Mahmud Shaltut And Islamic Modernism:

Mahmud Shaltut and Islamic modernism Kate Zebiri,1996 Maḥmūd Shaltūt and Islamic Modernism Kate Zebiri, Lecturer in Arabic and Islamic Studies at the School of Oriental and African Studies Kate Zebiri,1993 This is the first detailed study of the life and thought of Shaykh Mahmud Shaltut 1897 1963 Shaltut was an Egyptian scholar and reformer who held the most senior position open to Sunni Muslim religious scholars that of Rector of the Azhar University in Cairo His period of office 1958 63 was a turbulent time in Egypt and within the Azhar itself with President Nasser's socialist government initiating a radical reorganization of that institution in accordance with its policy of exerting greater control over the forces of Islam in Egypt One of the most popular and progressive Rectors of the Azhar in recent times his writings have received extremely wide readership throughout the Muslim world They reflect both his traditional religious background and his great concern with the contemporary problems of Muslims thus providing an insight into some of the tensions which arise in the confrontation with modernity In his important work in the areas of Islamic jurisprudence and Qur'anic commentary he strove to demystify Islamic scholarship and make its fruits available to ordinary Muslims He issued fatwas on a wide range of topics of particular relevance in the modern age such as financial transactions and family planning By focusing on the work of an essentially traditional religious scholar this study will fill a serious gap in modern Islamic studies Set against the wider context of the cultural and revolutionary changes of Egypt at this time it will also provide valuable insights for students charting the development of the modern Middle East

A Comparative History of Catholic and Aṣ'arī Theologies of Truth and Salvation Mohammed Gamal Abdelnour,2021-05-25 In A Comparative History of Catholic and Aṣ'arī Theologies of Truth and Salvation Mohammed Gamal Abdelnour analytically and critically compares the historical development of the Catholic theologies of truth and salvation with those of its Islamic counterpart Aṣ'arism The monograph moves the discussion from individual theologians to theological schools with a view to helping consolidate the young field of Comparative Theology It serves two types of readers First the specialist who wants to dig deeper into the two traditions parallelly Second the generalist who may not have the time to become thoroughly familiar with every aspect of Christian Muslim theologies Both readers will come out with a holistic understanding of the development of Christian and Muslim theologies of truth and salvation a holistic understanding that increases the appetite of the former and quenches that of the latter Despite the holistic nature of the monograph attention is duly paid to the specificities of each tradition in a deep and profound manner

Rethinking Islamic Legal Modernism Ron Shaham,2018-07-10 In Rethinking Islamic Legal Modernism Ron Shaham challenges the common opinion that Islamic legal modernism as represented by Rashid Rida d 1935 is of poor intellectual quality and should not be considered an authentic development within Islamic law The book focuses on the celebrated Sunni jurist Yusuf al Qaradawi b 1926 whom Shaham perceives as a close follower of Rida By studying the coherence of Qaradawi's Wasati theory of ijtihad and the consistency of its application in his legal opinions fatwas Shaham argues that Qaradawi by means of eclecticism and synthesis conducts a bold dialogue with the Islamic juristic heritage and brings it to bear on modern developments in particular the institutional framework of the nation state Maḥmūd Shaltūt and Islamic Modernism Kate Zebiri, A detailed study of the life and times of Shaykh Mahmud Shaltut an Egyptian scholar and reformer who held the most senior position open to Sunni Muslim scholars that of Rector of the Azhar University Cairo His achievements are placed in the context of a turbulent political period The Legitimacy of Use of Force in Public and Islamic International Law Mohammad Z. Sabuj, 2021-06-22 This book investigates the legitimacy deficits of two potentially conflicting legal systems namely Public and Islamic international law It discusses the challenges that Public international law is being presented within the context of its relationship with Islamic international law It explores how best to overcome these challenges through a comparative examination of state practices on the use of force It highlights the legal political legacies that evolved surrounding the claims of the legitimacy of use of force by armed non state actors states and regional organizations This book offers a critical analysis of these legacies in line with the Islamic Shari a law United Nations Charter state practices and customs It concludes that the legitimacy question has reached a vantage point where it cannot be answered either by Islamic or Public international law as a mutually exclusive legal system Instead Public international law must take a coherent approach within the existing legal framework An Islamic Reformation? Michaelle Browsers, Charles Kurzman, 2004-01-01 This book brings together scholars with expertise in modern Islamic thought and practice to evaluate the claim that we are witnessing something tantamount to an Islamic Reformation by assessing the character and impact of various reformist trends in the Middle East and North Africa Each chapter also addresses the question of the appropriateness and usefulness of comparisons between Christian and Islamic or Western and Eastern reformations Islamic Interpretations of Christianity Lloyd Ridgeon, 2013-09-13 Many books about Islam and Christianity are comparative however this book examines Christianity from an Islamic perspective Each chapter focuses upon theological philosophical and mystical issues which are as relevant today as they always have been in the Muslim Christian dialogue The book is divided into two sections the classical and modern periods thus the reader will benefit from a broad overview of the myriad Islamic interpretations of Christianity Reform and Modernity in Islam Safdar Ahmed, 2013-05-30 The debate over Islam and modernity tends to be approached from a Eurocentric perspective that presents Western norms as a template for progress against which Islamic societies can be measured This misses the historical development of Muslim reformist thought that actively engages with the world around it and seeks to reconfigure Islam within the diverse conditions of modernity Safdar Ahmed paints a complex and nuanced picture that goes beyond the idea that Muslim reformers have either reproduced or reacted against Western ideas Rather Ahmed argues they have reconstructed and appropriated these ideas and so the thread of Western influence runs through modern Islamic thought on nationalism and sovereignty femininity and gender Ahmed uncovers new historiographical perspectives by critically examining the work of prominent intellectuals

such as Muhammad Abduh Qasim Amin and Abdul A la Maududi Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilisation and Religion Ian Richard Netton,2013-12-19 The Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion provides scholarly coverage of the religion culture and history of the Islamic world at a time when that world is undergoing considerable change and is a focus of international study and debate The non Muslim world s perceptions of Islam have often tended to be dominated by unrepresentative radical extremist movements and media interpretations of events involving such movements to the extent that many people are unaware of the depth and variety of Islamic thought At the same time many who have had a formal training in Islamic studies have tended to concentrate on the traditional to the exclusion of the contemporary The Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion covers the full range of Islamic thought in historical depth but it also provides substantial coverage of contemporary trends across the Muslim world With well over a thousand entries on Islamic theology history arts science law and institutions and coverage of Islam in individual countries and cities around the world the Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion provides an extremely rich resource for students and researchers in religious studies and Middle Eastern studies Entries are cross referenced and bibliographies are provided There is a full index Routledge published The Qura n An Encyclopedia in 2005 an excellent companion to the Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion The Higher Objectives of Islamic Theology Mohammed Gamal Abdelnour,2022 In The Higher Objectives of Islamic Theology Mohammed Gamal Abdelnour introduces a new field of inquiry to the Islamic tradition by basing it on a scheme of core values Truth Justice Beauty instead of a scheme of hudud penalties arguing that the tradition s current overemphasis on law justice has relegated both theology truth and Sufism beauty to the periphery of the tradition

Brinton,2015-10-27 Preaching Islamic Renewal examines the life and work of Muhammad Mitwalli Sha rawi one of Egypt s most beloved and successful Islamic preachers His wildly popular TV program aired every Friday for years until his death in 1998 At the height of his career it was estimated that up to 30 million people tuned in to his show each week Yet despite his pervasive and continued influence in Egypt and the wider Muslim world Sha rawi was for a long time neglected by academics While much of the academic literature that focuses on Islam in modern Egypt repeats the claim that traditionally trained Muslim scholars suffered the loss of religious authority Sha rawi is instead an example of a well trained Sunni scholar who became a national media sensation As an advisor to the rulers of Egypt as well as the first Arab television preacher he was one of the most important and controversial religious figures in late twentieth century Egypt Thanks to the repurposing of his videos on television and on the Internet Sha rawi s performances are still regularly viewed Jacqueline Brinton uses Sha rawi and his work as a lens to explore how traditional

Weekly An introduction to Islam as evocative as it is provocative Kirkus Reviews Wise and passionate book New York Times Financial Times Best Book of the Year The Ulama in Contemporary Islam Muhammad Qasim Zaman, 2010-12-16 From the cleric led Iranian revolution to the rise of the Taliban in Afghanistan many people have been surprised by what they see as the modern reemergence of an antimodern phenomenon This book helps account for the increasingly visible public role of traditionally educated Muslim religious scholars the ulama across contemporary Muslim societies Muhammad Qasim Zaman describes the transformations the centuries old culture and tradition of the ulama have undergone in the modern era transformations that underlie the new religious and political activism of these scholars In doing so it provides a new foundation for the comparative study of Islam politics and religious change in the contemporary world While focusing primarily on Pakistan Zaman takes a broad approach that considers the Taliban and the ulama of Iran Egypt Saudi Arabia India and the southern Philippines He shows how their religious and political discourses have evolved in often unexpected but mutually reinforcing ways to redefine and enlarge the roles the ulama play in society Their discourses are informed by a longstanding religious tradition of which they see themselves as the custodians But these discourses are equally shaped by and contribute in significant ways to contemporary debates in the Muslim public sphere This book offers the first sustained comparative perspective on the ulama and their increasingly crucial religious and political activism It shows how issues of religious authority are debated in contemporary Islam how Islamic law and tradition are continuously negotiated in a rapidly changing world and how the ulama both react to and shape larger Islamic social trends Introducing previously unexamined facets of religious and political thought in modern Islam it clarifies the complex processes of religious change unfolding in the contemporary Muslim world and goes a long way toward explaining their vast social and political ramifications

Reading Darwin in Arabic, 1860-1950 Marwa Elshakry, 2014-01-06 In Reading Darwin in Arabic Marwa Elshakry questions current ideas about Islam science and secularism by exploring the ways in which Darwin was read in Arabic from the late 1860s to the mid twentieth century Borrowing from translation and reading studies and weaving together the history of science with intellectual history she explores Darwin s global appeal from the perspective of several generations of Arabic readers and shows how Darwin s writings helped alter the social and epistemological landscape of the Arab learned classes Providing a close textual political and institutional analysis of the tremendous interest in Darwin s ideas and other works on evolution Elshakry shows how in an age of massive regional and international political upheaval these readings were suffused with the anxieties of empire and civilizational decline The politics of evolution infiltrated Arabic discussions of pedagogy progress and the very sense of history They also led to a literary and conceptual transformation of notions of science and religion themselves Darwin thus became a vehicle for discussing scriptural exegesis the conditions of belief and cosmological views more broadly The book also acquaints readers with Muslim and Christian intellectuals bureaucrats and theologians and concludes by exploring Darwin s waning influence on public and intellectual life in the Arab world after World War I Reading
