Feminist Hollywood Christina Lane, 2000 Feminist Hollywood examines the differences between commercial cinema and counter cinema by focusing on the work of contemporary women directors who have entered Hollywood from the realm of independent filmmaking Christina Lane compares their early documentaries or avant garde films with their more mainstream endeavors as she explores the possibilities and limits of feminist expression within the male dominated industry of commercial filmmaking Feminist Hollywood incorporates interviews with directors Susan Seidelman Martha Coolidge Kathryn Bigelow Lizzie Borden Darnell Martin and Tamra Davis in an attempt to bridge the theory gap that often excludes women's professional experiences and makes false assumptions about how the industry operates Lane balances these firsthand accounts with cultural theory and an understanding of the current film industry in which the line between commercial and independent filmmaking has become blurred The timely and comprehensive nature of this volume will make it a welcome addition to the bookshelves of film scholars and amateur movie buffs alike
