Pamela Verrochi,2020-05-27 The inspiration for this story comes from the many references in the Bible about sheep and shepherds Most significant is the parable of Jesus found in Luke chapter 15 where Jesus compares rejoicing in heaven over one repentant sinner to the joy in the shepherd s heart when he finds his lost sheep That one sheep was so very important to the shepherd that he left his whole flock the ninety nine just to find him Hopefully this little story conveys the same message of the importance of each and every individual to the heart of every child who hears or reads this book One Lost Sheep

Rumanian Folk Music Bela Bartok, 2012-12-06 In several of his writings on folk music Bela Bartok recalls an incident that happened to him in 1904 during a visit to a small village in Transylvania. Quite by chance he heard there an eighteen year old Hungarian peasant girl singing Hungarian folk songs whose construction was significantly different from the songs he had known until then. This experience appealed to his imagination far deeper than chance occurrences usually do. It sparked in him a creative fire that was there after to impart to his music certain characteristics that are recognizable today as indigenous to the Bartokian style of composition. The inspirational value of the incident was rekindled by return trips to Transylvania. During these trips he was not merely listening. He began notating melodies building them into a coordinated collection. Soon Bartok's itinerary took him into villages populated in checkered proximity by both Hungarians and Rumanians thence into little communities where the population was exclusively Rumanian. There he discovered that their songs were much less if at all influenced by the urban civilization of Western Europe than those he had collected in Hungarian villages. In an interview he gave to a Transylvanian newspaper in 1922 Bartok described the difference between the available Hungarian and Rumanian songs.

The Judge Is the Savior Jean Wyatt, 2015-02-16 This is a book Jean Wyatt felt compelled to write as she has for many years wrestled with questions surrounding the love and the justice of God his salvation and judgment through Jesus Christ and the effect of our response or lack of response to that salvation. The Bible gives glimpses of hope that in the end God will restore all things and that finally all people will worship him. If it is God's will that all should be saved is it possible to resist that will for all eternity. Or dare we hope that God will continue to seek and ultimately save those who now reject his offered salvation. Dare we hope that hell will be a place of restorative justice and cleansing with redemption as its aim. Wyatt has come to the conclusion that we can answer Yes to both these questions. The fire of God consumes evil and cleanses people. Meanwhile in the here and now in which we live as disciples of Jesus Christ we are called to be witnesses to the kingdom of God and to work for his kingdom to come on earth as it is in heaven.
