Jalalu'd-Din Rumi, 2017-03-06 Sufism is a school for the actualization of divine ethics It involves an enlightened inner being not intellectual proof revelation and witnessing not logic By divine ethics we are referring to ethics that transcend mere social convention a way of being that is the actualization of the attributes of God To explain the Truth is indeed a difficult task Words being limited can never really express the perfection of the Absolute the Unbound Thus for those who are imperfect words create doubt and misunderstanding Yet If one cannot drink up the entire ocean one can drink to one's limit Philosophers have written volumes and spoken endlessly of the Truth but somehow their efforts have always fallen short For the Sufi philosophers are those who view the Perfection of the Absolute from a limited perspective so all they see is part of the Absolute not the Infinite in its entirety It is indeed true that what philosophers see is correct nevertheless it is only a part of the whole One is reminded of Rumi's well known story of a group of men in India who had never seen an elephant One day they came to a place where an elephant was In complete darkness they approached the animal each man feeling it Afterwards they described what they thought they had perceived Of course their descriptions were different The one who felt a leg imagined the elephant to be a pillar The one who felt the animal's ear described the elephant as a fan and so on Each one of their descriptions with respect to the various parts they had experienced was true However as far as accurately describing the whole their conceptions had all fallen short If they had had a candle the difference of opinions would not have come about The candle's light would have revealed the elephant as a whole Only by the light of the Spiritual Path and the mystic way can the Truth be discovered In order for one to truly witness the Perfection of the Absolute one must see with one's inner being which perceives the whole of Reality This witnessing happens when one becomes perfect losing one's partial existence in the Whole If the Whole is likened to the Ocean and the part to a drop the sufi says that witnessing the Ocean with the eye of a drop is impossible However when the drop becomes one with the Ocean it sees the Ocean with the eye of the Ocean The Masnavi, Book One Jalal al-Din Rumi, 2004-11-11 Publisher description

The Philosophy of Ecstasy Leonard Lewisohn, 2015-01-30 Jalal al-Din Rumi 1207-73 founder of the Mevlevi Sufi order of Whirling Dervishes is the best selling poet in America today The wide ranging appeal of his work is such that UNESCO declared 2007 to be International Rumi Year However his writings represent much more than love poetry Rumi was one of the preeminent thinkers of Sufism the esoteric form of Islam In this groundbreaking collection of 13 essays on Rumi many of the world's leading authorities in the field of Islamic Studies and Persian Literature discuss the major religious themes in his poetry and teachings In addition to discussing the ideas of love ecstasy and music in Rumi's Sufi poetry the essays offer new historical and theological perspectives on his work The immortality of the soul free will the nature of punishment and reward and the relationship of Islam to Christianity are all covered in order to bring Rumi's poetry properly into the context of the Sufi tradition to which he belonged Please note This ebook contains foreign characters that may not be visible on all eBook devices The Masnavi I Ma'navi of Rumi Maulana Jalalu-'d-din Muhammad Rumi, 2011-05-25 The general theme of Rumi's thought like that of other mystic and Sufi poets of Persian literature is essentially that of the concept of tawhid union with his beloved the primal root from which whom he has been cut off and become aloof and his longing and desire to restore it The Masnavi weaves fables scenes from everyday life Quranic revelations and exegesis and metaphysics into a vast and intricate tapestry In the East it is said of him that he was not a prophet but surely he has brought a scripture Rumi believed passionately in the use of music poetry and dance as a path for reaching God For Rumi music helped devotees to focus their whole being on the divine and to do this so intensely that the soul was both destroyed and resurrected It was from these ideas that the practice of whirling dervishes developed into a ritual form His teachings became the base for the order of the Mawlawi which his son Sultan Walad organized Rumi encouraged sama listening to music and turning or doing the sacred dance In the Mevlevi tradition sama represents a mystical journey of spiritual ascent through mind and love to the Perfect One In this journey the seeker symbolically turns towards the truth grows through love abandons the ego finds the truth and arrives at the Perfect The seeker then returns from this spiritual journey with greater maturity to love and to be of service to the whole of creation without discrimination with regard to beliefs races classes and nations In other verses in the Masnavi Rumi describes in detail the universal message of love The lover's cause is separate from all other causes Love is the astrolabe of God's mysteries Rumi was an evolutionary thinker in the sense that he believed that the spirit after devolution from the divine Ego undergoes an evolutionary process by which it comes nearer and nearer to the same divine Ego All matter in the universe obeys this law and this movement is due to an inbuilt urge which Rumi calls love to evolve and seek enjoinment with the divinity from which it has emerged Evolution into a human being from an animal is only one stage in this process The doctrine of the Fall of Adam is reinterpreted as the devolution of the Ego from the universal ground of divinity and is a universal cosmic phenomenon The French philosopher Henri Bergson s idea of life being creative and evolutionary is similar though unlike Bergson Rumi believes that there is a specific goal to the process the attainment of God For Rumi God is the ground as well as the goal of all existence However Rumi need not be considered a biological evolutionary creationist In view of the fact that Rumi lived hundreds of years before Darwin and was least interested in scientific theories it is probable to conclude that he does not deal with biological evolution at all Rather he is concerned with the spiritual evolution of a human being Man not conscious of God is akin to an animal and true consciousness makes him divine Nicholson has seen this as a Neo Platonic doctrine the universal soul working through the various spheres of being a doctrine introduced into Islam by Muslim philosophers like Al Farabi and being related at the same time to Ibn Sina s idea of love as the magnetically working power by which life is driven into an upward trend

Rumi Rumi,2013-04-01 Championed by the likes of Madonna Donna Karan and Deepak Chopra Rumi has won such a following in this country that a few years ago he was proclaimed our bestselling poet But translations that have popularized the work of this thirteenth century Sufi mystic have also strayed from its essence In this new translation Farrukh Dhondy seeks to recover both the lyrical beauty and the spiritual essence of the original verse In poems of love and devotion rapture and suffering loss and yearning for oneness Dhondy has rediscovered the Islamic mystic of spiritual awakening whose quest is the key to his universal appeal Here is at once a great poet of love both human and divine and the authentic voice of a moderate Islam a voice that can resonate in today s turbulent fundamentalist times
