The Magic Shop Ishiqaa Mishra,2022-07-30 When we say memories the instant thought which arises in our brain is the happy days of our lives Those happy days which we have spent with our favourite person But is it always about the person and not about the place And if it is so what if that cherished place of yours becomes the reason of your torment Shama is a 25 years old girl living her life at the country side She owns a little bookstore The magic shop which is her forever comfort place and also the source of her lively hood It has been eight long years since she has stepped into the town The town which once used to be her most cherished place has now left her with no reasons to return back One common day while she is on her way to close her book store she finds a diary into the crowd of several books The diary belongs to her good old days of the town Those days when she used to enjoy every single moment of her school days with her friends and love Turning those pages she is reminded of her past days and there where the story begins The Novella The Magic Shop is a fusion of the present and the past The whole of the story is a reflection of the past happenings which connects the present You have to be a little attentive while reading to make out which past incidence is relating to its present scene indicates the termination of the present tale and excites the reader for the beginning of the history

Pigs, Poultry and Poo Jason Gibbs, 2012-10-01 Pigs Poultry and Poo is the story of two people who change their lives and discover a whole new world Their first step is a move from living and working in the city to rural life and a two hour commute Over the five years recounted in the book they mature from feckless beginners to hardened country folk shedding only the occasional tear when an animal dies Their animal adventures start with a cat before they move on to goats and then chickens Slowly building confidence they haphazardly add cows pigs alpacas geese and ducks to their smallholding before reaching a limit On their journey they discover that cats like to sleep that goats are poor predictors of the weather and that there is a serious possibility that a cow could jump over the moon They pick up new skills such as fencing which they get to practise again and again as various animals helpfully demonstrate where they have gone wrong There is occasionally the semblance of a plan but often events overtake the couple and they have to learn to be resilient in the face of adversity The animals have plenty of character from the nervous goat and the grumpy cow to the randy pig Looking after animals is often not easy but at least for one newly countrified pair it s deeply satisfying
