Drew,2010-03-08 This is an encyclopedic work arranged by broad categories and then by original authors of literary pastiches in which fictional characters have reappeared in new works after the deaths of the authors that created them It includes book series that have continued under a deceased writer s real or pen name undisguised offshoots issued under the new writer s name posthumous collaborations in which a deceased author s unfinished manuscript is completed by another writer unauthorized pastiches and biographies of literary characters The authors and works are entered under the following categories Action and Adventure Classics 18th Century and Earlier Classics 19th Century Classics 20th Century Crime and Mystery Espionage Fantasy and Horror Humor Juveniles 19th Century Juveniles 20th Century Poets Pulps Romances Science Fiction and Westerns Each original author entry includes a short biography a list of original works and information on the pastiches based on the author s characters Earth vs. the Sci-Fi Filmmakers Tom Weaver,2010-06-28 Back in the era of black and white horror and sci fi movies we didn t have special effects or the money for em says Peter Graves one of the genre s most popular stars But in those days an unlimited amount of money wouldn t have gotten us much better special effects because they didn t exist We had to go with the stories and try to make them as believable as possible and flash the outlandish things by quickly so the audience never got a good in focus look at them Perhaps no films attracted more rabid fans and less critical acclaim than the genre movies of that era The men and women who made the characters come to life are interviewed here talking about their work the behind the scenes action and the impact the movies had on their careers The interviewees are Gene Barry Gary Clarke Gary Conway Merian C Cooper Robert Dix Donnie Dunagan Alex Gordon Peter Graves Gary Gray Arch Hall Jr Stephen Kandel Carolyn Kearney Ken Kolb Robert L Lippert Jr Jan Merlin Mary Mitchel Elliott Reid Stanley Rubin Frankie Thomas and Burt Topper Extensively illustrated The Alternative Sherlock Holmes Peter Ridgway Watt,Joseph Green,2017-03-02 Between 1887 and 1927 Sir Arthur Conan Doyle wrote sixty Sherlock Holmes stories and his great Canon has become the most praised most studied and best known chapter in the history of detective fiction Over twenty thousand publications pertaining to the Sherlock Holmes phenomenon are known to have been published most of them historical and critical studies In addition however almost since the first stories appeared such was their uniqueness and extraordinary attraction that other authors began writing stories based on or derived from them A new genre had appeared pastiches parodies burlesques and stories that attempted to copy or rival the great detective himself As the field widened there was hardly a year in the twentieth century in which new short stories or novels did not appear Many hundreds are now known to have been published some of them written by authors well known for their work in other literary fields The non canonical Sherlock Holmes literature not only constitutes a literary field of considerable historical interest but includes many stories that are both enjoyable and fascinating in their own right Although a large bibliography on these stories exists and a few limited anthologies have been published no attempt has previously been made to collect them all and discuss them comprehensively The Alternative Sherlock Holmes does so it provides a new and valuable approach to the Sherlock Holmes literature as well as making available many works that have for years remained forgotten Presented as an entertaining narrative of interest to both the aficionado and the scholar it provides full bibliographic data on virtually all the known stories in the field
