Pinewood Sarah Street,2024-03-12 This open access book examines how Pinewood came to be Britain s dominant film studio complex focusing on key years following the Second World War It presents a revisionist micro history of the studio and its longevity during a particularly turbulentperiod explaining Pinewood s survival at a time when other major film studios such as Denham closed This book also provides contemporary insights into how Pinewood s technologies practices and filmmaking methods compared to Hollywood s Thirteen films produced in1946 47 are analysed in detail tracking how economic pressures engendered many creative techniques and innovative technologies Prevailing cultures of management and labour organization are foregrounded as well as insights into being a studio employee These are vividly brought to life through an in depthfocus on the in house studio magazine Pinewood Merry Go Round which provides rare details of sports and leisure activities organized at the studios Innovation in Local Economies Colin Crouch,Helmut Voelzkow,2009-04-30 The study of varieties of capitalism is moving on from the analysis of static national types to embrace local and sectoral diversity and the study of systems in the process of major change This volume addresses the issue by examining four localised sectors comparing a German case with one in another European country The general changes taking place in Germany itself and the other countries Hungary Sweden and the UK form the context of the studies The case studies concern Furniture making in North Rhine Westphalia and southern Sweden Automotive manufacture in east Germany and northern Hungary Biotechnology around Munich and Cambridge TV programme and film making in Cologne and central London The studies find a complex pattern of conformity with and deviation from national types but only occasional examples of where divergence takes the form of a direct confrontation with a national model This is partly because national models are themselves changing partly because they are often capable of accommodating more diversity than is often assumed by national studies and partly because firms are increasingly able to reach outside their national boundaries for institutional resources

Seas Aflame Derek Hart, 2005-12 Nathan Talbot participated in the 1936 Olympics as captain of the Tyrian Tempest representing the United Kingdom in the 6 Meter Class Yachting races The competition was fierce and even though Talbot was a skilled sailor he was disappointed with only winning the Bronze Medal outmaneuvered by the German sailing master Werner Grossman However there were other darker issues plaguing the young Englishman once he returned from Nazi Germany Something sordid and dangerous was simmering underneath all the pomp and circumstance of the new Fatherland Less than four years later Nathan s concerns were realized as Germany plunged the world into yet another war This time Talbot took command of a Motor Torpedo Boat MTB and this time set sail for combat in the English Channel Nathan was soon to discover that his old nemesis Werner Grossman had been given command of an entire E boat flotilla operating in the same area Then one night while Talbot was sneaking about Occupied France he literally ran into 19 year old Elise Dub and it was love at first sight While taking daring risks to keep the flames of romance burning Talbot was also assigned to British Intelligence It seemed that the former yachtsman s first hand experience with French ports would come in handy for more covert reasons There was just one problem It also became obvious that Herr Grossman had also been captivated by Elise Dub s charms and planned to seduce her Failing that the German officer had every intention of forcing himself upon her While the war at sea was often decided with lightning speed and brutal results World War Two became incredibly personal for Nathan Talbot who would stop at nothing to rescue his true love
