Run Of The House:

Who Wants to Run? Andrew B. Hall,2019-04-02 The growing ideological gulf between Democrats and Republicans is one of the biggest issues in American politics today Our legislatures composed of members from two sharply disagreeing parties are struggling to function as the founders intended them to If we want to reduce the ideological gulf in our legislatures we must first understand what has caused it to widen so much over the past forty years Andrew B Hall argues that we have missed one of the most important reasons for this ideological gulf the increasing reluctance of moderate citizens to run for office While political scientists journalists and pundits have largely focused on voters worried that they may be too partisan too uninformed to vote for moderate candidates or simply too extreme in their own political views Hall argues that our political system discourages moderate candidates from seeking office in the first place Running for office has rarely been harder than it is in America today and the costs dissuade moderates more than extremists Candidates have to wage ceaseless campaigns dialing for dollars for most of their waking hours while enduring relentless news and social media coverage When moderate candidates are unwilling to run voters do not even have the opportunity to send them to office To understand what is wrong with our legislatures then we need to ask ourselves the question who wants to run If we want more moderate legislators we need to make them a better job offer The Forgotten Mines and Coal Towns of Thoms Run Rand Gee,Gene Czambel,2018-04-25 This book documents the history of the coal mines and coal towns of Thoms Run hollow Read about the development of coal towns Beechmont Hickman Federal Burdine and Presto PA Get a sense of where the mines and towns were located and about life in the coal patches Understand the tough life that miners had in rural Pennsylvania Learn the rich history of how one little road supported so much coal production and the development of Collier Township PA The Battles of "Gravelly Run", "Dinwiddie Court-house", and "Five Forks", VA., 1865. horses when they were only 10 years old how one of the boys accidentally cut off his little sisters finger how an uncle lost his leg to the stump puller how the author when he was only eight years old tried to explain to a blind preacher how to use the out house and the Sears Roebuck catalog which was used instead of toilet paper Also described and a little more on the lighter side one of the authors sisters claimed that you havent lived until you ran barefoot through a cow pasture and felt the warmth of a fresh cow patty ooze up between your toes The early chapters also describe the authors time in the US Navy where he was sea sick every time the ship left the dock Hunting stories tell of deer hunting with more failures than successes One successful   History of Randolph County, Indiana E.
