Reclaiming Powerful Literacies Rebecca Rogers,2017-10-30

Offering a unique reflexive framework for Critical Discourse Analysis focused on discourses of hope transformation and liberation this book showcases a variety of powerful literacies in action Drawing from original research in a range of public educational spaces across the lifespan from Kindergartners studying social justice movements to sixth graders designing a social justice museum exhibit focused on the environment and sustainability to teacher education students practicing racial literacy in response to the death of Michael Brown in Ferguson Missouri Rogers makes the case that critical social theories often associated with Critical Discourse Analysis have not kept pace with a recent shift toward the positive referred to as Positive Discourse Analysis Encouraging readers to reconsider their understanding of concepts such as power action context critique and reflexivity this book illustrates the potential of theorizing discourse analysis from a positive orientation The

The A to Z of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venice T. Berry, 2009-09-02 On 4 July 1910 in 100 degree heat at an outdoor boxing ring near Reno Nevada film cameras recorded and thousands of fans witnessed former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries reluctant return from retirement to fight Jack Johnson a black man After 14 grueling rounds Johnson knocked out Jeffries and for the first time in history there was a black heavyweight champion of the world At least 10 people lost their lives because of Johnson's victory and hundreds more were injured due to white retaliation and wild celebrations in the streets Public screenings received instantaneous protests and hundreds of cities barred the film from being shown Congress even passed a law making it a federal offense to transport moving pictures of prizefights across state lines and thus the most powerful portrayal of a black man ever recorded on film was made virtually invisible This is but one of the hundreds of films covered in The A to Z of African American Cinema which includes everything from The Birth of a Nation to Crash In addition to the films brief biographies of African American actors and actresses such as Sidney Poitier James Earl Jones Halle Berry Eddie Murphy Whoopi Goldberg Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx can be found in this reference Through a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards film credits and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history

Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books Liz Knowles,Martha Smith,2007-05-30 Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books goes beyond the usual multicultural lists and looks at the wide expanse of the diversity of cultures and lifestyles impacting children s lives in America today and identifies good books to have in library collections for them to read Included are annotated titles with discussion questions from all of the identified cultures and subcultures and annotated teacher librarian resources print and Web based as well as an excellent list of topical annotated journal articles Grades 4 8 Knowles and Smith examine current research on diversity and multiculturalism They move away from the traditional aspects of multicultural education food fashion folktales festivals and famous people to a focus on novels and pictures books and realistic fiction to show children with diversity issues that there are others in similar positions The issue of authenticity whether the author of the book should be of that culture or merely familiar with the culture is discussed

Topics include Ethnicities Asian Latino Hispanic African Black Native American White European Bi Multiracial Exceptionalities Ageism Socioeconomic Status Sexual Orientation Gender and Religion The authors provide this valuable resource for libraries schools and communities that wish to utilize literature to help diverse students walk in the shoes of others and to match books to children and young adults to heighten understanding and acceptance Grades 4 8 Ruth Kate Riley, 2025-08-19 Irresistibly smart and funny Jenny Offill author of Weather and Dept of Speculation The serenely weird testament of an unintentional heroine in an intentional community and an act of novelistic grace that deserves not only cult status but its own religion Joshua Cohen author of the Pulitzer Prize winning The Netanyahus In this mesmerizing and profound novel the arc of a woman's life in a devout insular community challenges our deepest assumptions about what infuses life with meaning Ruth is raised in a snow globe of Christian communism a world without private property television or tolerance for idle questions Every morning she braids her hair and wears the same costume sings the same breakfast song in a family room identical to every other family room in the community every one of these moments is meant to be a prayer but to Ruth they remain puzzles Her life is seen in glimpses through childhood marriage and motherhood as she tries to manage her own perilous curiosity in a community built on holy mystery Is she happy Might this in fact be happiness Ruth immerses us in an experience that challenges our most fervent beliefs

Children, Spirituality, Religion and Social Work Margaret Crompton, 2017-03-02 Attention to children's spiritual and religious well being is required by legislation Government guidelines and the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child 1989 Margaret Crompton has worked with and on behalf of children as a social worker lecturer and writer Her recent publications include Children and Counselling and a training pack Children Spirituality and Religion This jargon free book develops and adds to those ideas and materials focusing on everyday practice in social work education and health care Reference is made to several religions and to ideas about spirituality which is not necessarily associated with religious belief and observance Practitioners experience is also cited Topics include spiritual and religious rights spiritual development needs and well being implications of religious beliefs and observances for daily life and care abuse and neglect death including suicide and abortion and communication including stories and play

Citizen Steinbeck Robert McParland, 2016-09-29 John Steinbeck is one of the most popular and important writers in American literature Novels such as The Grapes of Wrath Of Mice and Men and East of Eden and the journal Travels with Charley convey the core of Steinbeck's work fiction that is reflective and compassionate The Nobel prize winner cared deeply about people and his writing captured the spirit determination and willingness of individuals to fight for their rights and the rights of others His art of caring is critical for today's readers and as a touchstone for our collective future In Citizen Steinbeck Giving Voice to the People Robert McParland explains how the author's work helps readers engage in moral reflection and develop empathy McParland also looks at the ways educators around the world have used Steinbeck's writings both fiction and nonfiction to impart ideals of compassion and social justice These ideals are weaved into all of Steinbeck's work including his journalism and theatrical productions Drawing on these texts as well as interviews with secondary level teachers this book shows how Steinbeck's work prompts readers to think critically and contextually about our values Demonstrating the power a single author can have on generations of individuals around the world Citizen Steinbeck enables readers to make sense of both the past and the present through the prism of this literary icon's inspirational work
