economic policy a major reassessment of the foundations of modern economic thinking that explores the profound influence of an until now unrecognized force religion Friedman has given us an original and brilliant new perspective on the terrifying divisions of our own times No book could be more important George A Akerlof Nobel Laureate in Economics Critics of contemporary economics complain that belief in free markets among economists as well as many ordinary citizens is a form of religion And it turns out that in a deeper more historically grounded sense there is something to that idea Contrary to the conventional historical view of economics as an entirely secular product of the Enlightenment Benjamin M Friedman demonstrates that religion exerted a powerful influence from the outset Friedman makes clear how the foundational transition in thinking about what we now call economics beginning in the eighteenth century was decisively shaped by the hotly contended lines of religious thought within the English speaking Protestant world Beliefs about God given human character about the after life and about the purpose of our existence were all under scrutiny in the world in which Adam Smith and his contemporaries lived Friedman explores how those debates go far in explaining the puzzling behavior of so many of our fellow citizens whose views about economic policies and whose voting behavior seems sharply at odds with what would be to their own economic benefit Illuminating the origins of the relationship between religious thinking and economic thinking together with its ongoing consequences Friedman provides invaluable insights into our current economic policy debates and demonstrates ways to shape more functional policies for all citizens Quarterly Bulletin of the Providence Public Library Providence Public Library (R.I.),1922 Biography by Americans, 1658-1936 Edward H. against a ruthless spiritual opponent Liberals know full well that they are fighting for the soul of our nation We need to realize that the soul they are fighting for is the complete corruption and loss of the Godly soul our founding fathers tried to establish for our nation It not only presents the problem but also provides the solution to our problem and the promise that the problem of ungodliness in our culture can be reversed Godliness can be restored We are also fighting for the soul of our nation It is NOT the same soul that the Liberals are trying to preserve They have corrupted our nation by deception We can restore the national soul they corrupted with the truth The Publishers Weekly ,1917 *Russell H.
