Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003 Working Mother ,2002-10 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives Generation Text Michael OSIT,2008-07-23 A teenage boy goes shopping on the Internet sees something he likes immediately reaches his mother via cell phone and in a few short keystrokes types in her credit card number and gets a shiny new lacrosse stick Thanks to technological advances including computers the Internet cell phones and satellites today's children are faced with a world markedly more complex and often distracting than that of any other preceding generation. Generation Text examines why and how this phenomenon shapes children's values, attitudes, and behavior in a way that is fundamentally different from previous generations and provides strategies for coping with the particular challenges of growing up in the new millennium. Parents who want to ensure that their children successfully develop key social skills, a healthy identity, and a strong work ethic need to make the right choices every step of the way. Clinical psychologist Dr. Michael Osit draws on his professional as well as personal experiences working with children and teens who have been challenged by unprecedented access to information, possessions, and temptation. Using case studies and examples, the book provides reasonable, down-to-earth strategies readers can use to address the unique issues faced by children surrounded by infinite choices and very few limits.

Love and Nurture in the Early Years Aaron Bradbury, Tamsin Grimmer, 2024-03-20 If ever there was a time for love and nurture, it is now. Love and Nurture approaches are intertwined and impossible to focus on in isolation. This practical book for Early Years students and practitioners includes real-life case studies and practical examples alongside academic underpinning and essential theory. It supports students to understand and explore the need for and importance of Love and Nurture in early years practice. The book focuses on key child developmental factors including brain development, attachment, awareness, love languages, and nurturing touch, the science of nurture, the theory of love and nurture, and building relational practice.
