Swann, 2017-07-07 The creation of humankind in the Image of God is perhaps the most foundational tenet of theological anthropology yet it is rarely understood in the fullness of what it represents Too often focus is placed on the divine image as a condition A study of the Scriptures suggests that it is better understood not as a condition but rather as a commission of humanity to a role specifically a priestly role This book delves into the recognition that the Image of God is nothing less than a divine commission over all of humanity to serve as priests within the temple of creation It examines not only the creation of humankind as a priesthood in the opening chapters of Genesis but also the echoes of this anthropological interpretation throughout the Scriptures and the resulting ramifications for future biblical and theological studies
