G. Heath Ph. D.,2009-06 Awarded an American Legion Scholarship I am also an award winning author and have published numerous articles and books Having attended several colleges and universities eventually earning my Ph D in Human Behavior I hold several life credentials in education earned during many years as an educator together with years spent working in the Aerospace Industry and other occupations But to call Einstein s famous equation $E=MC^2$ incomplete because it does not account for life and death does seem quite extraordinary yet these remain the two greatest mysteries they have ever been denying us thus far a theory of everything Something animates life and departs with death but what this something is not all our science has yet discovered though things like the Large Hadron Collider may provide needed insight and it has been in the pursuit of knowledge about these two greatest mysteries that has compelled me into so many varied academic studies and careers attempting to make sense of the world and our place in it and how people think and deal with the issues of life and death philosophically religiously and politically The things I have discovered along the way compelled me to much research and speculation about these mysteries and how they impact our lives to communicate my thoughts about them to share with others in a daily journal and posted to my website and provided in book format each year These writings are of importance in an increasingly dangerous world with a most uncertain future due to so much corruption ineptitude and lack of accountability in our own government as well as that of others the abject failure of our schools due to the very same things especially the same lack of accountability we find in government the religious and political hatreds with protracted wars worldwide and little to give hope for world peace I believed my articles about these important enough to publish in book format Some years ago I removed from the greater part of society to live in semi seclusion alone with my books and thoughts in a quiet part of the Sequoia National Forest devoting myself to contemplation speculating about many things and committing my thoughts in writing fulltime As a writer and author given to much introspection and fascinated by human behavior nature and our universe it was important to me to simplify my life as much as possible as anyone given to philosophical speculation about many things must That much of my writing covers some metaphysical thoughts about God angels and demons an afterlife and Biblical stories of origins of prophecies of the End Times and so much more have been absorbing studies as well and I freely share my thoughts about these in this volume

Subculture Dick Hebdige,2013-10-08 First Published in 2002 It is easy to see that we are living in a time of rapid and radical social change It is much less easy to grasp the fact that such change will inevitably affect the nature of those disciplines that both reflect our society and help to shape it Yet this is nowhere more apparent than in the central field of what may in general terms be called literary studies New Accents is intended as a positive response to the initiative offered by such a situation Each volume in the series will seek to encourage rather than resist the process of change To stretch rather than reinforce the boundaries that currently define literature and its academic study

Collected Poems Anthony Thwaite,2007 Anthony Thwaite s Collected Poems published as he reaches seventy seven give readers an opportunity to see gathered together all the poems he wants to preserve from the sixteen collections he has published since his debut in the Fantasy Poets series in 1953 Although his roots are partly in the Movement he has developed a distinctive style once described as cunningly modulated eloquence and a range of concerns which have defined his poetry from the beginning memory history archaeology travel he has lived in Japan and Libya writing of them with subtlety and affection the intricacies of relationships and now the frustrations of age Through his own voice and those he has adopted most memorably in The Letters of Synesius and Victorian Voices he has made a significant contribution to the literature of the last half century elegantly and perceptively setting the curiosities of the present against the layers of the past

Illegible Sergey Gandlevsky,2019-11-15 Sergey Gandlevsky s 2002 novel Illegible has a double time focus centering on the immediate experiences of Lev Krivorotov a twenty year old poet living in Moscow in the 1970s as well as his retrospective meditations thirty years later after most of his hopes have foundered As the story begins Lev is involved in a tortured affair with an older woman and consumed by envy of his more privileged friend and fellow beginner poet Nikita one of the children of high Soviet functionaries who were known as golden youth In both narratives Krivorotov recounts with regret and self castigation the failure of a double infatuation his erotic love for the young student Anya and his artistic love for the poet Viktor Chigrashov When this double infatuation becomes a romantic triangle the consequences are tragic In Illegible as in his poems Gandlevsky gives us unparalleled access to the atmosphere of the city of Moscow and the ethos of the late Soviet and post Soviet era while at the same time demonstrating the universality of human emotion

All That Is Wales M. Wynn Thomas,2017-05-05 Wales may be small but culturally it is richly varied The aim in this collection of essays on a number of English language authors from Wales is to offer a sample of the country s internal diversity To that end the author s examined range from the exotic Lynette Roberts Argentinean by birth but of Welsh descent and the English born Peggy Ann Whistler who opted for new Welsh identity as Margiad Evans to Nigel Heseltine whose bizarre stories of the antics of the decaying squierarchy of the Welsh border country remain largely unknown and the Utah based poet Leslie Norris who brings out the bicultural character of Wales in his Welsh English translations The result is a portrait of Wales as a micro cosmopolitan country and the volume is prefaced with an autobiographical essay by one of the leading specialists in the field authoritatively tracing the steady growth over recent decades of serious informed and sustained study of what is a major achievement of Welsh culture Poetry Harriet Monroe, Morton Dauwen Zabel, George Dillon, Karl Shapiro, Henry Rago, Peter De Vries, Jessica North MacDonald, Marion Strobel, 1962 The Eye of the Mammoth Stephen Harrigan, Nicholas Lemann, 2013-04-15 In four decades of writing for magazines ranging from Texas Monthly to the Atlantic American History and Travel Holiday Stephen Harrigan has established himself as one of America's most thoughtful writers In this career spanning anthology which gathers together essays from two previous books A Natural State and Comanche Midnight as well as previously uncollected work readers finally have a comprehensive collection of Harrigan's best nonfiction History natural history human history and personal history and place are the cornerstones of The Eye of the Mammoth But the specific history or place varies considerably from essay to essay Harrigan's career has taken him from the Alaska Highway to the Chihuahuan Desert from the casinos of Monaco to his ancestors village in the Czech Republic Texas is the subject of a number of essays and a force in shaping others as in The Anger of Achilles in which a nineteenth century painting moves the author despite his possessing a Texan's suspicion of serious culture Harrigan's deceptively straightforward voice however belies an intense curiosity about things that by his own admission may be unknowable Certainly we are limited in what we can know about the inner life of George Washington the last days of Davy Crockett or the motives of a caged tiger but Harrigan's gift a gift that has also made him an award winning novelist is to bring readers closer to such things to make them less remote just as a cave painting in the title essay eerily transmits the living stare of a long extinct mammoth City Wilds Terrell Dixon, 2002 The assumptions we make about nature writing too often lead us to see it only as a literature about wilderness or rural areas This anthology broadens our awareness of American nature writing by featuring the flora fauna geology and climate that enrich and shape urban life Set in neither pristine nor exotic environs these stories and essays take us to rivers parks vacant lots lakes gardens and zoos as they convey nature's rich disregard of city limits signs With writings by women and men from cities in all regions of the country and from different ethnic traditions the anthology reflects the geographic differences and multicultural makeup of our cities Works by well known and emerging contemporary writers are included as well as pieces from important twentieth century urban nature writers Since more than 80 percent of Americans now live in urban areas we need to enlarge our environmental concerns to encompass urban nature By focusing on urban nature writing the selections in City Wilds can help develop a more inclusive environmental consciousness one that includes both the nature we see on a day to day basis and how such nearby nature is viewed by writers from diverse cultural backgrounds The American Humanities Index Stephen H.
