Hashim, 2013-01-11 From 2003 to 2008 the Sunni Arab insurgency in Iraq posed a key challenge to political stability in the country and to Coalition objectives there This paper explains the onset composition and evolution of this insurgency It begins by addressing both its immediate and deeper sociopolitical origins and goes on to examine the multiple ideological strands within the insurgency and their often conflicting methods and goals Despite organisational incoherence due to the existence of a large number of competing groups the insurgency in Iraq sustained a particularly high tempo of operations between 2004 and 2006 causing considerable military and civilian casualties Some insurgent groups focused on attempting to foment civil war between two of Iraq's major communities the Sunni and Shia Arabs and by late 2006 they had come close to unravelling Iraq and presenting the Coalition with a major defeat The adoption of a new approach by the US in 2007 helped reduce the level of violence in Iraq In addition deep fissures within the insurgency itself between those fighting for more practical immediate goals and the transnational Islamists and their local allies fighting for wider reaching goals including the promotion of sectarian strife contributed to the insurgency's diminution It remains to be seen whether there will be a widespread recognition among Sunni Iraqis of the need to work with the Coalition to facilitate their community's reintegration into the new Iraqi body politic

Fearing a 'Shiite Octopus' Sunni-Shi'a relations and the implications for Belgium and Europe (Egmont Papers 35) Jelle Puelings, Islamic Imperialism Efraim Karsh, 2007-01-01 From the first Arab Islamic Empire of the mid seventh century to the Ottomans the last great Muslim empire the story of the Middle East has been the story of the rise and fall of universal empires and no less important of imperialist dreams So argues Efraim Karsh in this highly provocative book Rejecting the conventional Western interpretation of Middle Eastern history as an offshoot of global power politics Karsh contends that the region's experience is the culmination of long existing indigenous trends passions and patterns of behavior and that foremost among these is Islam's millenarian imperial tradition The author explores the history of Islam's imperialism and the persistence of the Ottoman imperialist dream that outlasted World War I to haunt Islamic and Middle Eastern politics to the present day September 11 can be seen as simply the latest expression of this dream and such attacks have little to do with U S international behavior or policy in the Middle East says Karsh The House of Islam's war for world mastery is traditional indeed venerable and it is a quest that is far from over

The Arab State Adham Saouli, 2012-03-29 This book explores the conditions of state formation and survival in the Middle East Based on Historical Sociology it provides a model for study of the state in the Arab world and a theory to explain its survival Examining states as a process the author argues that what emerged in the Middle East in the beginning of the twentieth century are social fields where states form and deform and not states as defined by Max Weber He explores the constitutions of these fields their cultural material and political structures and identifies three stages of state development in which different cases can be located Capturing the dilemmas that late forming states face as regimes within them cope with domestic and international pressure the author illustrates several Middle East cases and presents a detailed analysis of state developments in Saudi Arabia and Iraq He maintains that more than the domestic characteristics of individual states state survival in the Middle East is also a function of the anarchic nature of the international and by extension the regional states system The first to raise the question on the survivability of the territorial states in the Middle East while engaging with both International Relations and Comparative Politics theories this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Middle East politics Comparative Politics and International Relations

The New American Imperialism Vassilis Fouskas, Bülent Gökay, 2005-10-30 With the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 the United States long war on communism was replaced by a perpetual war on terror The authors posit that this neo imperialistic phase is but the latest development in a line of thought and action established after World War II But they say 2005 is not 1945 Today they argue the United States uses its power to deplete the resources of the developing world and to compel the rest of the world to remain dependent on American management of the global economy Contending that this situation is ultimately untenable they assert that the United States is entering a period of deep crisis The best thing for American neo imperialists to do to avert their worst nightmare a strategic and economic alliance among Europe Russia China and OPEC would be to arrange for the orderly withdrawal of American power before it is too late for the human and environmental security of the world When the Soviet Union collapsed in 1991 the Cold War slowly gave way to a new world order in which the United States was left as the lone superpower But the organizing principle that would characterize the early 21st century was as yet unclear until the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 Now it is clear that the long war on Communism has been replaced by a perpetual war on terror Regardless of how long American troops remain in Iraq and irrespective of further military actions George W Bush will continue to be a wartime president whose foreign policy is dominated by the Pentagon And yet the authors argue this neo imperialistic phase with its emphasis on Eurasian oil supplies is but the latest development in a line of thinking and acting in the world that was established by such men as Dean Acheson and Paul Nitze after World War II But 2005 is not 1945 and the United States despite Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and Vice President Dick Cheney s assertions is not liberating Iraq and Afghanistan in the same way that U S forces liberated Germany and Japan it is not reconstructing Iraq or the former Yugoslavia as it did when it rebuilt war torn western Europe with the Marshall Plan The United States with its thinly stretched military and deficit laden economy does not possess the means to do so today Instead the authors maintain the United States is simply depleting the developing world s natural resources compelling the rest of the developed world to remain dependent on American management of the global economy This situation is ultimately untenable the authors argue and as a result the United States is entering a period of deep crisis The best thing for American neo imperialists to do to avert their worst nightmare a strategic and economic alliance among Europe Russia China and OPEC would be to arrange for the orderly withdrawal of American power before it is too late for the human and environmental security of the world as a whole

How Iran Plans to Fight America and Dominate the Middle East Gabriel G. Tabarani, 2008 With the creeping possibility of a nuclear breakout its vigorous sponsorship of international non state armed groups and its escalating intervention next door in Iraq Lebanon and the Palestinian Territories the Islamic Republic of Iran is a triple threat at least to international security and America and Western s Middle Eastern interests Indeed perhaps no country according to the West fits the definition of rogue state as well as Iran does Making matters worse Iran s confidence and clout in the region and beyond are indubitably on the rise But that is only the beginning Shiite Persian Iran is not content with being just an inconsequential pariah Iran has grand ambitions Tehran wants to be the predominant state in the Middle East replacing the United States as the region s power broker and lording over its Sunni Arab neighbours With the fall of its most fearsome competitors for regional pre eminence Iraq s Saddam Hussein and Afghanistan s Taliban Iran is unabashedly reasserting itself on the international stage Buoyed by high energy prices emboldened by continuing American challenges in Iraq and Afghanistan encouraged by consistent unimpeded progress in its nuclear program and the increased influence of its extremist allies Hamas and Hizbollah Iran has its eye on becoming the regional hegemony So the question here How Iran plans to fight America Israel and the West and dominate the Middle East Gabriel G Tabarani who is an Expert on Middle East Affairs will try to give the answer on this question in this book through a fair and balanced information analysis arguments examination and recommendations which will clear every point concerning the Iranian ambitions and the USA strategy to confront them
