Zophy, 1999 In an effort to bridge the gap between the often different worlds of professors and students this exploration of Renaissance and Reformation Europe offers an accessible engaging approach that pays sufficient attention to the roles and contributions of women Its conversational tone and concise presentation are examples of an approach that is more representative than comprehensive introducing historical figures and concepts as they flow through the narrative without frequent interruption to include and define technical and foreign terms Rather than a compendium or grand summa the text serves as a brief introduction to some of the major personalities issues events and ideas of the Renaissance and Reformation age A Short History of Renaissance Europe short interpretive and coherent overview of the history of Western civilization from antiquity to late eighteenth century

Europe and America Back cover A Short History of Reformation Europe Jonathan W. Zophy, 1997 This student friendly text introduces the major personalities issues events and ideas of Reformation Europe Jonathan Zophy makes the

Reformation accessible to students with little or no familiarity with the age Organized chronologically and by topic the text features discussions of women and their contributions to the Reformation not usually found in traditional textbooks Topics include Luther and Lutheranism Calvin and Calvinism the Catholic Reformation and the Reformation in England and Scotland The text is amply illustrated with maps and artworks including many portraits of Reformation personalities The book also features end of chapter lists of further readings and chronologies of important individuals and events The Living Church, 1995-07 A Walk Through the Old and New Testaments Norman Voisey, 2024-11-04 A Walk Through the Old and New Testaments is devotional at its core far from any theological treatise It provides insight into one's faith travels in the hope it will serve another It has been nurtured by our teachers such as Nahum Sarna Abraham Joshua Heschel Richard Foster and others It is peppered with salient passages from the great hymns of the church This book cannot avoid references to the many witnesses before us in our families who have stretched over the globe to reach others in Christ's name It can start your day serve as evening vespers or be within your reach at any point The word of God ties together As we read the streams of water that brings life in Psalm 2 we find the river of life in Revelation 22 The word of God is honest In Matthew's genealogy it states that Solomon's mother was Uriah's wife It does not avoid David's sin It lists Rahab in the line a prostitute In the story of Jesus' birth it allows you to see the embarrassment it caused to Joseph who wanted to divorce her Herod sent the Magi to search out the baby Jesus When they reached him they fell and worshiped him But they never returned to Herod with their report They went back to their own country another way When you meet Jesus you never want to go back to Herod About the Author Norman Voisey completed forty years of service in the Salvation Army He was a trustee and also served in that capacity for three of their hospitals His application to reserve Section 8 funding for senior housing in Cincinnati was secured for their Booth Residence Voisey was educated in Canada but also in the United States at Pace University and Case Western Reserve University Voisey is an avid reader of Judaic thought and a student of spiritual and literary greats Cynthia Ozick and Elie Wiesel He leans heavily toward nonfiction but classic novels continue to be part of his agenda His other interests are genealogy music and the arts Voisey is close to confirming his Huguenot background they were driven from France to John Calvin's Geneva and on from there Connecting the Dots in World History, A Teacher's Literacy Based Curriculum Chris Edwards, 2015-11-10 In his previously written articles and books Chris Edwards has argued that Teaching should be considered a field that is separate from both the field of Education and from the content area fields Teaching is a field which synthesizes content and method for classroom application All of the other major intellectual fields have a canon of works which practitioners can learn from and add to but Teaching does not The Connecting the Dots in World History A Teacher's Literacy Based Curriculum series changes this by showing how effective a teacher-generated curriculum can be These books can inspire other teachers to create their own curriculums and inspire a change in the way that the public views teachers and teaching The Shaping of Western Civilization, Volume I Michael Burger, 2013-12-16 Michael Burger's goal in this inexpensive overview is to provide a brief historical narrative of Western civilization Not only does its length and price separate this text from the competition but its no frills uncluttered format and well written one authored approach make it a valuable asset for every history student The Shaping of Western Civilization From Antiquity to the Mid Eighteenth Century begins with the ancient Near East and ends with the mid eighteenth century Unlike other textbooks that pile on dates and facts Shaping is a more coherent and interpretive presentation Burger s skills as writer and synthesizer will enable students to obtain the background required to ask meaningful questions of primary sources In addition to suggestions for further reading this overview includes over 40 images and 14 maps

Masculinity in the Reformation Era Scott E. Hendrix, Susan C. Karant-Nunn, 2008-05-01 These essays add a unique perspective to studies that reconstruct the identity of manhood in early modern Europe including France Switzerland Spain and Germany The authors examine the ways in which sixteenth and seventeenth century authorities both secular and religious labored to turn boys and men into the Christian males they desired Topics include disparities among gender paradigms that early modern models prescribed and the tension between the patriarchal model and the civic duties that men were expected to fulfill Essays about Martin Luther a prolific self witness look into the marriage relationship with its expected and actual gender roles Contributors to this volume are Scott H Hendrix Susan C Karant Nunn Raymond A Mentzer Allyson M Poska Helmut Puff Karen E Spierling Ulrike Strasser B Ann Tlusty and Merry E Wiesner Hanks

Trinity and Organism James Eglinton, 2012-03-29 This book explores the organic motif found throughout the writings of the Dutch Calvinist theologian Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 Noting that Bavinck uses this motif at key points in the most important loci of theology Christology general and special revelation ecclesiology and so forth it seems that one cannot read him carefully without particular attention to his motif of choice the organic By examining the sense in which Bavinck views all of reality as a beautiful balance of unity in diversity James Eglinton draws the reader to Bavinck s constant concern for the doctrine of God as Trinity If God is the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit Bavinck argues the creation must be more akin to an organism than a machine Trinity and organism are thus closely linked concepts Eglinton critiques and rejects the two Bavincks one orthodox and the other modern hermeneutic so commonplace in discussions of Bavinck s theology Instead this book argues for a reunited Herman Bavinck as a figure committed to the participation of historic orthodox theology in the modern world

Shaping the New World Eric Guest Nellis, Canadian Historical Association, 2013-01-01 Shaping the New World introduces students to the origins growth and consolidation of African slavery in the Americas and race based slavery s impact on the

Not only does its length and price separate this text from the competition but its no frills uncluttered format and well written one authored approach make it a valuable asset for every history student. The Shaping of Western Civilization From the Reformation to the Present begins with the Reformation and ends with globalization. Unlike other textbooks that pile on dates and facts Shaping is a more coherent and interpretive presentation. Burger's skills as writer and synthesizer will enable students to obtain the background required to ask meaningful questions of primary sources. In addition to suggestions for further reading this overview includes over 20 images and 11 maps.

Devilry, Deviance, and Public Sphere Christopher Hamerton, 2022-11-21 Devilry Deviance and Public Sphere draws on criminology and social theory to explore and expand social historical themes in the analysis of perceptions of deviance and crime in the eighteenth century. Developing the theoretical device of Folk Devils and Moral Panics instigated by Stanley Cohen and developed by Erich Goode and Nachman Ben Yehuda the book explores the social discovery of and public response to crime and deviance in that period. Detailed contemporary case studies of youth violence sexual deviance and substance abuse are used to argue that Hanoverian London and its novel media can be identified as the initiating historical site for what might now be termed public order moral panics. In doing so Hamerton provides a vivid historical lineage of moral panic which traverses much of the long eighteenth century. The book considers social change allowing for points of theoretical convergence and divergence to be observed whilst exploring historical models of public opinion media deviance and crime alongside the unique character and power located within the burgeoning Metropolis. Devilry Deviance and Public Sphere seeks to make an important contribution to the understanding of both moral panic theory and the historiography of crime and deviance and posits that the current discourse on folk devils and moral panics can be extended and enriched via the exploration of the moral crises of earlier centuries
