Rural Woman Battering And The Justice System An Ethnography:

Rural Women Battering and the Justice System Neil Websdale, 1997-11-11 Drawing on his ethnographic research in rural areas of Kentucky the author of this book presents a thorough look at the experiences of battered women in rural communities Neil Websdale demonstrates how rural patriarchy and an insidious old boys network of law enforcement and local politics sustains and reproduces the subordinate vulnerable isolated position of many rural women Taking into account that traditional patterns of intervention can often put women in isolated communities at further risk the author recommends a coordinated multi agency approach to rural battering spearheaded by the agencies of state feminism Rural Woman

Battering and the Justice System, 1998 The author shows how an insidious old boys network within the official institutions including the courts the police and local politics perpetuates the unjust and sometimes violent treatment of women in rural situations Male Peer Support and Violence Against Women Walter S. DeKeseredy, Martin D.

Schwartz, 2013-11-05 An important and timely reassessment of a crucial theory in male violence against women Safety Planning with Battered Women Jill M. Davies, Eleanor Lyon, Diane Monti-Catania, 1998 Safety Planning with Battered Women introduces a new model of woman defined advocacy that is designed to bridge the gap that sometimes occurs between a battered woman's perspective and a victim advocate's perception Created to improve service delivery to women who are victims of domestic violence this new model emphasizes placing attention on the victim's assessment of the risk in a violent relationship and in her decision making Authors Jill Davies Eleanor Lyon and Diane Monti Catania strive to help advocates better understand battered women's decisions including the decision to remain in an abusive relationship to improve advocacy for victims with varying cultural backgrounds and experiences and to provide advocates with assistance in redesigning their services so they may better meet the needs of battered women Since there are no quick fixes to the problems encountered in cases of domestic violence it is vital that victims be provided with a real understanding of their options and the opportunity to implement those safety plans they deem most feasible Safety Planning with Battered Women helps advocates tailor alternatives that will enhance the safety of battered women based on the individual realities of battered women This book is both enlightening and highly practical and is a must read for anyone working with domestic violence victims By introducing a woman defined model and offering a new approach to advocacy Safety Planning with Battered Women will compel readers to reexamine current approaches and examine the future provision of services to domestic violence victims making it a valuable resource for students researchers academics professionals and practitioners

Spousal Violence Among World Christians Elizabeth Koepping, 2020-10-01 This book takes a global approach to violence between husbands and wives in faith contexts Focusing primarily on Christians the book uses anthropological theological and historical methods which intersect with and are challenged by lay and ordained women and men from sixteen countries Focusing on marital violence the book explores ways to understand how various churches their priests preachers theologians and members approach the topic interpret the texts and with often thoughtless complicity hide from the sin Drawing on over a decade researching marital violence in Christian contexts across five continents Elizabeth Koepping an anthropologist and priest presents testimonies from abused women as well as theological and cultural justifications for spousal abuse employed by perpetrators and bystanders She argues that if violence against the female spouse is understood as proper behaviour by manly men towards unruly wives Christians may set aside the core text Men and women are made in the Image of God enabling and silently colluding in abuse The book shows that spousal abuse is an ecumenical phenomenon present all over the inhabited world and therefore in all Christian churches and indeed other faith traditions Backs

Against the Wall Kathy A McCloskey, Marilyn H. Sitaker, 2013-10-18 Backs Against the Wall Battered Women s Resistance Strategies tackles several controversial aspects involved with intimate partner violence IPV namely the approaches many victims use when resisting their oppressors This sensitive and sensible feminist perspective concerning battered women s use of different resistance strategies and the reasons why they use them also focuses on ways to support victims through intervention and prevention strategies Leading experts provide current research revealing viewpoints and convincing assertions about the victims of IPV This book powerfully refutes the sweeping assertions made by today s antifeminist based mindset that women are as violent as men in cases of IPV perpetration This insightful source provides strong evidence of the different resistance strategies that battered women use in response to multiple oppressions including IPV in the case against the gender parity argument that may very well be politically motivated The text provides extensive references and several figures and tables to clearly present data This book is a valuable resource for activists educators students health providers justice system workers advocates and researchers This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Aggression Maltreatment and Trauma Island Criminology John Scott, Zoe Staines, 2024-05-14 Ten percent of the world s population
