Random Thoughts Jeff Martindale, 2002-12 随机思想 No.39, 2017-01-23 Wang Wen hsing is an internationally renowned modernist writer who has long been regarded by Taiwan writers as a bellwether of literary aesthetics His reputation rests on his devotion to an innovative literary language and writing style demonstrated primarily in his novels His persistent pursuit of an ideal style has challenged standard aesthetic views of Chinese literary language and conventional reading strategies He views writing much as he does painting music or any other art form while acknowledging the importance of content he foregrounds the form His fictional works therefore are not only pieces of creative writing but also creative artworks each word and sign should be appreciated like a musical note in a song or a brush stroke in a painting This ideal pushes him constantly to search out a more precise method to describe a specific subject and each new method he develops is added to the reservoir of Chinese rhetoric Due to his peculiar approach he writes extremely slowly During the past three decades he has been able to write only thirty some characters a day To date he has published twenty three short stories one novella three novels the second novel is in two volumes one one act play three volumes of essays and numerous poems prose works translations and pieces of criticism Routledge Companion to Ba Jin Chen Chang, Liu Tianyi, Chen Sihe, 2023-09-19 Exploring the creations of Ba Jin 1904 2005 one of the most significant writers in modern China this edited volume offers in depth discussions of the writer and his works from a global perspective to initiate and advance dialogues between the Chinese and English speaking scholarly communities The four sections of the book provide readers with a detailed biography and an overview of research on Ba Jin since the 1980s to reflect on the academic achievements of several generations in China In addition it includes a selected collection of articles from Korean German and French scholars These articles cover Ba Jin s life thoughts personality literary creation editing publishing and other aspects of the research This companion aims to provide an alternative lens for Chinese literature studies in a global context It will be an essential read to students and scholars of East Asian studies Chinese studies and those interested in modern Chinese literature Claude Simon Alina Cherry, 2016-08-16 Claude Simon Fashioning the Past by Writing the Present considers the aesthetic cultural and philosophical facets of a temporal paradox in the works of French novelist Claude Simon 1913 2005 and its broader implications for the study of narrative and for cultural and post modern theory This paradox emerges from the problematic representation of the past through an aesthetic rooted in an exclusive valorization of the present In his 1985 Nobel speech as well as on other numerous occasions Simon expressed a fascination with simultaneity through the provocative claim that he never wrote about the past but attempted to capture only what was happening during the writing process that is in the present of writing as he put it Simon s seemingly unambiguous claim raises significant issues and contradictions that become extensively apparent when the statement is considered in the light of his fictional works since these must be construed for the most part as explorations of the past In this study Alina Cherry propose to look at the tensions that arise from this paradox and examine the present of writing holistically that is both as a stylistic device and within the thematic context of Simon's works in order to assess its capacity for becoming an instrument of ontological and epistemological inquiry that can also intervene powerfully in the decisive philosophical and socio-political debates that have animated the cultural landscape of post-World War II France. Simon's vivid portrayals of suffering and devastation open new ways of understanding the impact of some of the most traumatic historical events of the twentieth century: the two World Wars and the Spanish Civil War. This impact is necessarily connected with a need to tell these events and to tell them in highly innovative ways, namely by creating a distinctive style that revolutionizes the outworn narrative traditions of a world whose very foundations have been shattered by the chaos of war and effectively undermines various institutions and dominant socio-cultural structures, revealing implicitly and explicitly a strong ethical vein.
