Direction Lynette Harborne,2018-03-22 This book explores the similarities and differences between the practice of psychotherapy and spiritual direction and suggests that whilst there may be distinctions between the two activities the process is essentially the same The purpose of the book is to improve the understanding between therapists and spiritual directors to encourage dialogue and discussion between them as well as to offer challenges and learning to both In the process of exploring the interface between the practice of therapy and the practice of spiritual direction questions arise about how to address issues of spirituality in a psychological context and psychological issues in a spiritual context A brief overview of the historical background to spiritual direction is given and attention drawn to the links between this tradition and the development of psychotherapy Spiritual issues that may arise in therapy together with psychological issues that occur during spiritual direction are discussed leading on to a comparison between dark night of the soul experiences and clinical depression Art Therapy and the Neuroscience of Relationships, Creativity, and Resiliency Noah

Hass-Cohen,Joanna Clyde Findlay,2015-07-06 Presenting a neuroscientifically aware approach to art therapy Art Therapy and the Neuroscience of Relationships Creativity and Resiliency offers a comprehensive integration of art therapy and interpersonal neurobiology It showcases the Art Therapy Relational Neuroscience ATR N theoretical and clinical approach and demonstrates how it can be used to help clients with autobiographical memory reflecting and creating touch and space meaning making emotions and dealing with long term stress and trauma The ATR N approach first developed by Noah Hass

Cohen is comprised of six principles Creative Embodiment Relational Resonating Expressive Communicating Adaptive Responding Transformative Integrating and Empathizing and Compassion CREATE The chapters in this book are organized around these CREATE principles demonstrating the dynamic interplay of brain and bodily systems during art therapy Each chapter begins with an overview of one CREATE principle which is then richly illustrated with therapeutic artwork and intrapersonal reflections The subsequent discussion of the related relational neuroscience elucidates how the ATR N work is grounded in research and evidence based theory The last section of each chapter which is devoted to clinical skills and applications integrates practices and approaches across all six of the CREATE principles demonstrating how therapeutic art making can help people decipher the functional mystery of their relational nervous system enhance their emotive and cognitive abilities and increase the motivation to learn novel concepts and participate in a meaningful social discourse

The Theory and Practice of Christian Psychology in Europe Nicolene L. Joubert,2022-12-01 A view of human nature generally undergirds approaches to mental health and flourishing Spirituality is accepted by most cultures as an integral part of human nature and cannot be ignored when attempting to take care of our suffering and promoting flourishing The onset of the COVID 19 pandemic in December 2019 caused worldwide shock and ripped at the very fabric of society Everybody was affected by the threat of the illness and loss of lives The disastrous economic impact is still felt in many parts of the world In this book a combination of Christian faith and scientific knowledge is presented as an answer to the question of human suffering Individual and collective suffering are addressed by various articles and therapeutic models The book further serves to deepen understanding of the value of spiritual knowledge and insight in therapy for both Christian and non Christian therapists in respect of both theory and practice The content covers a wide range of topics including collective suffering individual suffering due to abuse elements of Christian psychotherapy the role of conscience and faith in healing spiritual maturity and a Christian view of identity in a digital age
