Ruffian On The Stair Reflections On Death:

The Ruffian on the Stair Rosemary Dinnage,1990 Julian Barnes from the Margins Vanessa Guignery,2020-03-05 Exploring the archives of the Man Booker prize winning novelist Julian Barnes including notebooks drafts typescripts and publishing correspondence this book is an extraordinary in depth study of the creative practice of a major contemporary novelist In Julian Barnes from the Margins Vanessa Guignery charts the genesis and publication history of all of Barnes s major novels from his debut with Metroland through Flaubert s Parrot and A History of the World in 10 1 2 Chapters to The Sense of an Ending The Revival of Death Tony Walter,2002-01-31 Talking about death is now fashionable but how should we talk Who should we listen to priests doctors counsellors or ourselves Has psychology replaced religion in telling us how to die This provocative book takes a sociological look at the revival of interest in death focusing on the hospice movement and bereavement counselling It will be required reading for anyone interested in the sociology of death and caring for the dying the dead or bereaved Death Liturgy and Ritual Paul P.J. Sheppy,2017-07-05 This title was first published in 2003 Death Liturgy and Ritual is a two volume study of Christian funerary theology and practice presenting an invaluable account of funeral rites and the central issues involved for compilers and users Paul Sheppy writes from direct experience of conducting funerals and of drafting liturgical resources for others In Volume I A Pastoral and Liturgical Theology Sheppy argues that the Church ought to construct its theological agenda in dialogue with other fields of study He proposes a Christian statement about death that finds its basis in the Paschal Mystery since human death must be explained by reference to Jesus death descent to the dead and resurrection Using the three phases of van Gennep s theory of rites of passage the author shows how the Easter triduum may be seen as normative for Christian liturgies of death The companion volume Volume II A Commentary on Liturgical Texts reviews a wide range of current Christian funeral rites and examines how they reflect both the Church s concern for the death and resurrection of Christ and the contemporary secular demand for funerals which celebrate the life of the deceased Death and the Author David Ellis,2008-07-17 At the heart of Death and the Author is a dramatic account of D H Lawrence s desperate struggle against tuberculosis during his last days and of certain often bizarre events which followed his death Around this narrative David Ellis offers a series of reflections about what it is like to have a disease for which there is no cure the appeal of alternative medicine the temptation of suicide for the terminally ill the diminishing role of religion in modern life the institution of famous last words the consequences of dying intestate and so on These are clearly not the most immediately appealing of topics but they have an obvious significance for everyone and the treatment of them here is by no means lugubrious even if in the nature of the case most of the jokes fall into the category of gallows humour Lawrence is the main focus throughout but there are extended references to a number of other famous literary consumptives such as Keats Katherine Mansfield Kafka Chekhov and George Orwell Not a long book Death and the author is divided into three parts called Dying Death and Remembrance and is made up of twenty two short sections Although it incorporates a good deal of original material the annotation has been kept deliberately light The aim has been to combine the drama of events a good story with a consideration of matters which must eventually concern us all and to present the material in a lively and accessible form Encyclopedia of Death and Dying Glennys Howarth, Oliver Leaman, 2003-12-16 In recent years there has been a massive upsurge in academic professional and lay interest in mortality This is reflected in academic and professional literature in the popular media and in the proliferation of professional roles and training courses associated with aspects of death and dying Until now the majority of reference material on death and dying has been designed for particular disciplinary audiences and has addressed only specific academic or professional concerns There has been an urgent need for an authoritative but accessible reference work reflecting the multidisciplinary nature of the field This Encyclopedia answers that need The Encyclopedia of Death and Dying consolidates and contextualizes the disparate research that has been carried out to date The phenomena of death and dying and its related concepts are explored and explained in depth from the approaches of varied disciplines and related professions in the arts social sciences humanities medicine and the sciences In addition to scholars and students in the field from anthropologists and sociologists to art and social historians the Encyclopedia will be of interest to other professionals and practitioners whose work brings them into contact with dying dead and bereaved people It will be welcomed as the definitive death and dying reference source and an essential tool for teaching research and independent study Living with death and dying The Open University, This 4 hour free course explored how knowledge of and beliefs about death affect people's lives and examined the concept of a good death Life in Death Dennis Tupicoff, 2022-04-20 Death the very word is resonant with emotion imagery and meaning It is the ultimate life event that all living things will eventually experience as such it comes as no surprise that death is often a popular theme of literature art games cinema music and even animation Dennis Tupicoff world renowned animator writer and producer is an expert on the narrative application of death in animation Take a journey with Tupicoff as he goes in depth into the many themes associations and practices found in film and especially animation Life in Death My Animated Films 1976 2020 explores death as it relates to experience storytelling theory and narrative The examples in the very readable text are organized into three broad categories cartoon documentary and hybrids of various types KEY FEATURES Explores death as a narrative theme within cinema and animation Biographical insight into Dennis Tupicoff's works and how the subject of death impacted these completed award winning films Special online access to Dennis Tupicoff's animated works In depth exploration into ten of Dennis Tupicoff's most influential animations Working with Loss, Death and Bereavement Jeremy Weinstein, 2007-11-15 This book makes a significant contribution to the literature The author is to be commended for the huge amount of work he has put into this volume which deserves to be widely used Professor Bernard Moss Staffordshire University All social workers encounter complex and diverse forms of loss throughout their practice Working with Loss Death and Bereavement helps trainee and practitioners navigate these difficult situations by developing the skills and values necessary for effective and empowering practice Each chapter is grounded in social work theory and is illustrated by practice scenarios exercises suggestions for further study and contemporary cultural examples from novels and films The book explores definitions and assessment of loss psychological aspects of loss and grief skills methods and theories working with the individual families support groups and communities avenues of support for social workers key themes of anti discriminatory practice evidence based practice and ethical awareness This invaluable skills based book meets the training requirements for social workers and will be essential reading for students or practitioners wishing to reflect on and develop their own practice in working with loss death and bereavement Jeremy Weinstein worked as a social worker prior to teaching at London South Bank University where he is now a Visiting Fellow Jeremy is an accredited trainer and gestalt psychotherapist with a small private practice offering therapy supervision and consultation
