that his time is better spent pursuing his passion instead of relationships He constructs walls at an early age to keep people out but they also isolate him from the rest of the world Love finds Richards at the worst possible time He won t trust it so he deflects it to pursue his goal football A decade later Richards stumbles into an unwanted marriage and an unplanned family As his long and uneventful career grinds to an end he s conflicted and wonders if he d missed the mark Does he need the one thing he purposely pushed away love He concludes his life is imperfectly perfect He found his place on a football field and for now that s enough as he navigates this uncharted journey called life Name Calling Robert Bimler,2011 Warlock Holmes: The Hell-Hound of the Baskervilles G.S. H. Court,2017-12-14 n these glimpses of suburban life Pete Court s gentle yet sharp observations of the human condition manage to be both sardonic and compassionate In language that sings with inventiveness and a joyfully grim humour each tale is woven through with touches of the magical little sparkling surprises that add a thread of mystic wonder throughout the whole At the end of it all I was left contemplating just how well I was living loving and being a Light in the Darkness D M Cornish author Monster Blood Tattoo series Court s prose is a world of its own In these stories he gets into the minds of some desperate and unbelievable characters While the stories are gruesome they make a case for our common humanity Above all they have verve and incredible energy Phillip Edmonds author of Tilting at Windmills and Leaving Home with Henry Court s precise evocative writing gives us troubling stories inviting the reader into challenging worlds of grotesquerie and distortion In scenes reminiscent of Kafka all three novellas are a search for elusive threads of meaning with the Dark as a linking motif Intriguing and compelling reading Valerie Volk author of Even Grimmer Tales and Bystanders P H Court s Sub Urban Tales navigate that mysterious territory where time place and eternity meet At once intriguing sometimes gruesome often hilarious and always relatable these cunningly interwoven tales remind us of the extraordinary in the ordinary the grace reflected in all surfaces though dimmed by the Dark of human conceit James Cooper Head of Creative Writing Tabor College P H Court is co host of the popular Breakfast with Kit and Pete on Adelaide s 1079 Life and is creative writer for the radio station He is an adjunct lecturer at Tabor College and a PhD candidate in Creative Writing at University of Adelaide He has published numerous award winning short stories and satires Stalking Nightfall Kindle ,2013-05-30

Having been encapsulated in the routine morning fog of London for the past eight years lonely factory worker Harold Elway suddenly finds himself helpless to the jeering teeth of his past American life Staggering candle flames and oil slopped lanterns can only protect Harold from the nauseating phantoms to a narrow degree Picking up months into the hauntings Stalking Nightfall tells the tale of Harold Elway through the once scattered journal entries of his acquaintances Combined with Harold s own recordings the entries vary from reserved local tea shop owner Johnny Tapping to the questionably ill practiced Doctor Naragavitz Harold s stubbornness in refusing treatment clashes with his ailing search for a single night of serenity Shamed by his own imperfect brain Harold must distinguish manipulation from reality before the shade swallows what remains of his sanity

Museums 2000 Patrick Boylan,2005-09-26 Museum and art galleries have never been so much in the news as they have been over the past decade Yet public focus at both professional and non specialist levels has been remarkable for what has been accidentally or deliberately left out of recent debates Moving beyond the narrow issues of professional practice Museums 2000 probes the political economic and cultural realities which affect museums today Because the contributors are drawn from the museum profession and the wider political academic and business community worldwide the book is truly international reflecting the issues which affect all museums
