Rural Development and Bureaucracy in Tanzania James R. Finucane, 1974      Beyond Ujamaa in Tanzania Goran Hyden, 2023-11-10

Beyond Ujamaa in Tanzania Underdevelopment and an Uncaptured Peasantry explores the challenges of development and underdevelopment in Africa with a focus on Tanzania's experience during its early socialist years. The book critiques the dominant ideologies of development whether capitalist or socialist as being rooted in Western industrial paradigms that often fail to address the realities of pre-capitalist African societies. It argues that the underdevelopment in Africa is not solely due to excessive penetration by global capitalism but also to capitalism's inability to dismantle the resilient pre-capitalist structures in many rural societies. The author highlights the role of the Tanzanian peasantry whose economic and social autonomy often resists the centralizing tendencies of modern development, presenting them not as mere appendages to the global economy but as key players with their own modes of production and unique societal structures. The book is grounded in over a decade of fieldwork and engagement with rural Tanzanian communities, enriched by the author's fluency in Swahili and deep involvement in local life. It argues for a more nuanced approach to studying African societies, one that goes beyond Western assumptions and models. By placing the peasant mode of production at the center of analysis, the study challenges conventional wisdom and suggests that the primary development challenge in Africa lies not with multinational corporations but with understanding and working within the dynamics of the smallholder peasant economy. The author also reflects on the limitations of conventional social science research and calls for greater involvement in the lived realities of the communities studied, emphasizing the need for research methods that are sensitive to local contexts and values. The book combines academic critique, field observations, and a focus on the epistemological biases of Western scholarship to present a compelling argument for rethinking development in Africa. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1980.

Political Thought and the Public Sphere in Tanzania Emma Hunter, 2015-04-27

Political Thought and the Public Sphere in Tanzania is a study of the interplay of vernacular and global languages of politics in the era of decolonization in Africa. Decolonization is often understood as a moment when Western forms of political order were imposed on non-Western societies, but this book draws attention instead to debates over universal questions about the nature of politics, concept of freedom, and the meaning of citizenship. These debates generated political narratives that were formed in dialogue with both global discourses and local political arguments. The United Nations Trust Territory of Tanganyika, now mainland Tanzania, serves as a compelling example of these processes. Starting in 1945 and culminating with the Arusha Declaration of 1967, Emma Hunter explores political argument in Tanzania's public sphere to show how political narratives succeeded when they managed to combine promises of freedom with new forms of belonging at local and national level The State and Agrarian Change in Zimbabwe's Communal Areas Michael Drinkwater, 2016-07-27 This book explores why a decade after Zimbabwean independence government agricultural development policies still retains surprising similarities with those of the colonial period despite lengthy peasant opposition Using documentary and fieldwork material from the Midlands province the analysis covers the subjects of pastoral and land use management household production and income earning strategies and farmer extension relations Government and Politics in Africa William Tordoff, 2002 The author provides extra coverage of both North and South Africa and of such key issues as debt the AIDS epidemic the position of women and the politics of patronage BOOK JACKET Tanzania Kjell J. Peasant Cooperatives and Political Change in Peru Cynthia McClintock, 2014-07-14 This is the first study to apply to the topics of workplace democracy or change in political culture both before and after sample survey data as well as long term participant observation Originally published in 1981 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Socialist and Self-Reliance In Tanzania Kimse A.B. Okoko, 2024-11-01 This study developed from a keen interest in the politics of contemporary Africa especially in regard to the seemingly intractable problem of political dependence with its economic correlate of underdevelopment The most interesting contemporary work on African political economy explores the link between economic underdevelopment and political dependence Development and independence are seen as moving in the same direction in the long run even if in the short run there appear to be inherent contradictions in their immediate needs in a concrete situation The focus of this work emphasizes the internal contradictions such as exist between the bureaucracy and the political leadership within Tanzania rather than the external linkages Administration in Zambia William Tordoff, 1980 Regional Rural Banks and Rural Development Dr. Sunil Kumar, 1990 A Select Bibliography On Economic Development John P.
