The Teacher's Guide To Terrorism Daniel Abbott, 2014-02-10. His world shaken by a terrorist attack and his best friend critical in hospital, teacher and part-time spy Augustus Fox is once again called upon by MI5 to discover who was behind the blast and just what or who their next target will be. To make things worse, his autistic brother Larson is struggling to cope with real life, and a face from Gus' past has returned to haunt him. When an extreme right-wing political party tries to recruit him, will Gus succumb to the charisma of their leader Thomas Wareing? Or will he continue blindly down the path of being the best man he can be?

Running Free Richard Askwith, 2014-03-06. Shortlisted for the 2015 Thwaites Wainwright prize for nature writing, Richard Askwith wanted more. Not convinced running had to be all about pounding pavements, buying fancy kit, and racking up extreme challenges, he looked for ways to liberate himself. His solution: running through muddy fields and up rocky fells, running with his dog at dawn, running because he's being voluntarily chased by a pack of bloodhounds, running to get hopelessly enjoyably lost, running fast for the sheer thrill of it. Running as nature intended. Part diary of a year running through the Northamptonshire countryside, part exploration of why we love to run without limits. Running Free is an eloquent and inspiring account of running in a forgotten rural way, observing wildlife and celebrating the joys of nature. An opponent of the commercialisation of running, Askwith offers a welcome alternative with practical tips learned the hard way on how to both start and keep running naturally, from thawing frozen toes to avoiding a stampede when crossing a field of cows.

Running Free is about getting back to the basics of why we love to run. The Working Mother's Guide to Free Child Care in Your Home! Susan Tatsui-D'Arcy, 2011-03-03.
