Shifting Body Politics Shahnaz J. Rouse, 2004 The three essays in this volume explore the changing parameters of struggles over gender in Pakistan In the process the author attempts to theoretically traverse the boundaries between public and private domains the State and what is often referred to as civil society the individual and the collective and the local and international She does this through a discussion of sovereignty and citizenship the growing nexus between militarism masculinism and fundamentalism and the rapid shrinking of democratic spaces in the country Gender, Nation, State in Pakistan Shahnaz Rouse, 2006 State, Nationalism, and Islamization Raja M. Ali Saleem, 2017-07-11 This book argues that Islam's role in state nationalism is the best predictor of the Islamization of government using two most different cases Turkey which was an aggressively secular country until recently and Pakistan a country that is synonymous with Islamization It establishes a causal link between Islam's role in state nationalism and Islamization of government during various periods of the history of both countries The indicators used to establish the causal link between Islam's role in state nationalism and Islamization are the presence of Islamic provisions in the constitution Islam inspired national symbols Islamic images on the national currency Islamic basis of family law a Department of Religious Affairs and governmental support for religious education The book concludes by identifying three causal mechanisms legitimacy mobilization and authenticity that link Islam's role in state nationalism and the Islamization of government The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements Rawwida Baksh-Soodeen, Wendy Harcourt, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements explores the historical political economic and social contexts in which transnational feminist movements have emerged and spread and the contributions they have made to global knowledge power and social change over the past half century The publication of the handbook in 2015 marks the fortieth anniversary of the United Nations International Women's Year the thirtieth anniversary of the Third World Conference on Women held in Nairobi the twentieth anniversary of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action and the fifteenth anniversaries of the Millennium Development Goals and of UN Security Council Resolution 1325 on women peace and security The editors and contributors critically interrogate transnational feminist movements from a broad spectrum of locations in the global South and North feminist organizations and networks at all levels local national regional global and glocal wider civil society organizations and networks governmental and multilateral agencies and academic and research institutions among others The handbook reflects candidly on what we have learned about transnational feminist movements What are the different spaces from which transnational feminisms have operated and in what ways How have they contributed to our understanding of the myriad formal and informal ways in which gendered power relations define and inform everyday life To what extent have they destabilized or transformed the global hegemonic systems that constitute patriarchy From a position of fifty years of knowledge production activism working with institutions and critical reflection the handbook recognizes that transnational feminist movements form a key epistemic community that can inspire and provide leadership in shaping political spaces and institutions at all levels and transforming international political economy development and peace processes The handbook is organized into ten sections each beginning with an introduction by the editors The sections explore the main themes that have emerged from transnational feminist movements knowledge theory and praxis organizing for change body politics health and well being human rights and human security economic and social justice citizenship and statebuilding militarism and religious fundamentalisms peace movements UNSCR 1325 and postconflict rebuilding feminist political ecology and digital age transformations and future trajectories

Women and TV Culture in Pakistan Munira Cheema, 2018-07-30 The television broadcasting culture of Pakistan was changed dramatically in 2002 The President General Pervez Musharraf introduced a policy of liberalisation that enabled controversial issues such as honour killings adultery stoning to death domestic violence marriage after divorce and homosexuality to be increasingly depicted on screen Women and TV Culture in Pakistan is the first in depth analysis of this change in television content Munira Cheema focuses on how gender issues are dealt with on TV and examines the impact this has on female viewers In Pakistan television is often the only way in which women can access the public sphere except through male guardians and this book evaluates how TV content allows them to navigate their intersecting identities as Muslims women and Pakistanis At a time when religious conservatism is on the rise in the country this book investigates why producers choose to focus on gender based issues and the extent to which religion dictates social behaviour and broadcasting choices Based on interviews with women viewers in Karachi as well as industry professionals including writers directors and ratings experts the research is a much needed and original contribution to global television studies and gender studies

Constructing the Pluriverse Bernd Reiter, 2018-08-23 The contributors to Constructing the Pluriverse critique the hegemony of the postcolonial Western tradition and its claims to universality by offering a set of pluriversal approaches to understanding the coexisting epistemologies and practices of the different worlds and problems we inhabit and encounter Moving beyond critiques of colonialism the contributors rethink the relationship between knowledge and power offering new perspectives on development democracy and ideology while providing diverse methodologies for non Western thought and practice that range from feminist approaches to scientific research to ways of knowing expressed through West African oral traditions In combination these wide ranging approaches and understandings form a new analytical toolbox for those seeking creative solutions for dismantling Westernization throughout the world Contributors Zaid Ahmad Manuela Boatc Hans J rgen Burchardt Raewyn Connell Arturo Escobar Sandra Harding Ehsan Kashfi Venu Mehta Walter D Mignolo Ulrich Oslender Issiaka Ouattara Bernd Reiter Manu Samnotra Catherine E Walsh Aram Ziai

The Globalization of Gender Ioana Cîrstocea, Delphine Lacombe, Elisabeth Marteu, 2019-07-04 This book provides an insightful approach to understanding the contemporary circulations of feminist repertoires and shows how the international transnational circulations of gender are interconnected even coextensive with the globalization process itself Fed by a shared reflexivity on relations among activist groups state institutions and international actors involved in the production and dissemination of contemporary norms dealing with gender each chapter shares methodological premises and studies the circulation of gender related norms and knowledge in situ and by varying standpoints Specifically the authors de compartmentalize the academic disciplines and go beyond classical geographic divisions in order to map social spaces and networks of actors involved in the production and circulation of gender related repertoires Last the book grasps circulatory processes and entangled social phenomena which are usually subject to disciplinary and thematic divisions separating collective action and public action development aid and feminism law and international relations Focused on collective and individual experiences within women s organizations activist careers unstable mobilizations public policies temporalities the chapters reveal the mechanisms through which these arrangements are made and shed light on strategies deployed by actors rooted in specific social and political contexts This book will be of key interest to students and scholars of gender studies and more broadly to politics International Relations sociology geography history and anthropology Women in Executive Power Gretchen Bauer, Manon Tremblay, 2011-03-10 A comprehensive regional study of women in the political executive power

Partition and the South Asian Diaspora Papiya Ghosh, 2014-03-21 Preface Acknowledgements Introduction 1 Negotiating nations 2 Claiming Pakistan 3 Resisting Hindutva 4 Redoing South Asia 5 Conclusion Bibliography Index Dynasties and Female Political Leaders in Asia Claudia Derichs, Mark R. Thompson, 2013 This book is the first comprehensive academic effort to examine the phenomenon of top female political leaders in Asia It portrays prime ministers presidents and opposition leaders but it is not a conventional biographical volume Rather it analyzes female politicians by means of case studies that are based on a common theoretical framework The case studies were conducted over three years of field research which included interviews with the female leaders themselves and members of their inner circle Each chapter explores the similarities but also points to the distinctiveness of each female leader arising from political and social systems cultural and religious conditions and economic parameters Series Political Science Perspectives Politikwissenschaftliche Perspektiven Vol 16 Political Spiritualities Ruth Marshall, 2009-08-01 After an explosion of conversions to Pentecostalism over the past three decades tens of millions of Nigerians now claim that Jesus is the answer But if Jesus is the answer what is the question What led to the movement s dramatic rise and how can we make sense of its social and political significance In this ambitiously interdisciplinary study Ruth Marshall draws on years of fieldwork and grapples with a host of important thinkers including Foucault Agamben Arendt and Benjamin to answer these questions To account for the movement s success Marshall explores how Pentecostalism presents the experience of being born again as a chance for Nigerians to realize the promises of political and religious salvation made during the colonial and postcolonial eras Her astute analysis of this religious trend sheds light on Nigeria s contemporary politics postcolonial statecraft and the everyday struggles of ordinary citizens coping with poverty corruption and inequality Pentecostalism s rise is truly global and Political Spiritualities persuasively argues that Nigeria is a key case in this phenomenon while calling for new ways of thinking about the place of religion in contemporary politics

Women's Movements in Asia Mina Roces, Louise Edwards, 2010-06-10 Written by leading international experts this book provides an overview of the history and current context of feminism in 12 Asian countries This breadth of coverage together with suggestions for further study and an integrated cross national timeline makes Women s Movements in Asia ideal for use on courses looking at women and feminism in Asia Routledge Handbook of Gender in South Asia Leela

Fernandes, 2014-02-24 Providing a comprehensive overview of the study of gender in South Asia this Handbook covers the central contributions that have defined this area and captures innovative and emerging paradigms that are shaping the future of the field It offers a wide range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives spanning both the humanities and social sciences focussing on India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The Handbook brings together key experts in the field of South Asia and gender women and sexuality Chapters are organised thematically in five major sections Historical formations of gender and the significance of colonialism and nationalism Law Citizenship and the Nation Representations of Culture Place Identity Labour and the Economy Inequality Activism and the State This timely survey is essential reading for scholars who research and teach on South Asia as well as for scholars in related interdisciplinary fields that focus on women and gender from comparative and transnational perspectives Domestic Violence in Pakistan Daanika Kamal, 2025-05-22

Pakistani women are increasingly pursuing legal avenues against acts of domestic violence Their claims however are often dismissed through character allegations that label them as bad women in need of control or mad women not to be trusted Domestic Violence in Pakistan explores why the subjectivities of women victims are constructed in particular ways and how these subjectivities are captured and negotiated in the Pakistani legal system Drawing on feminist poststructuralist accounts relating to the use of gendering strategies in institutional and disciplinary settings and based on an analysis of over a hundred case files and judgements seventy two interviews and court observations in three cities of Pakistan this book shadows the experiences of women victims of domestic violence in both criminal law and family law proceedings It captures and offers empirical insights in relation to gendered subject formation in discursive spaces ranging from the use of societal narratives that minimise and silence women s harms to the deployment of police mechanisms that assist in maintaining the secrecy of familial violence and the application and enactment of boilerplate lawyerly strategies to present alternative legal truths Amidst regulations of the public versus the private and understandings of rights versus duties Domestic Violence in Pakistan explores how these practices construct the victim subject of domestic violence in a way that not only subjectivise her but also secure her within the field of that subjectification setting her up to be viewed by the judiciary through the lens of the allegations applied to her Gender and Nationalism Gauri Mishra, 2022-12-30 This book studies negotiations of gender politics in the process of nation formation in the aftermath of the Partition One of the most traumatic events in South Asian history the Partition forms the basis of numerous literary and cinematic interpretations Drawing on Hindi English Urdu and Punjabi fiction it shows how gender is irrevocably woven into the idea of the nation and the politics of it It focuses on the works of Saadat Hasan Manto Rajinder Singh Bedi Ismat Chughtai Yashpal Khushwant Singh Abdullah Hussein Mumtaz Shah Nawaz and Attia Hosain to delve into the horrors of the Partition toward women in particular and their representations in literary and cinematic imaginations As an important contribution to the study of the Partition of India this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature culture studies film studies politics gender studies and South Asian studies

Handbook on Gender in Asia Shirlena Huang, Kanchana N. Ruwanpura, 2020-07-31 The Handbook on Gender in Asia critically examines through a gender perspective five broad themes of significance to Asia the Theory and Practice of researching in Asia Gender Ageing and Health Gender and Labour Gendered Migrations and Mobilities and Gender at the Margins With each chapter providing an overview of the key intellectual developments on the issue under discussion as well as empirical examples to examine how the Asian case sheds light on these debates this collection will be an invaluable reference for scholars of gender and Asia

Violence Against Women in South Asian Communities Ravi K. Thiara, Aisha K. Gill, 2010 This book is powerful challenging and inspirational and is an important contribution to debates on the complex intersections between ethnicity gender and inequality as well as on human rights and violence against women

Religion and Women in India Tanika Sarkar, 2024-08-01 In Religion and Women in India Tanika Sarkar provides an account of gender prescriptions and proscriptions and their operation among various Indian religious communities beginning with early British rule and concluding in the late twentieth century Tracking various shifts and displacements in doctrinal thought and practice she argues that Indian modernity was initiated largely through debates on gender scripture custom and caste which shaped ideal forms of masculine and feminine conduct She demonstrates the organization of a modern public sphere around the controversies cultural imaginaries and political agitations over such issues as the age of consent child marriage widow remarriage rape laws and intercaste and interfaith relations Gender norms are shown leaching into social attitudes labor processes and legal rights leading eventually to modern Indian feminism. Closely analyzing the interpenetration and co-constitution of religion, politics and gender in India while also comparing parallel developments in Pakistan and Bangladesh, this pioneering work offers a brilliant and synthesizing account of the battles between orthodoxy and its opponents over two hundred years. No historian, no feminist, no student of politics can afford to miss it.

The Dream of a Common Movement

Urvashi Vaid, 2025-03-21

The Dream of a Common Movement collects essays, interviews and speeches by the late feminist and civil rights activist Urvashi Vaid whose pioneering writing and organizing over the course of four decades fundamentally shaped the LGBTQ movement. Vaid explores the LGBTQ movement's impact on the AIDS epidemic and its challenges as it developed a national presence. She calls out movement leaders and donors for not addressing gender, race and class issues and passionately argues that the goal of any liberation movement should be transformation, not assimilation. In personal essays, Vaid describes a double consciousness forged by the experience of immigration and a complicated relationship with her Indian American and lesbian identities. Whether she was focused on the Donors of Color Network, the 22nd Century Initiative, the Lesbian Political Action Committee or other initiatives she launched, Vaid was steadfast in her vision of a more just society and believed deeply in the power of people coming together to effect change. Offering a window into the breadth of her progressive vision for social change, this volume inspires readers to never stop organizing and marching.
