Trading Magic for Fact, Fact for Magic Marc Colavincenzo,2003 This study brings together three major areas of interest history postmodern fiction and myth Whereas neither history and postmodern fiction nor history and myth are strangers to one another postmodernism and myth are odd bedfellows For many critics postmodern thought with its resistance to metanarratives stands in direct and deliberate contrast to myth with its apparent tendency to explain the world by means of neat complete narratives There is a strain of postmodern Canadian historical fiction in which myth actually forms a complement not only to postmodernism s suspicion of master narratives but also to its privileging of those marginal and at times ignored areas of history The fourteen works of Canadian fiction considered demonstrate a doubled impulse which at first glance seems contradictory On the one hand they go about demythologizing in the Barthesian sense various elements of historical discourse exposing its authority as not simply a natural given but as a construct This includes the fact that the view of history portrayed in the fiction has been either underrepresented or suppressed by official historiography On the other hand the history is then re mythologized in that it becomes part of a pre existing myth its mythic elements are foregrounded myth and magic are woven into the narrative or it is portrayed as extraordinary in some way The result is an empowering of these histories for the future they are made larger than life and unforgettable

Diversité Déconstruite Et Reconstruite de L'oeuvre de Michael Ondaatje Jean-Michel Lacroix,1999 Masculine Migrations Daniel Coleman,1998-01-01 Examines the representation of masculinities in the work of some of Canada s most exciting writers including Michael Ondaatje and Rohinton Mistry to show how cross cultural migration disrupts assumed codes for masculine behaviour and practice

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf,2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Postmodern Fiction in Canada Johannes Willem Bertens,1992 Writing Within / Without / About Sri Lanka Paolo Brusasco,2010-12-01 Paola Brusasco s study offers an original insight into Sri Lankan literature in English and an exploration of cultural social and linguistic issues at the basis of the country s ethnic conflict By focussing on two distinctive and representative writers both Burghers yet with different personal histories Brusasco confronts issues of cartography history and language all contributing to a specific definition of identity Both Ondaatje and Muller are outsiders the former because of his diasporic existence the latter because of his excentricity within the reality of a divided country where the legacy of British colonialism and the process of redefinition following independence in 1948 as well as matters of geography and history become crucial to writers

The Diaspora Writes Home Jasbir Jain, 2017-09-13 This book by eminent author Jasbir Jain explores the many ways the diaspora remembers and reflects upon the lost homeland and their relationship with their own ancestry history of the homeland culture and the current political conflicts Amongst the questions this book asks is how does the diaspora relate to their home and what is the homeland's relationship to the diaspora as representatives of the contemporary homeland in another country The last is an interesting point of discussion since the present of the homeland and of the diaspora cannot be equated The transformations that new locations have brought about as migrants have travelled through time and interacted with the politics of their settled lands Africa Fiji the Caribbean Islands the UK the US Canada as well as the countries created out of British India such as Pakistan and Bangladesh have altered their affiliations and perspectives This book gathers multiple dispersions of emigrant writers and artistes from South Asia across time and space to the various homelands they relate to now The word write is used in its multiplicity to refer to creative expression as an inscription as connectivity and remembrance Writing is also a representation and carries its own baggage of poetics and aesthetics categories which need to be problematised vis vis the writer and his/her emotional location

The Complete Idiot's Guide to a Successful Family Business Janis Raye, Neil Raphael, 2009-08-04 It's all in the family Family businesses are the backbone of any economy but they can present a host of challenges that can affect their chances of success The Complete Idiot's Guide to a Successful Family Business is the most current and comprehensive book that tells the proprietors of family concerns how to deal with such unique issues including expansion beyond the original family business and family versus hired management 80 percent of all businesses in America are family run Written by a nationally known author team Instructive anecdotes about successful businesses provide practical hands on advice It Runs In My Family Joan C. Barth,2013-10-28 This volume offers therapists effective practical strategies for helping patients overcome the psychological impact of a history of serious illness in the family Using illustrative case material the author discusses the feelings of powerlessness that family illness can produce in an individual and describes techniques for fostering a healthier more empowered attitude She shows how various assessment exercises and validation techniques can help the person distinguish between reality and the myths that evolved as a result of the family illness Family Business on the Couch Manfred F. R. Kets de Vries,Randel S. Carlock,2010-03-02 The challenge faced by family businesses and their stakeholders is to recognise the issues that they face understand how to develop strategies to address them and more importantly to create narratives or family stories that explain the emotional dimension of the issues to the family The most intractable family business issues are not the business problems the organisation faces but the emotional issues that compound them Applying psychodynamic concepts will help to explain behaviour and will enable the family to prepare for life cycle transitions and other issues that may arise Here is a new understanding and a broader perspective on the human dynamics of family firms with two complementary frameworks psychodynamic and family systematic to help make sense of family run organisations Although this book includes a conceptual section it is first and foremost a practical book about the real world issues faced by business families The book begins by demonstrating that many years of achievement through generations can be destroyed by the next if the family fails to address the psychological issues they face By exploring cases from famous and less well known family businesses across the world the authors discuss entrepreneurs the entrepreneurial family and the lifecycles of the individual and the organisation They go on to show how companies going through change and transition can avoid the pitfalls that endanger both family and company The authors then apply tools that will help family businesses in transition and offer their analyses and conclusions Readers should draw their own conclusions from careful examination of the cases identifying the problems or dilemmas faced and the options for improved business performance and family relationships They should ask what they might have done in the given situation and what new insight into individual or family behaviour each case offers The goal is to avoid a bitter ending
