billion strong democracy in a fluid and precarious world order The Calling of History Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2015-07-15 A leading scholar in early twentieth century India Sir Jadunath Sarkar 1870 1958 was knighted in 1929 and became the first Indian historian to gain honorary membership in the American Historical Association By the end of his lifetime however he had been marginalized by the Indian history establishment as postcolonial historians embraced alternative approaches in the name of democracy and anti colonialism The Calling of History examines Sarkar's career and poignant obsolescence as a way into larger questions about the discipline of history and its public life Through close readings of more than twelve hundred letters to and from Sarkar along with other archival documents Dipesh Chakrabarty demonstrates that historians in colonial India formulated the basic concepts and practices of the field via vigorous and at times bitter and hurtful debates in the public sphere He furthermore shows that because of its non technical nature the discipline as a whole remains susceptible to pressure from both the public and the academy even today Methodological debates and the changing reputations of scholars like Sarkar he argues must therefore be understood within the specific contexts in which particular histories are written Insightful and with far reaching implications for all historians The Calling of History offers a valuable look at the double life of history and how tensions between its public and private sides played out in a major scholar's career History of the Nayaks of Madura R. Sathyanatha Aiyar, 1991 With An Introduction And Notes By Krishnaswami Aiyangar Chinese and Indian Warfare - From the Classical Age to 1870 Kaushik Roy, Peter Lorge, 2014-12-17 This book examines the differences and similarities between warfare in China and India before 1870 both conceptually and on the battlefield By focusing on Chinese and Indian warfare the book breaks the intellectual paradigm requiring non Western histories and cultures to be compared to the West and allows scholarship on two of the oldest civilizations to be brought together An international group of scholars compare and contrast the modes and conceptions of warfare in China and India providing important original contributions to the growing study of Asian military history A History of India through 75 Objects Sudeshna Guha, 2022-12-19 With a curation of objects from the prehistoric ages through twenty first century India Sudeshna Guha provides a panoramic view of the rich histories of the subcontinent The incisive essays in this collection detail not just the objects but the histories of their reception examining how changing times and attitudes cast their shadow on the ways in which the past is interpreted and narrated In doing so A History of India through 75 Objects inspires us to interrogate our own notions of a knowable past and fixed national history Teeming with thought provoking insights and surprising anecdotes the essays instill a sense of wonder about the continuous processes by which histories are constructed History of Aurangzib: The closing years, 1689-1707. 2d ed., rev. and enl. 1952 Sir Jadunath Sarkar, 1924 The Marathas Prof. A.
