Shooting The Moon A Memoir:

Shooting the Moon Louis Nowra, 2004 Shooting the Moon Victoria Mary Jones, 2008 Australian Book Review, 2006 Shooting for the Moon Stephen Krensky, 2001 The Bulletin, 2004 Belonging John McCallum, 2009 John McCallum's new history explores the relationship between 20th century Australian drama and a developing concept of nation. The book focuses on the creative tension sparked by dueling impulses between nationalism and cosmopolitanism and between artistic seriousness and larrikin populism. It explores issues such as the domineering influence of European high culture, the ongoing popularity of representational realism, the influence of popular theatrical forms, the ambivalence between affection and aggression of much Australian humour and satire and the interaction between the personal and the political in drama. The strength of Belonging is its comprehensiveness: anyone studying an Australian play will find an account of it here in the context of the other works by its author or the time and place in which it was written. As well as a rundown of the major writers and their works and an account of how the minor writers fitted in, the book also investigates the more obscure plays and writers about whom little has been written. This authoritative study of Australian drama gives an account of the relationship between our theatre and our sense of self while taking into account a broad range of influences that helped to shape both.

Memoirs of the Royal Astronomical Society Royal Astronomical Society, 1871 Shoot for the Moon James Donovan, 2019-03-12. Learn why NASA astronaut Mike Collins calls this extraordinary space race story the best book on Apollo: this inspiring and intimate ode to ingenuity celebrates one of the most daring feats in human history. When the alarm went off forty thousand feet above the moon's surface, both astronauts looked down at the computer to see 1202 flashing on the readout. Neither of them knew what it meant and time was running out. On July 20, 1969, Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin became the first humans to walk on the moon. One of the world's greatest technological achievements and a triumph of the American spirit, the Apollo 11 mission was a mammoth undertaking involving more than 410,000 men and women dedicated to winning the space race against the Soviets. Set amid the tensions and upheaval of the sixties and the Cold War, Shoot for the Moon is a gripping account of the dangers, the challenges and the sheer determination that defined not only Apollo 11 but also the Mercury and Gemini missions that came before it. From the shock of Sputnik and the heart-stopping final minutes of John Glenn's Mercury flight to the deadly whirligig of Gemini 8, the doomed Apollo 1 mission and that perilous landing on the Sea of Tranquility when the entire world held its breath while Armstrong and Aldrin battled computer alarms, low fuel and other problems, James Donovan tells the whole story. Both sweeping and intimate, Shoot for the Moon is a powerfully written and irresistible celebration of one of humankind's most extraordinary accomplishments. Booklist starred review.
