The Old World and Other Stories* Cary Fagan,2017-03-18 Stirred by a series of found photographs critically acclaimed author Cary Fagan brilliantly imagines the lost stories behind them in this dazzling story collection Many years ago the photographs in this book became separated from their original owners faces unrecognized settings a mystery They floated through this world as if on a sorrowful wind I have given them stories to replace the ones they have lost So begins the bewitching new collection from acclaimed author Cary Fagan and a journey into a world that is both achingly familiar and wonderfully strange A man hangs onto a runaway horse A woman paints in the nude A child sparks a revolution These stories each inspired by a found photograph are by turns realistic and surreal bloody and tender delightful and appalling Here are stories that playfully vary in technique and form monologues dialogues interviews letters transcripts tall tales and capsule histories form a single portrait belonging in the words of the author to one history found in an album that might belong to any of us Fagan paints a portrait of re imagined lives that is comic and tragic profound and unforgettable The beauty humour and the horror of days gone by haunt these pages and resonate in the world we find ourselves in today M3 Lee and other stories Oliver Salter,2020-11-30 It had been roughly four years now since the soldier had last seen his home in Wapping near the Thames And the first thing that hit him was the smell Of course he had been repeatedly exposed to the sickening stench of rotting dismembered and half buried corpses littering No Man s Land after a Big Push but this felt strangely new A sea breeze swept up the estuary and blew the various vile smells into a big invisible fog Raw sewage rotting vegetables left in the street black smoke from dozens of chimneys and furnaces animal shit It all formed into a toxic cloud and passed through the street for a few moments He began to revisit the memory of those events and felt a shiver of the terror he experienced reverberate down his spine That terror provided the fuel to the now blazing fire consuming his thoughts The anger making him curl his hands into tight fists his dirty jagged fingernails scrapping against the surface of the table as he did so He wanted them to pay What happens when an individual is far from home full of anger and lacking self confidence Some people are unwillingly bound to represent the dirtiest part of a society founded on a hypocrite moral What occurs in their lives can push them to the edge of their limits where it is easy to go beyond the subtle distinction between right and wrong good and evil The circumstances they are trapped in can unlock their true instincts and personalities and the result sometimes is just a matter of survival Oliver Salter provides the reader with a raw vivid collection of short stories that explores uncomfortable thoughts and complex situations inspecting the human condition through different historical periods Oliver Salter returned to the UK at the end of 2019 after working as an ESL teacher in China for four years In 2020 he decided to assemble the short stories he had written over several years bringing to life his first published book M3 Lee and Other Stories The Kid on the Karaoke Stage & Other Stories Georgia Richter,2011-09-01 Featuring both established and emerging Western Australian writers this short story anthology includes both fiction and creative nonfiction A quirky and memorable collection it centers on who we are and what we want to be ideas that will resonate globally despite the regional origin of the contributors The distinctive voices highlighted here present joy and pain in equal measure with humor and feeling
