Watson, Evelyn S. Rawski, 1988 During the late imperial era 1500-1911 China though divided by ethnic linguistic and regional differences at least as great as those prevailing in Europe enjoyed a remarkable solidarity What held Chinese society together for so many centuries Some scholars have pointed to the institutional control over the written word as instrumental in promoting cultural homogenization others the manipulation of the performing arts This volume comprised of essays by both anthropologists and historians furthers this important discussion by examining the role of death rituals in the unification of Chinese culture Framing the Sacred Eleanor Wake, 2012-11-08 Christian churches erected in Mexico during the early colonial era represented the triumph of European conquest and religious domination Or did they Building on recent research that questions the cultural conquest of Mesoamerica Eleanor Wake shows that colonial Mexican churches also reflected the beliefs of the indigenous communities that built them European authorities failed to recognize that the meaning of the edifices they so admired was being challenged pre Columbian iconography integrated into Christian imagery altars oriented toward indigenous sacred landmarks and carefully recycled masonry In Framing the Sacred Wake examines how the art and architecture of Mexico s religious structures reveals the indigenous people s own decisions regarding the conversion program and their accommodation of the Christian message As Wake shows native peoples selected aspects of the invading culture to secure their own culture s survival In focusing on anomalies present in indigenous art and their relationship to orthodox Christian iconography she draws on a wide geographical sampling across various forms of Indian artistic expression including religious sculpture and painting innovative architectural detail cartography and devotional poetry She also offers a detailed analysis of documented native ritual practices that she argues assist in the interpretation of the imagery With more than 200 illustrations including 24 in color Framing the Sacred is the most extensive study to date of the indigenous aspects of these churches and fosters a more complete understanding of Christianity s influence on Mexican peoples Ibss: Anthropology: 1999 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science,2000-12-07 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences Rural Rites Peter Mullen,1984 Ritual Innovation Brian K. Pennington,Amy L. Allocco,2018-02-01 Religious rituals are often seen as unchanging and ahistorical bearers of long standing traditions But as this book demonstrates ritual is a lively platform for social change and innovation in the religions of South Asia Drawing from Hindu and Jain examples in India Nepal and North America the essays in this volume written by renowned scholars of religion explore how the intentional conscious and public invention or alteration of ritual can effect dramatic social transformation whether in dethroning a Nepali king or sanctioning same sex marriage Ritual Innovation shows how the very idea of ritual as a conservative force misreads the history of religion by overlooking ritual s inherent creative potential and its adaptability to new contexts and circumstances A Reading of Propertius' Elegies Lee Fratantuono,2025-01-30 Among the surviving poets of the Age of Augustus the elegist Propertius is an enigma Now brooding now buoyant Propertius couplets offer mesmerizing commentary on the history of Rome and the renaissance of the republic in the wake of the Augustan victory at Actium The elusive figure who dominates the poems is Cynthia a literate musically inclined chestnut haired Muse who calls to mind aspects of both the huntress goddess Diana and the battle goddess Minerva Through the course of his Cynthia cycle Propertius composes a breathtaking array of verse meditations on love and death the nature of passion and obsession and the quest to remain forever young In A Reading of Propertius Elegies Lee Fratantuono reveals Propertius work to be nothing less than an elegiac Aeneid a spellbinding intertextual edifice whose rooms both charm and terrify Dazzling and decadent gorgeous and ghostly sophisticated and seductive Propertius Cynthia ultimately presents us with the image of wolfish Roma herself a city that is not only an anagram of Amor but also the mistress of the world In a Roman empire that has beheld the drama of Cleopatra and Antony the rites of Isis and the madness inspired by Bacchus and the Great Mother Propertius dispenses elegiac medicine as the horror of civil war and the aftermath of intoxicated excess give way to an Augustan remedy

The Ethics of Everyday Life Michael Banner,2014-10-24 The moments in Christ's human life noted in the creeds his conception birth suffering death and burial are events which would likely appear in a syllabus for a course in social anthropology for they are of special interest and concern in human life and also sites of contention and controversy where what it is to be human is discovered constructed and contested In other words these are the occasions for profound and continuing questioning regarding the meaning of human life as controversies to do with IVF abortion euthanasia and the use of bodies or body parts post mortem plainly indicate Thus the following questions arise how do the instances in Christ's life represent human life and how do these representations relate to present day cultural norms expectations and newly emerging modes of relationship themselves shaping and framing human life How does the Christian imagination of human life which dwells on and draws from the life of Christ not only articulate its own but also come into conversation with and engage other moral imaginaries of the human Michael Banner argues that consideration of these questions requires study of moral theology therefore he reconceives its nature and tasks and in particular its engagement with social anthropology Drawing from social anthropology and Christian thought and practice from many periods and influenced especially by his engagement in public policy matters including as a member of the UK's Human Tissue Authority Banner aims to develop the outlines of an everyday ethics stretching from before the cradle to after the grave
