understood to get to the heart of what really matters to and for children The book draws on examples from research with children aged under 5 years and young adults aged 18-25 It also includes a chapter on teachers' interests It presents new and original models for interests-based curriculum and sociocultural curriculum and pedagogy for future examination in research and practice This book demonstrates that leaving behind long-standing taken-for-granted practices that have influenced understandings of curriculum pedagogy learning and outcomes allows a new perspective of children's interests to emerge It will be of interest to researchers postgraduate students and practitioners in the early years parents and other professionals who work with young children SRA Open Court Reading, 2002 Blackline Masters of the Lesson and Benchmark Assessments can be printed off the CD-ROM
