Rumors Of Separate Worlds:

Linking Separate Worlds Karsten Paerregaard, 2020-05-31 This pathbreaking ethnography of population movements between rural and urban places in Peru addresses the conceptual and methodological problems of studying deterritorialized populations and the implications of this for anthropology's notions of culture and identity Based on extensive fieldwork this book explores the economic social and ritual bonds which link migrants in Peru's major cities to their Andean native village Many urban migrants establish networks based on kinship and marriage ties to exploit resources in the city as well as the village These networks ensure they maintain strong links to their native village Fiestas soccer tournaments and folklore festivals also play a crucial role in the formation of migrant communities in Peru's cities The author analyses these performance practices and shows how they give rise to the creation of new social identities The participation of second generation migrants returning migrants and migrant spouses in village life is also discussed American Practitioner and News, 1880-07 A Rumour from the Firehouse Mari Emm, 2015-01-20 Full of the flavour of the eighties It depicts the story of a group of fire brigade personnel that co conspire to destroy the life of a senior officer set against the backdrop of the miners strike and the Thatcher government Each one has their own beneficial interest in seeing the back of him He has no idea he is deliberately being coerced into a position of entrapment Is the Gospel Good News? Stanley E. Porter, Hughson T. Ong, 2019-05-02 Is the Gospel Good News was the theme of the 2015 H H Bingham Colloquium at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario Canada held on June 4 5 The fourteen participants in this colloquium presented their own individual perspectives on the theme from three broad vantage points Bible theology and crucial topics The good news that Jesus proclaimed concerning the kingdom of God became the gospel proclaimed by his followers throughout church history This gospel is about the coming of Jesus Christ in fulfillment of God's will for humanity This volume presents some accounts of how this good news has been understood through the ages and continues to be understood in relation to some of the major topics and issues of our contemporary world The papers in the Bible section discuss this good news from both Old and New Testament passages and themes The papers in the Theology section address theological topics in light of the question of what constitutes the good news Finally the papers in the Crucial Topics section explore new and different perspectives on ways in which the gospel is good news This volume highlights diverse perspectives and proposals by scholars from various locations in different stages of their academic careers resulting in a stimulating discussion of the topic of the gospel as good news The Ecology of Games Katie Salen Tekinbas, 2007-11-30 An exploration of games as systems in which young people participate as gamers producers and learners In the many studies of games and young people's use of them little has been written about an overall ecology of gaming game design and play mapping the ways that all the various elements from coding to social practices to aesthetics coexist in the game world This volume looks at games as systems in which young users participate as gamers producers and learners The Ecology of Games edited by Rules of Play author Katie Salen aims to expand upon and add nuance to the debate over the value of games which so far has been vociferous but overly polemical and surprisingly shallow Game play is credited with fostering new forms of social organization and new ways of thinking and interacting the contributors work to situate this within a dynamic media ecology that has the participatory nature of gaming at its core They look at the ways in which youth are empowered through their participation in the creation uptake and revision of games emergent gaming literacies including modding world building and learning how to navigate a complex system and how games act as points of departure for other forms of knowledge literacy and social organization Contributors Ian Bogost Anna Everett James Paul Gee Mizuko Ito Barry Joseph Laurie McCarthy Jane McGonigal Cory Ondrejka Amit Pitaru Tom Satwicz Kurt Squire Reed Stevens S Craig Watkins In the World War Count Ottokar Czernin,2018-09-20 Reproduction of the original In the World War by Count Ottokar Czernin Toolbox Digital Business Ralf T.
