Lipman,2016-05-23 How does it feel to live in a haunted home How do people negotiate their everyday lives with the experience of uncanny anomalous or strange events within the domestic interior What do such experiences reveal of the intersection between the material immaterial and temporal within the home How do people interpret share and narrate experiences which are uncertain and unpredictable What does this reveal about contested beliefs and different forms of knowledge And about how people co habit with ghosts a distinctive self other relationship within such close quarters This book sets out to explore these questions It applies a non reductive middle ground approach which steers beyond an uncritical exploration of supernatural experiences without explaining them away by recourse only to wider social and cultural contexts The book attends to the ways in which households in England and Wales understand their experience of haunting in relation to ideas of subjectivity gender materiality memory knowledge and belief It explores home as a place both dynamic and differentiated illuminating the complexity of everyday experience the familiarity of the strange as well as the strangeness of the familiar and the ways in which home continues to be configured as a distinctive space Ghosts Lisa Morton,2015-09-15 From that cheerful puff of smoke known as Casper to the hunkiest potter living or dead Sam Wheat there is probably no more iconic entity in supernatural history than the ghost And these are just recent examples From the earliest writings such as the Epic of Gilgamesh to today's ghost hunting reality TV shows ghosts have chilled the air of nearly every era and every culture in human history In this book Lisa Morton uses her scholarly prowess more powerful than any proton pack to wrangle together history's most enduring ghosts into an entertaining and comprehensive look at what otherwise seems to always evade our eyes Tracing the ghost's constantly shifting contours Morton asks the most direct question What exactly is a ghost and examines related entities such as poltergeists wraiths and revenants She asks how a ghost is related to a soul and she outlines all the different kinds of ghosts there are To do so she visits the spirits of the classical world including the five part Egyptian soul and the first haunted house conceived in the Roman playwright Plautus's comedy Mostellaria She confronts us with the frightening phantoms of the Middle Ages who could incinerate priests and devour children and reminds us of the nineteenth century rise of Spiritualism a religion essentially devoted to ghosts She visits with the Indian bhuta and goes to the Hungry Ghost Festival in China and of course she spends time in Mexico where ghosts have a particularly strong grip on belief and culture Along the way she gathers the ectoplasmic residues seeping from books and film reels from the Gothic novel The Castle of Otranto to the 2007 blockbuster Paranormal Activity from the stories of Ann Radcliffe to those of Stephen King Wide ranging informative and slicked with over fifty unearthly images Ghosts is an entertaining read of a cultural phenomenon that will delight anyone whether they believe in ghosts or not THOSE NIGHTS AND OTHER SHORT STORIES-new ,2008 The book is a collection and compilation of 23 best short stories handpicked from Illustrated Weekly of India and penned by famous authors Kushwant Singh Mulk Raj Anand Sunil Gangopadhyay and Mohan Rakesh among others These are stories which relate to everyday aspect of life of living and losing questioning and accepting The stories are built around the theme of loneliness battling old age gender bias towards women and love in its myriad colours Conspiracy of Fate Graham Sutherland,2015-04-18 In 1846 whilst working in Birmingham Richard Fielding is wanted for two murders that he did not commit Unsure who to trust he takes refuge with a gang of railway navvies Unaware that he holds vital information concerning the safety of the young Queen Victoria Richard is soon being hunted by various revolutionary groups the police and the shadowy English spymaster known as the Spider Police Inspector Daniel Roberts believes in Richard's innocence and must find him before the others do But if successful he will have to prosecute Richard for murder An
