Ram Chanders Story:

God's Dog: Memories, Confessions, Dreams & Revelations of a Modern Mystic William Schindler, 2016-02-13 This is the extraordinary true tale of a middle class gay American's path to encounters with the Great Mystery that is God's Self. The way to the Great Unknown was intricately intertwined with his humanity with all its foibles and with human relationships. Therefore this story has to include those relationships revealing ultimately how a one's personal identity and relationships become vehicles for enlightenment. This inspiring account of struggle, travel to exotic lands, suffering and transcendence holds out hope for anyone who has ever felt outcast, broken or unworthy, demonstrating for our modern times that enlightenment lies within reach of us all.

A Life in Words Ismat Chughtai, 2013-07-15 A Life in Words the first complete translation of Ismat Chughtai's celebrated memoir Kaghazi hai Pairahan provides a delightful account of several crucial years of her life. Alongside vivid descriptions of her childhood years are the conflicted experiences of growing up in a large Muslim family during the early decades of the twentieth century. Chughtai is searingly honest about her fight to get an education and the struggle to find her own voice as a writer. The result is a compellingly readable memoir by one of the most significant Urdu writers of all time.

Struggling with Destiny in Karimpur, 1925-1984 Susan S. Wadley, 2023-07-28 Susan Wadley first visited Karimpur, the village behind mud walls made famous by William and Charlotte Wiser as a graduate student in 1967. She returned often, adding her observations and experiences to the Wisers' field notes from the 1920s and 1930s. In this long-awaited book, Wadley gives us a work of unprecedented scope: a portrait of an Indian village as it has changed over a sixty-year period. She hears of changes in agriculture, labor relations, education and the family. But Karimpur's residents do not speak with one voice in describing the ways their lives have changed; viewpoints vary considerably depending on the speaker's gender, economic status and caste. Using cultural documents such as songs and stories as well as data on household budgets and farming practices, Wadley examines what it means to be poor or rich, female or male. She demonstrates that the forms of subordination prescribed for women are paralleled by those prescribed for lower castes. Villagers also speak of political struggles in India and of the importance of religion when confronting change. Their stories, songs and life histories reveal the rich fabric of Karimpur and show how much can be learned from listening to its people. Susan Wadley first visited Karimpur, the village behind mud walls made famous by William and Charlotte Wiser as a graduate student in 1967. She returned often, adding her observations and experiences to the Wisers' field notes from the 1920s and 1930s.

Narratives Across Borders Manju Jaidka, 2016-04-26 This volume is centred around the idea that the aim of literature is to build bridges to bring people together and to highlight underlying similarities despite the apparent differences in world literatures. As such, the book focuses on the moral purpose of literature and its tendency to overcome divisive forces. It supports the idea of cosmopolitanism, a reworking of the ancient Indian ideal of Vasudhaiva Kuttumbakam or 'the world is my home', a concept close to the African notion of ubuntu which refers to an open society as against a small, enclosed one and relates to the essence of being human and working for the benefit of a larger community The book uses examples from texts across geographical and cultural borders beginning with classics like the Indian epics the Panchatantra the Kathasaritsagar and the Arabian Nights before moving on to contemporary texts in the age of information technology Although these may originate against diverse backdrops they have a commonality that cannot be denied The stories we tell the tales we love to hear and repeat all share certain features which reach out across boundaries of time and space thus bridging the gap between people and places Living in today s globalized world there is a need to study literature in a broader perspective and to be aware that though stories may be rooted in a particular time and place they are still a part of the world heritage and comprise what is called world literature The book will be of particular interest to scholars studying the art of storytelling as well as the lay reader passionate about literature

The Devalaya Review ,1920 A Tale of a Married Life and Other Stories Shukdeb Sen,2025-05-05 The stories highlighted the chronic social condition of the elderly in America and perhaps in all developed countries where much of the population lives in a condition of neglect Their own families push them into a society of elderly care where care may be inadequate Artificial Intelligence AI created a humanoid that might be a more effective helper or caregiver for elderly people compared to human caregivers particularly to eliminate loneliness and boredom Broken Flute is a story about the cultural influence of arranged marriages in India and some of their inherent pitfalls Beatrice is a poignant tale of a woman s desire to be a mother which is much more powerful than the physical sexual and spiritual bonding between two women partners In the story Shikar Kanchan a man with developmental disabilities reveals true love and its essence to his wife Kajol and everyone searching for it In Secrets of Pontorson Shukanta Roy discovered a secret that helped the Allied Army launch a D Day attack on the German Army The story Tentacles of PTSD opened the impact of post traumatic stress disorder on the minds and spirits of American servicemen who were wounded during the Iraq War In the story Coincident the author experiences a dream while staying at Pontorson France In the story Quest for a Simple Life the arranged marriage between Saurav and Laxmi becomes strained even though both want to live a simple life However the meaning of simple life differed by almost 180 degrees A Tale of a Married Life is a love story between Pankaj and Kabita Addiction to alcohol and drugs pushed Pankaj to near death but Kabita s unconditional love pulled him out of the inferno of death for many years Then the inevitable struck him down Pankaj left physically but his soul was inside the Alpha X1 to lean on and protect Kabita from boredom and loneliness
