Running Through the Wall Neal Jamison,2014-04-30 WHAT S IT LIKE TO RUN FOR 30 50 OR 100 MILES This book is a great inspiration not only to current ultrarunners and to marathoners looking for the next challenge but also to runners of all abilities who will see that there is nothing you can t do if you have the desire What makes ultrarunners tick What goes through their minds at mile 93 How can you train for such a colossal undertaking These questions and many more are answered in this inspiring collection of 39 personal stories from ultramarathoners Ultramarathoning is the logical next step for those who burn with a desire to explore their limits and beyond It is impossible to run ultra distances without coming away with at least one fascinating story This book is full of them There are stories of fatigue blisters nausea and despair But the ultrarunner prevails to find hope love healing self discovery friendship selflessness and in the end for most triumph Learn what it feels like to run an ultra from the champions the newcomers and the veterans of the sport A few brief excerpts I left Edinburg witnessing my second sunrise on this run Most ultrarunners dread dawn the hours from 4 00 to 6 00 a m primarily because this is when fatigue sets in Keith Knipling It would be hours before we d see the first aid station and probably close to two days before we d have dry feet again Deb Pero I m 95 miles into a 100 miler it s over 100 degrees out my legs are shot I m a few scant minutes ahead of Ann and Gabriel and my pacer is stopped dead in the trail for fear of a skunk Tim Twietmeyer Ultrarunning is without question the most feared aspect of adventure racing Ian Adamson The urge to quit right there was overwhelming but I was still in the race Perhaps a miracle would happen and I could get in under the four hours it would take to make the next cutoff I thanked the aid station captain and plunged into the darkness Will Brown It was time to put all the viable excuses aside and look inside Tracy Baldyga I think I quit about 20 times during the race mostly between the time the sun went down and the time that I finally walked away Reality sets in when it gets dark The trail gets lonely Jason Hodde During every race you are faced with a moment of truth a point in the race when you either quit or persevere to the end Every person who finishes an ultramarathon has accomplished a great feat simply because they finished Bethany Hunter
