Valentine, Mary Nell Trautner, Joan Z. Harley, Shanon

Shah,Paul Simpson,2024-07-22 Literature on sex intimacy and sexuality in later life has been heavily influenced by perspectives from more affluent regions perpetuating the belief that the West is more sexually progressive and liberal than other cultures This book challenges this belief by exploring diverse cultures and perspectives from the majority world which are often overlooked It highlights the importance of learning from cultures in the global South and East dismantling stereotypes that frame them as sexually conservative or inferior Various drawing on structuralist postcolonial and decolonial theory as well as social anthropology the book critically examines binaries related to culture age sex and intimacy highlighting the need to decentre Western perspectives as the benchmark while other cultures and practices are misunderstood Gender, Sexuality, and Intimacy: A Contexts Reader Jodi O'Brien,Arlene Stein,SAGE Publications, Inc.,2017-01-13 This new anthology from SAGE brings together over 90 recent readings on gender sexuality and intimate relationships from Contexts the award winning magazine published by the American Sociological Association Each contributor is a contemporary sociologist writing in the clear concise and jargon free style that has made Contexts the public face of sociology Jodi O'Brien and Arlene Stein former Contexts Editors have chosen pieces that are timely thought provoking and especially suitable for classroom use written introductions that frame each of the books three main sections and provided questions for discussion Power and Intimacy in the Christian Philippines Fenella Cannell,1999-03-18 What kind of reciprocity exists between unequal partners How can a culture which makes no attempt to defend unchanging traditions be understood as such In the Christian Philippines inequalities global and local are negotiated through idioms of persuasion reluctance and pity Fenella Cannell's study suggests that these are the idioms of a culture which does not need to represent itself as immutable Her account of Philippine spirit mediumship Catholicism transvestite beauty contests and marriage in Bicol calls for a reassessment of our understanding of South East Asian modernity Combining a strong theoretical interest in the anthropology of religion with a broader comparative attention to recent developments in South East Asian studies she offers a powerful alternative to existing interpretations of the relationship between culture and tradition in the region and beyond This book addresses not only South East Asianists but all those with an interest in the anthropology of religion and post colonial cultures Power and Intimacy in the Christian Philippines has won the Harry J Benda prize for 2001 Sexual Intimacy and Gender Identity 'Fraud' Alex Sharpe,2018-02-02 This book is a legal and political intervention into a contemporary debate concerning the appropriateness of sexual offence prosecutions brought against young gender non conforming people for so called gender identity fraud It comes down squarely against prosecution To that end it offers a series of principled objections based both on liberal principles and arguments derived from queer and feminist theories Thus prosecution will be challenged as criminal law overreach and as a spectacular example of legal inconsistency but also as indicative of a failure to grasp the complexity of sexual desire and its disavowal In particular the book will think through the concepts of consent harm and deception and their legal application to these specific forms of intimacy In doing so it will reveal how cisnormativity frames the legal interpretation of each and how this serves to preclude more marginal perspectives Beyond law the book takes up the ethical challenge of the non disclosure of gender history Rather than dwelling on this omission it argues that we ought to focus on a cisgender demand to know as the proper object of ethical inquiry Finally and as an act of legal and ethical re imagination the book offers a queer counter judgment to R v McNally the only case involving a gender non conforming defendant so far to have come before the Court of Appeal

Linking Sexuality and Gender Tracy J. Trothen, 2006-01-01 Why did it take so long for the United Church of Canada to respond to violence against women Tracy J Trothen looks at the United Church as a uniquely Canadian institution and explores how it has approached gender and sexuality issues She argues that how the Church deals with these issues influences its ability to name violence against women In examining the Church s early approaches to gender and sexuality Tracy J Trothen discovered that the United Church had tended to see certain structures or roles as sacred and others as demonic For example while sex outside marriage was bad or improper sexual expression within marriage was largely deemed as proper or good no matter what manifestation it took This assumption allowed much violence within families and marriages to go unchallenged Trothen uncovers significant shifts in this approach through the examination of such issues as redemptive homes marriage pornography abortion the ordination of women and family Then analyzing three recent case studies she demonstrates the value of women s voices in challenging dominant world views Finally she suggests how the Church s approach to human sexuality and gender has facilitated or obstructed the move to address violence against women The findings in Linking Sexuality and Gender can be applied to faiths outside the United Church and will be important to anyone interested in church and society sexuality gender or the causal dynamics behind one Canadian institution s response to violence against women Tracy J Trothen is an assistant professor of systematic theology and ethics and director of field education at Queen s Theological College Queen s University Canada She was ordained in the United Church of Canada Why did it take so long for the United Church of Canada to respond to violence against women
