carrying a dying man in his arms I knew in an instant that I had to become a part of this work It was certainly not a religious calling but a simple calling to give something of myself to others I felt that if I could comfort one dying person my life would have had purpose It took me ten years to enter the world that I had only seen a glimpse of in that magazine article When I did it was during the worst of the AIDS crisis in the United States in a hospice called Gift of Love in New York City which had been opened by Mother Teresa in 1985 It had room for fifteen dying men most of them from a world I had never known a world of drugs poverty and crime a far cry from the privileged life of chateaus in Europe that I had been brought up in and later on the world of show business in which I had been able to fulfill some of my greatest dreams In the years to come these men who were dying of AIDS and had never been given much of a chance in life taught me not only about the many ways to help others die in an atmosphere of peace and love but also how to enjoy the richness of living our lives fully until the very end Whenever Mother Teresa asked me to sing for her on her little terrace in Calcutta I never said No And when I asked her to help me write about caring for loved ones in their last days she also never said No What a blessing thank you Mother If I can reach just one person who is flailing around in panic and fear while trying to help a loved one at the end of their life my journey will have been worthwhile
