Land Concentration and Rural Poverty Keith B. Griffin, 1976 Monograph on the distribution of land ownership and farm size and the relationship to income distribution and rural area poverty in some developing countries includes seven case studies emphasising the role of agrarian reform the agrarian structure ILO mentioned income distribution and land redistribution the role of agricultural policy development policy etc References and statistical tables Land, Poverty and Livelihoods in an Era of Globalization A. Haroon Akram-Lodhi, Saturnino M. Borras Jr., Cristóbal Kay, 2007-01-24 Here internationally renowned scholars explore the structural causes of rural poverty income inequality and the processes of social exclusion and political subordination across Africa Asia and Latin America Development Strategies for the Rural Poor Mohamad Riad El Ghonemy, 1984-01-01 Land Reform and Rural Poverty in India Ronald Gene Ridker, 1970 Rural Poverty in Developing Countries Mr. Mahmood Hasan Khan, 2001-03-14 Reviews causes of poverty in rural areas and presents a policy framework for reducing rural poverty including through land reform public works programs access to credit physical and social infrastructure subsidies and transfer of technology Identifies key elements for drafting a policy to reduce rural poverty Agrarian Reform in Contemporary Developing Countries Ajit Kumar Ghose, 2010-11-29 Initially published in 1983 in association with the International Labour Organisation ILO this book is about the meaning relevance and process of agrarian reform in contemporary developing countries It includes seven detailed case studies one each on Ethiopia Peru Chile Nicaragua Iran Kerala India and West Bengal India In all the cases serious contemporary efforts were made to implement agrarian reform programmes and the case studies focus upon selected aspects of this reform process origins basic characteristics problems of implementation and immediate consequences Each region differs considerably in terms of socio economic and administrative conditions but when the reform efforts are placed in their respective historical contexts several common themes emerge which are dealt with in detail In all cases it is clear that agrarian reform is essentially a political process requiring major social movements and that piecemeal reforms will not solve the grave problems of growth distribution and poverty in the Third World AID Policy Toward Land Reform and Rural Poverty in Latin America Dale W. Adams, 1968 Anti-Poverty Land Reform Issues Never Die M. Riad El-Ghonemy, 2009-12-16 What can we do to unlock the unrealised potential of the hundreds of millions of rural poor and landless workers The ever topical central theme in this collection of essays is the mixed role of government and the institutionally regulated market in tackling rural poverty and land distribution inequality Drawing on over half a century of M Riad El Ghonemy's academic and field experience in developing countries across Africa Latin America the Middle East and South East Asia this is a comprehensive record of the late twentieth century study of and struggle against rural inequality seen through the eyes of one of its foremost observers Containing a balance of in depth field studies and El Ghonemy's personal observations from 1952 onwards this volume provides the basis for discussion and debate on a range of developmental issues Foremost among these is the appropriate approach both to explain the factors underlying developing countries rural backwardness and to enable them to achieve the Millennium Development Goal of halving the incidence of poverty and hunger by 2015 The compelling argument made here is that redistributive land reform combined with non farm intensive employment opportunities and investment in education within rural areas are necessary to tackle persistent poverty effectively Anti Poverty Land Reform Issues Never Die is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students learning rural development and institutional and development economics M Riad El Ghonemy is Senior Research Associate at the Department of International Development University of Oxford and Research Fellow at the Department of Economics the American University in Cairo and Emeritus Professor Ein Shams University Cairo He is the author of several publications including The Political Economy of Rural Poverty Routledge 1990
