Best Books for Children, Preschool Through Grade 6 ,2006 Best Books for Children Catherine Barr,2006 Contains more than 25 000 titles of books recommended for children in grades K 6 The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books ,1996 From Edward Brooke to Barack Obama Dennis S. Nordin,2012-06-25 In 2008 American history was forever changed with the election of Barack Obama the United States first African American president However Obama was far from the first African American to run for a public office or to face the complexities of race in a political campaign For over a century offices ranging from city mayor to state senator have been filled by African Americans making race a factor in many elections In From Edward Brooke to Barack Obama Dennis S Nordin navigates the history of biracial elections by examining the experiences of a variety of African American politicians from across the country revealing how voters both black and white respond to the issue of race in an election The idea to compare the African American political experience across several levels of office first occurred to Nordin as he was researching Arthur W Mitchell s 1934 congressional campaign The question of white voter support was of particular significance as was whether the continuation of that support depended upon his avoiding minority issues in office To begin answering these questions and others Nordin compares the experiences of eleven African American politicians Taken from across the country to ensure a wide sample and accurate depiction of the subject the case studies examined include Tom Bradley mayor of Los Angeles David Dinkins mayor of New York Freeman Bosley Jr mayor of St Louis Senator Edward Brooke of Massachusetts Senator Carol Moseley Braun of Illinois Governor L Douglas Wilder of Virginia and Representative J C Watts Jr of Oklahoma among others As Nordin analyzes these individuals and their contribution to the whole he concludes that biracial elections in the United States have yet to progress beyond race From Edward Brooke to Barack Obama investigates the implications of race in politics a highly relevant topic in today s American society It offers readers a chronological overview of the progress made over the last several decades as well as shows where there is room for growth in the political arena By taking a pertinent topic for the era and placing it in the context of history Nordin successfully chronicles the roles of race and race relations in American politics To Make the Wounded Whole Lewis V. Baldwin, To Make the Wounded Whole describes how King s black messianic vision propelled him into fateful encounters with other black leaders the war in Vietnam black theology and world liberation movements A Coach's Guide to Maximizing the Youth Sport Experience Mary Fry,Lori Gano-Overway,Marta Guivernau,Mi-Sook Kim,Maria Newton,2019-09-23 This book guides sport coaches parents and administrators in creating a caring and task involving sport climate that helps athletes perform their best and have an enjoyable and meaningful sport experience It introduces the concept of a caring and task involving climate and provides a how to guide to creating this climate in sport Firstly this guide introduces the caring and task involving climate and summarizes research highlighting its many benefits Secondly the five features of this climate are presented along with the reflective exercises for developing them within a team Coaches will see strategies in action sample conversations and a variety of ways to implement the features of a caring and task involving experience By describing how it may be implemented and methods for overcoming possible challenges this book finally highlights how parents and sport administrators can support the creation and preservation of caring and task involving climates By helping teams develop caring climates that optimize athletes sport experience and performance this book is essential reading for coaches sport administrators parents and sport psychology practitioners It will also be of great interest to those who have minimal training in sport psychology but who are involved in sport at many levels such as youth and high school

Sehgal,2010-05-11 A civil rights legend offers advice to a new generation in this fascinating collaboration with his godson Provided by publisher On The Road Again Albert Parnell,2024-08-14 Eighty two years ago in a small apartment in Alexandria Virginia a boy with big dreams was born In this wild but true story of a street smart kid looking for opportunities amid a WWII torn America On the Road Again shows what perseverance risk and ingenuity can accomplish even when the deck is stacked against you It demonstrates a powerful theology that self belief and determination can overcome incredible and defying obstacles Albert Parnell s engaging memoir tells the incredible story of how a high school party boy rose to become a nationally recognized toxic tort asbestos defense trial lawyer having graduated last in his high school class and how an odyssey of odd jobs and big breaks led to a maverick in the making from tractor trailer truck driver to pool shark to civil rights activist to Atlanta bookie to Las Vegas high stakes poker player to restauranter to national lecturer to Tik Tok social media mentor Travel back in time and see how this fun loving forever party boy from nowhere grew to own every bar and courtroom he entered building an empire that existed everywhere American Social Leaders and Activists Neil A. Hamilton,2014-05-14 Profiles more than 285 men and women who fought for social reform and influenced American history

They Walked to Freedom 1955-1956 Kenneth M. Hare,2005 This book features interviews with participants dozens of photographs from the time and key historical documents chronicling the Montgomery Bus Boycott that set the stage for the modern Civil Rights Era Seen It All and Done the Rest Pearl Cleage,2009-02-24 For Josephine Evans home was on the stages of the world where she spent thirty years establishing herself as one of the finest actresses of her generation Josephine was the toast of Europe and her fabulous apartment in Amsterdam s theater district was a popular gathering place for an international community of artists actors and expatriates who considered themselves true citizens of the world Josephine lived above and beyond the reach of conventional definitions of who and what an African American diva could be and her legions of loyal fans loved her for it She had a perfect life and enough sense to live it to the hilt but then a war she didn't fully understand turned everything upside down thrusting her into a role she never wanted and was not prepared to play Suddenly the target of angry protests aimed at the country she had never really felt was her own Josephine is forced to return to America to see if she can create a new definition of home Camping out with her granddaughter Zora who is housesitting in Atlanta's West End and trying to avoid the unwanted attentions of Dig It the city's brand new gossip magazine Josephine struggles to reclaim her old life even as she scrambles to shape her new one Hoping her friend Howard Denmond is as good as his word when he promises to engineer her triumphant return to the European stage Josephine sets out to increase her nest egg by selling the house her mother willed her only to find the long neglected property has become home to squatters who have no intention of leaving But an unexpected reunion with an old friend offers Josephine a chance to set things right Spurning an offer from unscrupulous land developer Greer Woodruff Josephine gathers new friends around her including Victor Causey a lawyer whose addictions left him homeless but still determined to protect his mother Louie Baptiste a displaced New Orleans chef hoping to return to the city he loves and Aretha Hargrove recovering from her role in the same scandal that sent Zora running for cover As Greer gets serious about her plan to tear the community apart Josephine finds herself playing the most important role of her life showing her neighbors what courage really is and learning the true meaning of coming home

Black Political Organizations in the Post-Civil Rights Era Ollie Johnson, Karin Stanford, 2002-12-16 We know a great deal about civil rights organizations during the 1960s but relatively little about black political organizations since that decade Questions of focus accountability structure and relevance have surrounded these groups since the modern Civil Rights Movement ended in 1968 Political scientists Ollie A Johnson III and Karin L Stanford have assembled a group of scholars who examine the leadership membership structure goals ideology activities accountability and impact of contemporary black political organizations and their leaders Questions considered are How have these organizations adapted to the changing sociopolitical and economic environment What ideological shifts if any have occurred within each one What issues are considered important to black political groups and what strategies are used to implement their agendas The contributors also investigate how these organizations have adapted to changes within the black community and American society as a whole Organizations covered include well known ones such as the NAACP Rainbow PUSH Coalition the Southern Christian Leadership Conference the Urban League and the Congress of Racial Equality as well as organizations such as the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs Religious groups including black churches and the Nation of Islam are also considered
