Dr. C's 5 Simple Rules To Effective Classroom Management Dr. Pierre Christian,2014-05-21 They are just kids it can t be that bad this is what I told myself after accepting my first teaching job But my first day in the classroom with a couple dozen of 8th graders gave me a reality check I still remember that day like it was yesterday when I walked into that classroom and that door closed behind me As if they were trained all their little head turned toward me and their eyes were analyzing every move I make Physically I am pretty big man about 6 2 over 280 pounds and I have never been so threaten in my life by a bunch of 12 13 years old I had just got hired at a new school on a career change Not even in my wildest dream I taught I would be a teacher Last time I had set foot into a classroom before that was back in college It was a Monday in January a little after non I was only suppose to sign some documents when one of the assistant principal called a gentlemen named Mr Frank and said Hey Mr Frank why don t you show Mr Christian his class It was a very nice campus very quiet and while walking I kept telling myself it can t be that bad I just switch career from been a correctional officer they are just kids I had that mixed feeling I was at the sane time hoping for the walk toward the classroom to last forever and at the same time I wanted to just see what I was up against and get it over with We had just made a left and I heard here it is As he was turning that key into the doorknob I was trying pick through the half opened blinds to see them and it was about time to cross that line of no return We walked in and Mr Frank made his way to the front of the class and stated Class meet Mr Christian your new teacher Mr Christian meet your class And he walked off and sat next to the sub that was in the classroom I was standing in front of them and they were just staring at me I tried to introduce myself and telling how it was a pleasure to meet them and that I was looking forward to working with them Most of them acted as if they were actually listening I don t know if it s because they were still studying me or what it was There was that one boy in the back little dark skin kid with his socks matching his t shirt matching his backpack etc Every sentence I started he finished it with a comment making the rest of the class laugh I was hoping for someone to come to my rescue and make that boy disappear but that never happened These five minutes seemed eternal I had to end it myself by saying Ok now I am going to let you continue working now we will talk some more tomorrow I did not close my eyes that night I was revising my speech my action I basically planned the entire day second by second Well comes tomorrow I realized that there are no such thing as typical day in middle school I wish someone had told me not to loose my sleep over it There is a specific reason why I shared my own story with you I want to show you that I understand what you are going through I have been in your shoes and I am sharing with you what helped me become a great classroom manager I had to learn quickly how to manage a classroom in order to become successful This book will teach you my 5 simple rules to great classroom management Rule 1 Build a lasting relationship Rule 2 Choose your battle Rule 3 Teach the whole child Rule 4 Occupy their mind Rule 5 Stay on the bridge New England Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1901 Student Perceptions of Rules for Classroom Interaction H. Burgoon's expectancy violation model posits that nonverbal rule violations will be evaluated according to the perceptions toward the violator and the behavior itself However the violator may have perceptions regarding the appropriateness of the rule This study measured the perceptions of high school students regarding the rules for classroom interaction It is believed that the rules for classroom interaction are rules which have been learned through the process of socialization and enculturation into the classroom setting throughout students' careers These rules should be well known by all students by the time they reach tenth grade the grade being investigated A survey questionnaire was developed through a pilot study and was distributed to 244 students through the English classes of three East Baton Rouge parish high schools The high schools were chosen by relative drop out rate Students were grouped by sex race and age to measure differences in attitude by characteristics of potential dropouts The study found that males have more negative attitudes toward compliance with laziness rules and the importance of those laziness rules than females The study also found that Black students have a more positive attitudes regarding the importance of distraction laziness and respectfulness rules than non Black students Implications regarding the attitudes toward classroom rules are discussed The School Journal , 1906
