The Big Heat Colin McArthur, 2019-07-25 The Big Heat first appeared in 1953 towards the end of the film noir cycle that had begun in the early 40s It was greeted in the United States and Britain as a successful but modest product of the Hollywood system slickly written and directed in the words of one critic Only the extreme violence as in the infamous scalding coffee scene was singled out for special mention Yet by the time the film was reissued in Britain in 1988 it had achieved undisputed classic status How had this transformation come about Colin McArthur takes The Big Heat as a case study in film criticism He examines the film's changing critical fortunes under the influence of the so called auteur theory and shows how other intellectual currents led to a reassessment of Lang s work in the 1970s McArthur provides his own perceptive analysis of the film in the light of these revolutions in film criticism The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin,2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher s Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher's death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery In a Lonely Street Frank Krutnik, 2006-10-19 Taking issue with many orthodox views of Film Noir Frank Nonfiction Krutnik argues for a reorientation of this compulsively engaging area of Hollywood cultural production Krutnik recasts the films within a generic framework and draws on recent historical and theoretical research to examine both the diversity of film noir and its significance within American popular culture of the 1940s He considers classical Hollywood cinema debates on genre and the history of the emergence of character in film noir focusing on the hard boiled crime fiction of Dashiell

Hammett Raymond Chandler and James M Cain as well as the popularisation of Freudian psychoanalysis and the social and cultural upheavals of the 1940s The core of this book however concerns the complex representation of masculinity in the noir tough thriller and where and how gender interlocks with questions of genre Analysing in detail major thrillers like The Maltese Falcon Double Indemnity Out of the Past and The Killers alongside lesser known but nonetheless crucial films as Stranger on the Third Floor Pitfall and Dead Reckoning Krutnik has produced a provocative and highly readable study of one of Hollywood most perennially fascinating groups of films Reports of Cases Determined in the Supreme Court of the State of California California.
