Deconstructing Sexuality in the Middle East Pinar Ilkkaracan, 2016-05-13 Exploring the contemporary dynamics of sexuality in the Middle East this volume offers an in depth and unique insight into this much contested and debated issue It focuses on the role of sexuality in political and social struggles and the politicization of sexuality and gender in the region Contributors illustrate the complexity of discourses debates and issues focusing in particular on the situation in Iran Iraq Jordan Lebanon Pakistan Palestine and Turkey and explain how they cannot be reduced to a single underlying factor such as religion or a simple binary opposition between the religious right and feminists Contributors include renowned academicians researchers psychologists historians human rights and women s rights advocates and political scientists from different countries and backgrounds offering a balanced and contemporary perspective on this important issue as well as highlighting the implication of these debates in larger socio political contexts Reframing the "Desert Frontier" Rebecca Repper, M.C. Bishop, Dr Robert Bewley, 2025-03-01 The eastern frontier of the Roman Empire its network of roads trade routes towns and forts is often conceived of as an edge of both empire and civilisation but this borderland is also part of a rich cultural landscape Our awareness and appreciation of these cultures has increased dramatically over the course of the last century Scholarship has deepened methods have advanced and perspectives have shifted Across 20 chapters Reframing the Desert Frontier offers new insights into the rich cultural history of this region through the re examination of existing material such as archives historical accounts and previous surveys and through the use of novel archaeological approaches The bringing together of different methodological approaches to the archaeology of the region in a single volume highlights synergies and offers important comparisons for archaeologists to consider This volume highlights the work of Emeritus Professor David Kennedy whose contribution to the study of the Roman army the archaeology of Jordan and aerial archaeology has inspired and enhanced multiple projects that have reframed this so called desert frontier Reframing the Desert Frontier encapsulates the enriched view of this ancient region generated by new techniques of survey and analysis changed perspectives on older materials a more intense engagement with the rural landscapes surrounding ancient towns and the addition of new discoveries that alter previous consensus Group Identity and Religious Individuality in Late Antiquity Eric Rebillard, Jorg Rupke, 2015 To understand the past we necessarily group people together and consequently frequently assume that all of its members share the same attributes In this ground breaking volume Eric Rebillard and J rg R pke bring renowned scholars together to challenge this norm by seeking to rediscover the individual and to explore the dynamics between individuals and the groups to which they belong Religion and Orientalism in Asian Studies Kiri Paramore, 2016-10-06 Religion and Orientalism in Asian Studies analyses the role of religion in past and present understandings of Asia Religion and the history of its study in the modern academy has exercised massive influence over Asian Studies fields in the past century Asian Studies has in turn affected and is increasingly shaping the study of religion

Religion and Orientalism in Asian Studies looks into this symbiotic relationship both in current practice and in the modern histories of both Orientalism and Area Studies Each chapter of the book deals with one regional sub discipline in Asian Studies covering Chinese Studies Japanese Studies Korean Studies South Asian Studies Southeast Asian Studies and Central Eurasian Studies The chapters are integrated by shared themes that run through the past and present practice of Asian Studies covering the role of state actors in originating Area Studies the role of local scholarship in defining and developing it the interaction between humanities and social science approaches debates over the dominance of Western and or modern categories and frameworks the interaction of past and present and the role of religious actors and religious sensibilities in shaping Asian Studies

Questioning the 'Muslim Woman' Nida Kirmani, 2016-03-16 The marginalisation of Muslims in India has recently been the subject of heated public debate In these discussions however Muslim women are often either overlooked or treated as a homogenous group with a common set of interests Focusing on the narratives of women living in a predominantly Muslim colony in South Delhi this book attempts to demonstrate the complexity of their lives and the multiple levels of insecurity they face Unlike other studies on Indian Muslims that focus on Islam as a defining factor this book highlights the ways in which religious identity intersects with other identities including class status regional affiliation and gender The author also sheds light on the impact of such events as the Babri Masjid demolition in 1992 and the subsequent riots the Gujarat communal carnage in 2002 and the anti Sikh violence in New Delhi in 1984 along with the rise of Hindutva and growing Islamophobia experienced worldwide in the post 9 11 period on the articulation of identities at the local level and increasing religion based spatial segregation in Indian cities The study highlights how these incidents combine in different ways to increase the sense of marginalisation experienced by Muslims at the level of the locality Understanding the need to look beyond preconceived religious categories this book will serve as essential reading for those interested in sociology anthropology gender religious and urban studies as well as policymakers and organisations concerned with issues related to religious minorities in India

Citizenship Pedagogies in Asia and the Pacific Kerry J Kennedy, Wing On Lee, David L Grossman, 2012-02-28 How are students in Asia and the Pacific taught to be effective citizens Following two successful volumes previously published in this series Citizenship Education in Asia and the Pacific Concepts and Issues and Citizenship Curriculum in Asia and the Pacific this volume focuses on citizenship pedagogies that are promoted by governments in the region advocated by scholars and adapted in the schools and classrooms where citizenship education takes place every day Thirteen case studies from diverse societies in Asia and the Pacific highlight the ways in which teachers and students think about experience or plan for citizenship teaching and learning Different methods vignettes student surveys case studies and literature reviews are used to portray these experiences from both macro and micro analytic perspectives The wide array of case studies provides rich information and insights into the realities and possibilities of pedagogies for citizenship across the region contributes to a new narrative regarding Byzantine cities through the adoption of a neighbourhood perspective. It offers a multi disciplinary investigation of the spatial and social practices that produced Byzantine concepts of neighbourhood and afforded dynamic interactions between different actors elite and non elite. Authors further consider neighbourhoods as political entities examining how varieties of collectivity formed in Byzantine neighbourhoods translated into political action. By both acknowledging the unique position of Constantinople and giving serious attention to the varieties of provincial experience the contributors consider regional factors social economic and political that formed the ties of local communities to the state and illuminate the mechanisms of empire. Beyond its Byzantine focus this volume contributes to broader discussions of premodern urbanism by drawing attention to the spatial dimension of social life and highlighting the involvement of multiple agents in city making.

An Anthropology of Disappearance Laura Huttunen, Gerhild Perl, 2023-09-15. All over the world people disappear from their families communities and the state's bureaucratic gaze as victims of oppressive regimes or while migrating along clandestine routes. This volume brings together scholars who engage ethnographically with such disappearances in various cultural social and political contexts. It takes an anthropological perspective on questions about human life and death absence and presence rituals and mourning liminality and structures citizenship and personhood as well as agency and power. The chapters explore the political dimension of disappearances and address methodological epistemological and ethical challenges of researching disappearances and the disappeared. The combination of disappearance through political violence crime voluntary disappearance and migration make this book a unique combination.

Shaping Letters, Shaping Communities: Multilingualism and Linguistic Practice in the Late Antique Near East and Egypt, 2023-12-11. The volume explores linguistic practices and choices in the late antique Eastern Mediterranean. It investigates how linguistic diversity and change influenced the social dimension of human interaction affected group dynamics the expression and negotiation of various communal identities such as professional groups of mosaic makers stonecutters or their supervisors in North Syria bilingual monastic communities in Palestine elusive producers of Coptic ritual texts in Egypt or Jewish communities in Dura Europos and Palmyra. The key question is what do we learn about social groups and human individuals by studying their multilingualism and language practices reflected in epigraphic and other written sources.

Studies in Religion and the Everyday Farhana Ibrahim, 2024. Studies in Religion and the Everyday is a collection of essays addressing the contours of religious beliefs and practices in the context of everyday life in India. Events and processes in contemporary India especially post the 1990s have contributed to distinct modes of articulating religious practices. This volume is an attempt to historicize and problematize the categorization of religion as a universally held and analytically distinct feature of human life and seeks to understand the conditions historical political discursive and processes of authorization under which a particular set of practices values and dispositions constitutes the religious at a specific point in time. By bringing together studies that draw from diverse methodological and epistemological approaches the book will serve as a useful introduction to religion in India for the general reader and as an indispensable resource for students and researchers. The volume presents fresh perspectives on existing fields of study such as the city, capital, minorities, secularization and the state, no longer seen as distinct from religion but actively co-produced with religion in the context of the theoretical rubric of the everyday, thereby marking a departure from approaching the question of religion solely through the lens of identity and conflict.

History and Society during the Mamluk Period (1250–1517) Bethany J. Walker, Abdelkader Al Ghouz, 2021-04-12. This volume is a collection of research essays submitted by fellows of the Annemarie Schimmel Kolleg, an Advanced Center of Research in Mamluk Studies. It covers three themes which correspond to the research agenda of the final three academic years of the Annemarie Schimmel Kolleg. These were environmental history, material culture studies and mobility. The aim of the contributions is to overcome the disciplinary boundaries of the field and to engage in scholarly debates in Ottoman Studies, European history, archaeology and art history and even the natural sciences.

Constructing Modern Asian Citizenship Edward Vickers, Krishna Kumar, 2014-12-05. In many non-Western contexts, modernization has tended to be equated with Westernization and hence with an abandonment of authentic indigenous identities and values. This is evident in the recent history of many Asian societies where efforts to modernize, spurred on by the spectre of foreign domination, have often been accompanied by determined attempts to stamp national variants of modernity with the brand of local authenticity. Asian values, Chinese characteristics, a Japanese cultural essence and so forth. Highlighting or exaggerating associations between the more unsettling consequences of modernization and alien influence has thus formed part of a strategy whereby elites in many Asian societies have sought to construct new forms of legitimacy for old patterns of dominance over the masses. The apparatus of modern systems of mass education, often inherited from colonial rulers, has been just one instrument in such campaigns of state legitimation. This book presents analyses of a range of contemporary projects of citizenship formation across Asia in order to identify those issues and concerns most central to Asian debates over the construction of modern identities. Its main focus is on schooling but also examines other vehicles for citizenship formation such as museums and the internet, the role of religion in particular, Islam in debates over citizenship and identity in certain Asian societies and the relationship between state-centred identity discourses and the experience of increasingly globalized elites. With chapters from an international team of contributors, this interdisciplinary volume will appeal to students and scholars of Asian culture and society, Asian education, comparative education and citizenship.

Wars and No Peace Over Kashmir Maroof Raza, 1996.

Justice before Reconciliation Dipankar Gupta, 2013-04-03. The book explores how Muslims in Mumbai and Ahmedabad coped with the aftermath of the violence directed against them in 1993 and 2002 respectively and how they responded to the ethnic carnages of which they were the victims, highlighting the importance of the context and the history of the place where such violence occurred. Unlike other studies on ethnic violence which have a short-term focus in dealing with its immediate aftermath, this book examines what happens to the victims over time and how they negotiate a new normal and get on with their lives Using empirical material based on field work in Mumbai and Ahmedabad the book shows that while poverty education and employment remain important elements in the recovery process the most crucial issue is that of justice and the need to reclaim citizenship A significant section of the book is devoted to the relationship between Muslim faith based organisations and the victims of ethnic violence Testing the Canon of Ancient Near Eastern Art and Archaeology Amy Rebecca Gansell, Ann Shafer, 2020 This volume addresses and problematizes the formation and transformation of the ancient Near Eastern art historical and archaeological canon The canon is defined as an established list of objects monuments buildings and sites that are considered to be most representative of the ancient Near East In testing this canon this project takes stock of the current canon its origins endurance and prospects Boundaries and typologies are examined technologies of canon production are investigated and heritage perspectives on contemporary culture offer a key to the future Religious Convergence in the Ancient Mediterranean Sandra Blakely, Billie Jean Collins, 2019-12-15 This volume brings together scholars in religion archaeology philology and history to explore case studies and theoretical models of converging religions The twenty four essays offered in this volume which derive from Hittite Cilician Lydian Phoenician Greek and Roman cultural settings focus on encounters at the boundaries of cultures landscapes chronologies social class and status the imaginary and the materially operative Broad patterns ultimately emerge that reach across these boundaries and suggest the state of the question on the study of convergence and the potential fruitfulness for comparative and interdisciplinary studies as models continue to evolve A Companion to the Hellenistic and Roman Near East Ted Kaizer, 2022-01-06 Discover a comprehensive and cross disciplinary handbook exploring several sub regions and key themes perfect for a new generation of students A Companion to the Hellenistic and Roman Near East delivers the first complete handbook in the area of Hellenistic and Roman Near Eastern history The book is divided into sections dealing with interdisciplinary source material each with a great deal of regional variety and engaging with several key themes It integrates discussions of the classical Near East with the typical undergraduate teaching syllabus in the Anglo Saxon world All contributors in this edited volume are leading scholars in their field with a combination of established researchers and academics and emerging voices Contributors hail from countries across several continents and work in various disciplines including Ancient History Archaeology Art History Epigraphy Numismatics and Oriental Studies In addition to furthering the integration of the Levantine lands in the classical periods into the teaching canon the book offers readers The first comprehensively structured Companion and edited handbook on the Hellenistic and Roman Near East Extensive regional and sub regional variety in the cross disciplinary source material A way to compensate for the recent destruction of monuments in the region and the new generation of researchers inability to examine these historical stages in person An integration of the study of the Hellenistic and Roman Near East with traditional undergraduate teaching syllabi in the Anglo Saxon world Perfect for undergraduate history and classics students studying the Near East A Companion to the Hellenistic and Roman

Near East will also earn a place in the libraries of graduate students and scholars working within Near Eastern studies as well as interested members of the public with a passion for history

Public Commissions on Cultural and Religious Diversity Solange Lefebvre, Patrice Brodeur, 2017-05-08 Due to growing negative perceptions about relations between historically entrenched dominant populations and various minority groups issues relating to the need to better manage cultural and religious diversity have been intensifying in many countries These negative perceptions have recently led to a significant increase in popular support for right and extreme right nationalist discourses and have created so much public tension that national governments have had no choice but to respond In the last two decades in several Western contexts in particular the issues raised by such combined challenges have culminated in the creation of government initiated or private national commissions This book presents the results of a multidisciplinary analysis from a broader framework that includes the national public commissions which have addressed the challenges of managing cultural and religious diversity in Belgium Britain Canada Quebec France Morocco and Norway including also other cases of public management in Australia and Singapore It includes in depth studies of the issues and controversies examined by each of the commissions such as the ways they perceived the issues their results and impact the key political players involved the media debates and reception surrounding each commission the communication strategies and difficulties their leaders encountered as well as the legal aspects each commission has raised The reports represent a rich body of work charting the fundamental questions nations face about their nature history and future while the impact on peoples lives tells us much about different approaches to the issues of cultural identity between countries

Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair, 2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Near Eastern Cities from Alexander to the Successors of Muhammad Walter D. Ward, 2019-07-10 Near Eastern Cities from Alexander to the Successors of Muhammad compares the evolution of several cities in the Near East from the time of Alexander the Great until the beginning of the Islamic Abbasid Dynasty This volume examines both archaeological remains and literary sources to explain the diversity of imperial cultural and religious influences on urban life It offers several case studies chosen from different regions of the Roman Near East demonstrating that Greco Roman and Islamic culture spread unevenly through these various cities and that it is impossible to make broad generalizations It argues instead that there were different patterns of urbanism that demonstrate a continued vitality of civic life up to the Abbasid revolution Near Eastern Cities from Alexander to the Successors of Muhammad will be of particular interest to students of this period in the Ancient Near East as well as those studying ancient cities and everyday life
