Rural Women:

Agrarian Women Deborah Fink, 1992 Agrarian Women challenges the widely held assumption that frontier farm life in the United States made it easier for women to achieve rough equality with men Using as her example the family farm in rural Nebraska from the 1880s until the eve of World War II Rural Women and Education, 1978 Empowerment of Rural Women M. P. Boraian, 2008 With special reference to Dindigul District in Tamil Nadu India Gendered Fields Carolyn E. Sachs, 2018-02-20 This book aims to expand feminist theory to include the study of rural women while recognizing that many rural women no longer depend exclusively on agriculture or the land for their livelihoods It emphasizes the depth and value of women's knowledge with the natural environment Rural Women's Health Raymond T. Coward, PhD, Lisa A. Davis, MHA, Carol H. Gold, PhD, Helen Smiciklas-Wright, PhD, Luanne E. Thorndyke, MD, Fred W. Vondracek, PhD, 2005-11-22 Rural Women's Health encompasses the breadth and depth of the unique physical and psychological needs facing rural women throughout the United States and Canada and identifies positive interventions and outcomes Raymond T. farmer s wife Empowering Women Carmen Diana Deere,Magdalena León,2001-01-15 The expansion of married women s property rights was a main achievement of the first wave of feminism in Latin America As Carmen Diana Deere and Magdalena Leon reveal however the disjuncture between rights and actual ownership remains vast This is particularly true in rural areas where the distribution of land between men and women is highly unequal In their pioneering twelve country comparative study the authors argue that property ownership is directly related to women s bargaining power within the household and community point out changes resulting from recent gender progressive legislation and identify additional areas for future reform including inheritance rights of wives Rural Women at Work Ruth Dixon-Mueller,2011 Does the UN Joint Program for Rural Women's Economic Empowerment (JP RWEE) deliver on its empowerment objectives?

Quisumbing, Agnes, Gerli, Beatrice, Faas, Simone, Heckert, Jessica, Malapit, Hazel J., McCarron, Catherine, Meinzen-Dick, Ruth Suseela, Paz, Florencia, 2022-07-16 This paper compares the empowerment impacts of the UN Joint Program for Rural Women s Economic Empowerment JP RWEE in Ethiopia Niger Nepal and Kyrgyzstan using the Abbreviated Women s Empowerment in Agriculture Index A WEAI We assess the extent of empowerment and gender parity and decompose the sources of disempowerment separately for men and women and for beneficiary and control groups We then estimate program impacts on A WEAI and its component indicators and assess whether estimated impacts are consistent with the activities implemented by the program We interpret the quantitative results in the light of the qualitative studies undertaken as part of the impact evaluation Despite the diversity in country and cultural contexts in all four countries women are more disempowered than men although large proportions of men are themselves disempowered Excessive workload is the most common major contributor to disempowerment and so is lack of group membership The program had positive impacts on aggregate empowerment measures for program participants in Niger Nepal and Kyrgyzstan Nevertheless gender parity improved only in Nepal The group based approach was a clear contributor to women s empowerment in Ethiopia Nepal and Kyrgyzstan In Kyrgyzstan the GALS BALI approach contributed to impacts across almost all indicators of empowerment The positive impact of GALS and GALS BALI on men and women alike in Kyrgyzstan is consistent with emerging evidence that involving both men and women in gender transformative approaches rather than focusing on women alone may be key to effective and sustainable programs Although impacts on time use were insignificant in the quantitative study the qualitative work pointed out negative impacts emphasizing the unintended consequences of increased workload for women who participate in livelihood interventions Representing Rural Women Margaret Thomas-Evans, Whitney Womack

Smith, 2019-06-27 Representing Rural Women highlights the complexity and diversity of representations of rural women in the U S and Canada from the nineteenth to twenty first centuries The 15 chapters in this collection offer fresh perspectives on representations of rural women in literature popular culture and print digital and social media They explore a wide range of time periods geographic spaces and rural women s experiences including Mormon pioneer women rural lesbians in the

Women's ILO Eileen Boris, Dorothea Hoehtker, Susan Zimmerman, 2018-02-12 What is the place of women in global labour policies Women's ILO Transnational Networks Global

Labour Standards and Gender Equity 1919 to Present gathers new research on a century of ILO engagement with women's work. It asks what was the role of women's networks in shaping ILO policies and what were the gendered meanings of international labour law in a world of uneven and unequal development. Women's ILO explores issues like equal remuneration, home based labour and social welfare internationally and in places such as Argentina, Italy and Ghana. It scrutinizes the impact of both power relations and global feminisms on the making of global labour policies in a world shaped by colonialism, the Cold War and post colonial inequality. It further charts the disparate advancement of gender equity highlighting the significant role of women experts and activists in the process. Contributors are Paula Luc a Aguilar, Lucia Artner, Eloisa Betti, Chris Bonner, Eileen Boris, Akua O Britwum, Dorothy Sue Cobble, Dorothea Hoehtker, Pat Horn, Sonya Michel, Silke Neunsinger, Renana Jhabvala, Marieke Louis, Yvette Richards, Mahua Sarkar, Kirsten Scheiwe, Fran oise Th baud, Susan Zimmermann. This is a must read volume for scholars and students interested in women labor and international transnational history. Judy Tzu Chun Wu, University of California Irvine, USA. This fascinating collection of essays assesses the ILO's role in securing social justice for women workers around the world and asks how that role might change as the world of work is transformed in the next century. Celia Donert, University of Liverpool. This exciting collection provides a long overdue state of the art on gender politics and the ILO. It will no doubt be the work of reference on the topic for years to come. Elisabeth Pr gl, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva.

Building Civil Society in Authoritarian China John W. Tai, 2014-08-28

How is modern civil society created? There are few contemporary studies on this important question and when it is addressed, scholars tend to emphasize the institutional environment that facilitates a modern civil society. However, there is a need for a new perspective on this issue. Contemporary China, where a modern civil society remains in a nascent stage, offers a valuable site to seek new answers. Through a comparative analysis of nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) in today's China, this study shows the importance of the human factor, notably the NGO leadership, in the establishment of a modern civil society. In particular, in recognition of the social nature of NGOs, this study engages in a comparative examination of Chinese NGO leaders, state linkage, media connections and international ties in order to better understand how each factor contributes to effective NGOs.

Rural Women Martha Fetherolf Loutfi, 1983

Breaking Through the Grass Ceiling Margaret Alston, 2000. First Published in 2000. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an informal company.

Women in Society Magdalena E. Thorne, 2005. The path of women to achieve equal rights has been and remains a deeply uphill climb. The recent Martha Stewart case is a prime example of unfair treatment of women. Here is a woman who could lose her business and go to prison for lying. The same act Clinton, Bush and Blair practice on a global scale. If all the Wall Street titans and politicians went to jail for lying, we would have to build a prison on every street. Women are moving upward in rockets against great resistance. This book presents some of the achievements, risks and challenges women are trying to deal with at the beginning of the 21st century.
