Rudi Gopas A Biography:

Rudi Gopas Chris Ronayne, Rudi Gopas, 2002 This is a detailed and highly readable biography of such a renowned New Zealand artist and teacher who is also somewhat controversially known as the father of German Expressionism in New Zealand

Strangers Arrive Leonard Bell, 2017-11-17 None of us had the faintest idea where we were going but during 1938-39 the town Christchurch was made strangely interesting for anyone like myself with the scattered arrival of the refugees All at once there were people among us who were actually from Vienna or Chemnitz or Berlin who knew the work of Schoenberg and Gropius Anthony Alpers 1985 From the 1930s through the 1950s a substantial number of forced migrants refugees from Nazism displaced people after World War II and escapees from Communist countries arrived in New Zealand from Europe Among them were an extraordinary group of artists and writers photographers and architects whose European modernism radically reshaped the arts in this country In words and pictures Strangers Arrive tells their story Ranging across the arts from photographer Irene Koppel to art dealer and printmaker Kees Hos architect Imric Porsolt to writer Antigone Kefala Leonard Bell takes us inside New Zealand's bookstores and coffeehouses studios and galleries to introduce us to a compelling body of artistic work He asks key questions How were migrants received by New Zealanders How did displacement and settlement in New Zealand transform their work How did the arrival of European modernists intersect with the burgeoning nationalist movement in the arts in New Zealand Strangers Arrive introduces us to a talented group of aliens who were critical catalysts for change in New Zealand culture

Anne Perry and the Murder of the Century Peter Graham, 2013-05 On June 22 1954 teenage friends Juliet Hulme better known as bestselling mystery writer Anne Perry and Pauline Parker went for a walk in a New Zealand park with Pauline's mother Honorah When Honorah Parker was found in a pool of blood with the brick used to bludgeon her to death close at hand Juliet and Pauline confessed to the killing Their motive a plan to escape to the United States to become writers and Honorah's determination to keep them apart Graham offers a brilliant account of the crime and ensuing trial and shares dramatic revelations about the fates of the young women after their release from prison

Tony Fomison Mark Forman, 2025-03-13 he wanted to make room at the back of our heads From the introduction by the author In a career spanning three decades Tony Fomison 1939 activist archaeologist and scholar trickster addict and disrupter and above all else an artist who shed light on the human condition and reimagined life in Aotearoa In this compelling biography developed over more than a decade Mark Forman draws on archival material and interviews with more than 150 people including Fomison's family and close friends leading contemporary artists political activists and art professionals The result is a comprehensive yet lively and accessible biography that reveals the man and his art to a new generation of readers

When Economies Change Hands Leo Paul Dana, 2013-09-05 Gain a comprehensive understanding of the development of entrepreneurship across Eastern Europe Throughout Eastern Europe post Communist countries transitioning to market based economies are obtaining a variety of results due to diverse policy approaches When

Economies Change Hands evaluates the nature of entrepreneurship in this region the consequences of central planning the reasons for internal subsistence activity and the emergence of the sex trade in Eastern Europe The wealth of information in this resource is clearly presented and includes thought provoking policy prescriptions for the future It is challenging to predict the direction emerging markets will take particularly when dealing with the wide ranging social and economic situations taking place in post Communist Eastern Europe When Economies Change Hands can help This reference volume for policymakers educators investors and researchers provides a much needed and timely survey of the transitioning markets of post Communist Europe It examines the historical sociocultural and economic impacts of market transition The text includes a discussion of the creation and distribution of wealth in the countries of Eastern Europe that will leave you better informed about the dynamics of transitioning economies and the growth of entrepreneurship across Eastern Europe In addition the book demonstrates the problems and advantages of both slow reform and rapid reform models in a thorough and easy to read manner When Economies Change Hands includes vivid photos of notable entrepreneurs and a sophisticated trail of references for academics that complements the useful and meaningful information you will find in the text When Economies Change Hands examines how various policies affect the economies of transitioning countries by incorporating and discussing detailed definitions and comparisons of formal and parallel economies an in depth study of entrepreneurship in the Republic of Albania the Eastern Bloc of Comecon The Baltic States and the Commonwealth of Independent States pluralism in the former Yugoslav Republics analyses of governmental programs and policy prescriptions for the future and much more As the market economies of Eastern Europe develop and expand the value of this meticulous yet accessible text will continue to increase Whether you are a policymaker an educator an investor or a researcher When Economies Change Hands is a resource that you ll return to again and again as you work to understand and predict the future of post Communist economies in Eastern Europe

Trevor Moffitt Chris Ronayne, 2006 Trevor Moffitt is a detailed and fascinating illustrated biography of a unique and successful New Zealand painter Born in 1936 to a poor Southland family where of necessity a hunter gatherer mentality prevailed young Trevor set his mind on art school and becoming an artist There were many hurdles to overcome His father told him to leave school at age fifteen and when Trevor refused his father didn't speak to him for years and left him to finance his own schooling clothing and other necessities He succeeded in attending the art school at Ilam and wanted to paint New Zealand but in his own way where people were as important as the landscape But to be producing figurative and narrative work when all around him were creating international modernism was considered by some to be missing the point Furthermore his bold direct expressionist style was considered almost primitive and this led to slow recognition of his talent Trevor Moffitt supported his family through the difficult early years by teaching secondary school art where he eventually headed a large department at Burnside High School in Christchurch and proved to be an excellent administrator While still not achieving wide acclaim he resigned from teaching in the 1980s and stuck doggedly to his task Trevor Moffitt became arguably New Zealand's leading narrative painter producing series such as the Gold Miners Mackenzie My Father's Life Stanley Graham and Hokonui Moonshine Very much a humanist he completed three Human Condition series He died in April 2006
