Vienna and the New Wohnkultur, 1918-1938 Michelle Jackson-Beckett, 2024-03-20 While the domestic sphere might seem tangential to the dire political situation and humanitarian crises of interwar Europe it was nevertheless at the forefront of debates about cultural identity and economic policy in the Viennese press culture and arts Vienna and the New Wohnkultur 1918-1938 explores why and how the Viennese design landscape was set apart aesthetically and theoretically from other European explorations of modern design Jackson Beckett examines interior design exhibitions press and debates about modern living in interwar Vienna an overlooked area of modern European architecture and design history arguing for a reconsideration of the contours of European modernism The text analyses varied interpretations of modern domestic culture Wohnkultur in Vienna and explores why these interpretations were distinct from other strands of European modernism Vienna and the New Wohnkultur introduces new research and translation of primary sources on flexible adaptable and affordable design by architects designers and retailers Vienna's design discourse also prefigured important postmodern and contemporary discussions on historicism eclecticism empathy and user experience Through extensive new research in archival and period sources Jackson Beckett illustrates how design ideas taste and portrayals of domestic culture of fin de siècle Viennese Modernism Wiener Moderne were also deployed as forms of cultural and national identity both during the early years of the Social Democratic government in Vienna 1918-1934 and later under the fascist state 1934-1938 Eros and Inwardness in Vienna David S. Luft, 2003-06 Although we usually think of the intellectual legacy of twentieth century Vienna as synonymous with Sigmund Freud and his psychoanalytic theories other prominent writers from Vienna were also radically reconceiving sexuality and gender In this probing new study David Luft recovers the work of three such writers Otto Weininger Robert Musil and Heimito von Doderer His account emphasizes the distinctive intellectual world of liberal Vienna especially the impact of Schopenhauer and Nietzsche in this highly scientific intellectual world According to Luft Otto Weininger viewed human beings as bisexual and applied this theme to issues of creativity and morality Robert Musil developed a creative ethics that was closely related to his open flexible view of sexuality and gender And Heimito von Doderer portrayed his own sexual obsessions as a way of understanding the power of total ideologies including his own attraction to National Socialism For Luft the significance of these three writers lies in their understandings of eros and inwardness and in the roles that both play in ethical experience and the formation of meaningful relations to the world a process that continues to engage artists writers and thinkers today Eros and Inwardness in Vienna will profoundly reshape our understanding of Vienna's intellectual history It will be important for anyone interested in Austrian or German history literature or philosophy Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library.
