Raising Money For Academic And Research Libraries:

Raising Money for Academic and Research Libraries Barbara I. Dewey, 1991 Fundraising plays an increasingly large role in the day to day life of the library and the librarian Here it receives a comprehensive treatment Chapters deal with basics like the components of a strategic development plan working with friends groups annual giving strategies possible donor constituencies and communications and media relations Other topics include actual campaign methodologies grants opportunities and the foundations connection Development personnel and a resource list round out this guide Donors and Archives Aaron D. Purcell, 2015-02-12 Donor work and fundraising is essential for any vibrant archival program Without new collections and new funding archives programs can stagnate and their operations can become vulnerable to economic downturns Archivists spend a lot of time managing collections other archivists and researchers in their reading rooms but often not enough time considering the stuff that makes up their collections where that stuff comes from and how that stuff and the sources of that stuff can be valuable tools for advocacy promotion and fundraising for their archival programs Donors and Archives A Guidebook for Successful Programs reviews the complex landscape of donor work archival donations and institutional fundraising for today s archivists It provides practical approaches to enhance donor relations for all types of archival programs such as academic government private and corporate archives The book covers the planning the process and the partners needed for successful donations and donor programs Arranged into four sections the book offers practical advice and best practices in a number of areas including how donations work who donates to archives how to prepare for donors how to evaluate and manage the stuff from potential donors how to work with an institution s development office what are the obligations and expectations of archivists and donors how to develop donor strategies how to work with friends and supporters of the archives program what happens after the donation is complete and what is the overall value of donors to archival programs Donors and Archives A Guidebook for Successful Programs highlights the importance of development and fundraising for archives while focusing on the donor and potential donor Their interest their support their enthusiasm and their stuff are vital to the success of archival programs Archivists involved in donor work and fundraising will find the practical advice and best practices in this book applicable replicable timely and valuable Fundraising for Academic Libraries Karlene Noel Jennings, Joyce Garczynski, 2020-06-15 With more universities facing financial difficulty and academic libraries being asked to do more with less fundraising has been transformed from a luxury to a necessity Now more than ever academic libraries need to know how to effectively obtain and steward donors Most fundraising books are written from perspectives that are not always relevant to the complex environment that academic libraries must navigate Fundraising for Academic Libraries A Practical Guide for Librarian is written just for academic libraries The authors demystify fundraising to enable those to work in an academic library to feel confident in their ability to obtain contributions sponsorships and grants for their libraries From major gifts to events to special collections this book looks at academic library fundraising holistically

Not a one size fits all approach chapters explore multiple methods that an academic library can use to identify potential donors ask for gifts and retain existing contributors This book also connects readers with extensive fundraising resources so they can readily apply the book s tips and techniques to their own library environment Whether they are interested in approaching a local business to provide a prize for a silent auction or asking for an established donor for an estate gift novice academic library fundraisers will find step by step instructions that help them navigate a variety of situations By providing readers with practical fundraising tools including flow charts simple proposal and gift templates as well as sample donor correspondence this book enables academic libraries to be able to start and advance their own development programs

Advances in Library Administration and Organization Delmus E. Williams,Janine Golden,2012-12-05 The book will examine the challenges that working administrators face and discusses how to enable them to look more closely at their operations and to reconsider how to develop people and the organizations in which they work As in previous volumes of Advances in Library Administration and Organization the studies outlined in the chapters of Vo Fundraising Joyce V. Garczynski,2017-10-30 Fundraising How to Raise Money for Your Library Using Social Media introduces the phenomena that many members supporters and fundraisers are not using social media to fundraise for their libraries and may not be aware of its strengths and pitfalls The book discusses why social media should be used to fundraise and how to successfully employ social media campaigns also providing examples from library funding initiatives that libraries can follow Since social media changes relatively quickly library staff members supporters and fundraisers need up to date information on how to craft messages for the platforms that they use This book presents less on best practices for specific social media platform focusing more on library social media fundraising strategies that have been found to be effective for example how libraries have successfully created fundraising campaigns with hashtags Discusses why social media should be used to fundraise Outlines how to successfully employ social media to fundraise Presents examples from successful library funding campaigns via social media that other libraries can follow Academic Library Fundraising Benchmarks Primary Research Group,2014 The 115 page study looks closely at the fundraising practices and results of a sample of North American colleges and universities providing detailed data and analysis on funds raised through grants annual fund drives wills bequests and legacy rights sale of books and other intellectual property through efforts of friend of the library groups events and fundraisers and online campaigns and endowments among other vehicles It helps its readers to answer questions such as how are libraries raising money What percentage of academic libraries have their own development staff What has been the impact of online campaigns How effective are Friends of the Library groups What percentage of grant revenue comes from corporations How many special fundraising events do academic libraries hold each year Library and Information Science Michael F. Bemis,2014-03-03 This unique annotated bibliography is a complete up to date guide to sources of information on library science covering recent books monographs periodicals and websites and selected works of historical importance In addition to compiling an invaluable list of sources Bemis digs deeper examining the strengths and weaknesses of key works A boon to researchers and practitioners alike this bibliography Includes coverage of subjects as diverse and vital as the history of librarianship its development as a profession the ethics of information science cataloging reference work and library architecture Encompasses encyclopedias dictionaries directories photographic surveys statistical publications and numerous electronic sources all categorized by subject Offers appendixes detailing leading professional organizations and publishers of library and information science literature This comprehensive bibliography of English language resources on librarianship the only one of its kind will prove invaluable to scholars students and anyone working in the field Global Perspectives on Sustainable Library Practices Okojie, Victoria,Igbinovia, Magnus Osahon,2022-10-28 Libraries as social and service based institutions are constantly seeking innovative and effective ways to meet the needs of their users and maintain relevance amidst alternative information sources They are constantly adjusting to meet the needs of users contribute to the personal development of users and alight with national development All of these have placed a burden on libraries to engage in sustainable practices both to increase their capacity to drive current developmental endeavors and to sustain future relevance Global Perspectives on Sustainable Library Practices provides a rich and robust knowledge resource that brings together diverse sustainable library practices that will revamp library operations towards optimally meeting the current objectives of libraries as a developmental institution as well as sustaining value for future operations and service transactions Covering topics such as access efficacy green space development and library service delivery this premier reference source is an essential resource for librarians library administrators educators and administration of both K 12 and higher education students of library sciences pre service teachers researchers and academicians Library Fundraising Dwight Burlingame,1995 A guide that provides successful fundraising examples for all types of libraries It includes practical information on what worked what didn t and what could work better and offers an insider s look at profitable development programs from a diverse mix of libraries The contributors of these scenarios come from various backgrounds and levels of fundraising expertise Library developers should find it easy to adapt these multiple perspectives to their own fundraising environment Managing Budgets and Finances Arlita Hallam,Teresa R. Dalston,2005 This budgeting manual another in the Neal Schuman group of How To Do It guides offers the new or seasoned library administrators board members department heads or finance professionals a way to budget carefully and clearly by offering a variety of strategies definitions and suggestions The manual is divided into three parts basics for librarians special topics in financial management for libraries and alternative library funding Each chapter is divided into an overview subtopic and a summary Definitions of terms examples of reports sources and detailed steps in budget preparation are just some of the helpful aspects of this book More Than a Thank You Note Kimberly Thompson,Karlene Jennings,2009-03-30 This book provides a friendly lively discussion of the role of academic library fund raising written by two experienced library fund raisers Short stand alone chapters with summary paragraphs Practical personal success hints throughout Proven fundraising ideas Successful Library Fundraising M. Sandra Wood, 2014-07-24 Obtaining the funding to maintain and grow library services and resources has always been a challenge Successful Library Fundraising Best Practices brings together a wealth of information from public academic special and school libraries who share their successful approaches to raising funds through a variety of traditional and outside the box methods Library development cultivating donors Endowments Corporate financing Special events Friends groups and volunteers Grants and more Fundraising is critical in today's economic climate Tips and ideas from this volume will help library professionals gain confidence to begin a fundraising program or improve their current fundraising activities Successful Fundraising Meredith A. Butler, 2001 The primary purpose of this book is to assist library directors and those who want to become fundraisers for libraries to learn more about fundraising and find answers to their questions The 12 case studies presented in this book address issues of building a major gift program developing library capital campaigns competing for National Endowment for the Humanities Challenge Grants and Kresge Foundation Challenge Grants building library endowments finding support for technology and innovation and library renovation raising funds for a new library attracting donors through special collections programs and raising money for international library associations The book also provides information on the reasons why college and university presidents like to raise money for their libraries Finally the book provides an extensive annotated bibliography of the last decades of literature on library fundraising AEF Successful Fundraising for the Academic Library Kathryn Dilworth, Laura Sloop Henzl, 2016-10-07 Successful Fundraising for the Academic Library Philanthropy in Higher Education covers fundraising a task that is often grouped into a combination role that may include for example the university museum or performance venue thus diluting the opportunity for successful fundraising Because the traditional model for higher education fundraising entails the cultivation of alumni from specific departments and colleges the library is traditionally left out often becoming a low performing development area with smaller appropriations for fundraising positions Most higher education development professionals consider the library fundraising position a stepping stone into another position with higher pay and more potential for professional advancement down the road rather than as a focus for their career However for universities that invest in development professionals who know how to leverage the mission of libraries to the larger alumni and friend community the results include innovative and successful approaches to messaging that resonates with donors This book provides information that applies to all fundraising professionals and academic leaders looking to strengthen their programs with philanthropic support even those beyond university libraries Makes the case for university libraries as a viable avenue for donor engagement that translates to all academic areas of higher education fundraising Highlights the importance of collaborative relationships and fundraising strategies with academic leaders donors and fundraising staff Outlines strategies that have resulted in fundraising success for academic and research libraries at universities of varying size and culture Selected

Acquisitions of the Library Indiana University, Bloomington. Law Library, 1992 The Entrepreneurial Librarian Mary Krautter, Mary Beth Lock, Mary G. Scanlon, 2014-01-10 The old image of an entrepreneur as a scrappy independent risk taker has been replaced by the reality of individuals incorporating innovative ideas in more traditional settings This collection of essays illustrates how librarians are infusing entrepreneurial principles in a variety of arenas including public private academic and special libraries It chronicles how entrepreneurial librarians are flourishing in the digital age advocating social change responding to patron demands designing new services and developing exciting fundraising programs Applying new business models to traditional services they eagerly embrace entrepreneurship in response to patrons demands funding declines changing resource formats and other challenges By documenting the current state of entrepreneurship in libraries this volume upends the public image of librarians as ill suited to risky or creative ventures and places them instead on the cutting edge of innovations in the field Running a Small Library John A. Moorman, 2006 How can a small library with a few or even one staff members and very limited resources be managed successfully Learn the issues facing all types of small libraries Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent, 2002-06-04 This supplement covers topics ranging from academic library funding to visual information querying Becoming a Fundraiser Victoria Steele, Stephen D. Elder, 1992 This award winning time proven reference is designed to help you to keep pace in a rapidly changing environment You ll learn how to bring your development and fundraising skills up to speed in a relatively quick and painless way and how to channel the passion of your work into a powerful voice of advocacy so that your institution can benefit
