Storm World Chris Mooney, 2008-08-04 An investigation into climate change and increasingly dangerous hurricanes from the New York Times bestselling author of The Republican War on Science A leading science journalist delves into a red hot debate in meteorology whether the increasing ferocity of hurricanes is connected to global warming In the wake of Katrina Chris Mooney follows the careers of leading scientists on either side of the argument through the 2006 hurricane season tracing how the media special interests politics and the weather itself have skewed and amplified what was already a fraught scientific debate As Mooney puts it Scientists like hurricanes do extraordinary things at high wind speeds Mooney a New Orleans native host of the Point of Inquiry podcast and author of The Republican Brain has written a well researched nuanced book that closely examines whether we as a society should be held responsible for making hurricanes even bigger monsters than they already are The New York Times Mooney serves his readers as both an empiricist who gathers data and an analyst who puts it into context The result is an important book whose author succeeds admirably in both his roles The Plain Dealer Engaging and readable Mooney catches real science in the act and in so doing weaves a story as intriguing as it is important Los Angeles Times Book Review Mooney has hit upon an important and controversial topic and attacks it with vigor The Boston Globe An absorbing informed account of the politics behind a pressing contemporary controversy Kirkus Reviews

Across the Atlantic and Nearly Back Barbara Arnold, 2024-12-06 There are many aspects to sailing a small yacht in a big ocean from unfathomable joy to abject fear from a sense of freedom to frustration and from a deep sense of peace to foreboding terror You are masters of your own destiny but there are skills needed Gone are the solid floorboards exchanged for an ever moving deck Simple things become a challenge Joy can be the simple pleasure of a night watch with the rhythmical sound of the moving yacht the phosphorescence of the wake and the myriad of stars or it can be the fear of what can happen in a storm Cruising is a different way of life Most of the time it is rewarding but things can go wrong Piracy is real Getting to know the ways of new countries and people is a rewarding experience
