The Edge of Memory Patrick Nunn, 2018-08-23 How much of the folk tales of our ancestors is rooted in fact and what can they tell us about the future In today s society it is the written word that holds the authority We are more likely to trust the words found in a history textbook over the version of history retold by a friend after all human memory is unreliable and how can you be sure your friend hasn t embellished the facts But before humans were writing down their knowledge they were passing it on in the form of stories The Edge of Memory celebrates the predecessor of written information the spoken word tales from our ancestors that have been passed down transmitting knowledge from one generation to the next Among the most extensive and best analysed of these stories are from native Australian cultures These stories conveyed both practical information and recorded history describing a lost landscape often featuring tales of flooding and submergence Folk traditions such as these are increasingly supported by hard science Geologists are starting to corroborate the tales through study of climatic data sediments and land forms the evidence was there in the stories but until recently nobody was listening In this book Patrick Nunn unravels the importance of these tales exploring the science behind folk history from around the world including northwest Europe and India and what it can tell us about environmental phenomena from coastal drowning to volcanic eruptions These stories of real events were handed down the generations over thousands of years and they have broad implications for our understanding of how human societies have developed through the millennia and ultimately how we respond collectively to changes in climate our surroundings and the environment we live in Shoreline Memories Shoreline Historical Society,1972 A Celtic Tale David Riley,2008-11-26

People like stories They like to read them they like to hear them and they like to tell them Ill never forget the stories of my wifes cousin Uncle Charles whod pour a cup of coffee light up his favorite pipe and begin to recall his seafaring days in the US Navy as we both sat at his small dining room table under the dim light of a homemade Tiffany like lamp Hed casually speak of wartimes as if it were just a Sunday walk in the park only slowing his tempo a bit when it came to those near death experiences like nearly being crushed to death as he got pinned between a ship and a dock piling waiting and praying as the massive ship eased away from the piling with a swell instead of popping open his barrel chest against the timber I always anxiously anticipated our story time together Unfortunately Charles eventually passed away Two careers one ending as a lieutenant commander of the navy and one as a captain in a sheriffs department had finally taken its toll on his health I miss him but his stories live on in my mind So if stories within our lifetime can impact us and stay with us so long what kind of story would it have to be to survive over two thousand years of human history Just such a story is the legend of Deirdre of the Sorrows My first encounter with this legend was actually musical in nature In a little shop outside of Chattanooga Tennessee I first heard the music of A Celtic Tale by Hearts of Space and the sound captured my imagination Not even knowing what the music was about I bought the cassette and began investigating the tale of Deirdre of the Sorrows that had inspired this music Think about it Some old Irish legend survives several millennia and inspires some extremely talented musicians on the west coast of the USA to orchestrate a whole album of music about it Thats intriguing From there I wrote my own narrative to the music and in time began contemplating more deeply about this complex tale of love betrayal and human destiny After reading many versions of this tale and looking at the archeological evidence from this time period in Northern Ireland a more complete story started to formulate itself in my mind Whether I wanted to or not it became apparent over time that I was bound by some unseen force to write this novel Here is the gist of the story A dark and powerful druid prophesizes that the most beautiful woman in the world will be born marry one of three highly admired young brothers in Ireland and eventually cause the downfall of the kingdom Instead of killing the baby when she was born the king decides to raise the girl and marry her on her sixteenth birthday to nullify the prophecy like that was going to work Well you can imagine no wait You dont have to just read the story Memories of Magical Waters Gord Deval,2006-03-27 Author Gord Deval is the grand old guy of sport fishing in Canada Few anglers can match him when it comes to his familiarity with trout and fly fishing Internationally known he holds countless bait and fly casting records Canadian and North American champion he has represented Canada 32 times in North American and World competitions Memories of Magical Waters contains a richness of fishing lore related to Deval s experiences on numerous streams rivers and lakes in Ontario and Quebec Throughout his extensive outdoor reminiscences are many insights into fish habitats fishing how tos and general insider tips on lures and casting techniques
