formulations and propositions in each theory by reducing these difficult formulations to straightforward propositions The result is a highly accessible volume that clearly defines and analyzes step by step many of the fundamental concepts in film theory ranging from familiar concepts such as Apparatus Gaze Genre and Identification to less well known and understood but equally important concepts such as Alain Badiou's Inaesthetics Gilles Deleuze's Time Image and Jean Luc Nancy's Evidence The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an ideal reference book for undergraduates of film studies as well as graduate students new to the discipline

The Productivity of Negative Emotions in Postcolonial Literature

Jean-François Vernay, Donald Wehrs, Isabelle Wentworth, 2024-11-18 This volume explores the possibilities and potentialities of negative affect in postcolonial literature and literary theory featuring work on postcolonial studies First Nations studies cognitive cultural studies cognitive historicism reader response theory postcolonial feminist studies and trauma studies The chapters of this work investigate negative affect in all its types and dimensions analyses of the structures of feeling created by socio political forces assemblages and alliances produced by negative emotion enactive interrelationships of emotion and environment and the ethical implications of emotional response to name a few It seeks to rebrand negative emotions as productive forces which can paradoxically confer pleasure agential power and social progress through literary representation

Everybody's Family Romance Gillian Harkins, 2009 In the 1990s a boom in autobiographical novels and memoirs about incest emerged making incest one of the hottest topics to connect daytime TV talk shows the self help industry and the literary publishing circuit In Everybody's Family Romance Gillian Harkins places this proliferation of incest literature at the center of transformations in the political and economic climate of the late twentieth century Harkins's interdisciplinary approach reveals how women's narratives about incest were co-opted by and yet retained resistant strains against the cultural logics of the neoliberal state Across chapters examining legal cases on recovered memory popular journalism and novels and memoirs by Dorothy Allison Carolivia Herron Kathryn Harrison and Sapphire Harkins demonstrates that incest narratives look backward into the past In these accounts images of incest forge links between U S chattel slavery and the distributive impasses of the welfare state and between decades distant childhoods and emergent memories of the present In contrast to recent claims that incest narratives eclipse broader frameworks of political and economic power Harkins argues that their emergence exposes changing structural relations between the family and the nation and in doing so transforms the analyses of American familial sexual violence

Grotesque Humor Emily James, AI, 2025-05-05 Grotesque Humor explores why we laugh at the disgusting examining the role of the grotesque and discomfort in humor across literature and performance This literary collection of essays argues that these elements aren't just for laughs they challenge social norms and provoke critical thought The book highlights how artists use the grotesque to expose hypocrisy and address difficult topics revealing humor's potential as social commentary Understanding why we find discomfort funny provides insights into our psychological boundaries The book begins by establishing the historical context of the grotesque tracing its evolution and use in comedy It introduces key concepts like abjection and transgression to explain their function within humor Analyzing literary works of satire dark comedy and absurdism the book examines how authors use unsettling imagery to create humor Moving into performance art it dissects plays and stand up routines that employ shock value and audience discomfort Ultimately Grotesque Humor argues that the strategic use of the grotesque is a powerful method of engaging with power structures and cultural values It demonstrates that humor born from the repulsive can catalyze questioning and re evaluating our perceptions elevating the study of humor to a level of serious intellectual inquiry and demonstrating its capacity to drive social and political change Contemporary Far-Right Culture Marc-André Argentino,Amarnath Amarasingam,2025-09-30

Commodity Price Dynamics Craig Pirrong, 2011-10-31 Commodities have become an important component of many investors portfolios and the focus of much political controversy over the past decade This book utilizes structural models to provide a better understanding of how commodities prices behave and what drives them It exploits differences across commodities and examines a variety of predictions of the models to identify where they work and where they fail The findings of the analysis are useful to scholars traders and policy makers who want to better understand often puzzling and extreme movements in the prices of commodities from aluminium to oil to soybeans to zinc

A Method for Calculating Transient Surface Temperatures and Surface Heating Rates for High-speed Aircraft Robert D. Quinn, 2000 This report describes a method that can calculate transient aerodynamic heating and transient surface temperatures at supersonic and hypersonic speeds This method can rapidly calculate temperature and heating rate time histories for complete flight trajectories Semi empirical theories are used to calculate laminar and turbulent heat transfer coefficients and a procedure for estimating boundary layer transition is included Results from this method are compared with flight data from the X 15 research vehicle

YF 12 airplane and the Space Shuttle Orbiter These comparisons show that the calculated values are in good agreement with the measured flight data

Mathematical Modeling in Combustion and Related Topics Claude-Michel Brauner, Claudine Schmidt-Lainé, 1988-03-31 This volume contains invited lectures and contributed papers presented at the NATO Advanced Research Workshop on Mathematical Modeling in Combustion and related topics held in Lyon France April 27 30 1987 This conference was planned to fit in with the two month visit of Professor G S S Ludford to the Ecole Centrale de Lyon He kindly agreed to chair the Scientific and Organizing Committee and actively helped to initiate the meeting His death in December 1986 is an enormous loss to the scientific community in general and in particular to the people involved in the present enterprise The subject of mathematical modeling in combustion is too large for a single conference and the selection of topics reflects both areas of recent research activity and areas of interest to Professor G S S Ludford to whose memory the Advanced Workshop and this present volume are dedicated The meeting was divided into seven specialized sessions detonation theory mathematical analysis numerical treatment of combustion problems flame theory experimental and industrial aspects complex chemistry and turbulent combustion It brought together researchers and engineers from University and Industry see below the closing remarks of the workshop by Prof N Peters The articles in this volume have been judged and accepted on their scientific quality and language corrections may have been sacrificed in order to allow quick dissemination of knowledge to prevail
